Reporting Bases

Data on reoalpts, expenditures, and debt wrich appear in the "Tressury Bulletin" are based largely on two Treasury financial reporta, the "Dally Statement of the United Statea Treasury" and the "Monthly Statement of Receipte and Expenditures of the United States Government." Certain monetary atatiatice are based at least in part on the "C1rculation Statement of United Statea Money." Where these otatemente are given as sources for individual tables, they are cited by nawe only. Thelr respeotive reporting bassa are degoribed below. For other data in the Bullotin, information on sources or reporting bases 10 given in connection with the tables themelves.

The monthly atatement of recelpta and expendituree was P1rst published for February 1954, and replaced the dally statement as the primary eource of information on budget reeults and other recelpt and expenditure data claesifled by type of account. At the same time, the daily atatement was changed to a statement of cash deposits and withorawals affeoting the account of the Treasurer of the United Statea. Both publications have provided comparative figures on their respective bases from the beginning of the 1180al year 1953. The announcement of February 17, 1954, Wh respect to these reporting changes may be found in the April 1954 1saue of the Bulletin.

The monthly statement shows all reoelpte and expenditures of the Government, Including thooe made from cash accounts held outaide the United Statea Treasury. The information is complled from reports by the Treasurer of the United States and by all other collecting and disburaing agencies, including those agencies which maintain checking accounts in comercial banks. Theee reporte cover traneaotions reoorded 1 n the accounts of the agencies during the reporting period. The net of the transactions as complled from theas reports is reconciled in the monthly atatement to changes in the balanoe in the Treasurer's account and in cach held outside the Treasurer's account and changes in the publio debt outstanding.

Recelpta of taxes and customs dutise are reported on a oolleotions basia. Other reoelpte ar* reported partially on a collections basia and par tially on a deposits besie. Expenditures, except interest on the public debt, are reported on the basia of checks 1 saued or cash payments made by disbureing officers. Transactions of an interfund or intragovernmental nature are included on the same basis even though the actual ieeuance of cheoks may not be involved. Interest on the public debt 1e included on an accrual basis beginning with figures for June 1955 and the 11soal year 1955. Prior to that, it was included on a due and payable basie. The ame reporting basie as that in the monthly statement provide the fisoal year ilguree for the Treasury's "Comblned Statement of Recelpt E, Expend1turee and Balances of the United Statee Government" and for aotual receipte and expenditures in the "Budget of the United States Government."

Beginning with the final etatement for the 11日cal year 1960, the monthly otatement reporta totale for net budget reoelpts and budget expenditures after deduotion of oertain interfund transaotion which are included in the detall of both budget reoelpts and budget expenditures. The transactions deducted consigt of intereet payments andminor amounts of certain other payments made by Government agencles to the Tresaury. This reporting change was made in accordance with the plan stated in the President's Budget Meseage of January 18, 1960. It does not affeot the eurplue or deficit. Figures for earlier perlode shown in the Treasury Bulletin were revised to the new reporting basis in the september 1960 1esue. The interfund transactions deduoted under this procedure do not include paymente to the Treasury by wholly owned Government corporations for retirement of their oapltal stock and for disposition of earninge. Theee capital transfere have been excluded currently from budget reoelpta and budget expenditures beginning July 1,1948 , and ilgures for prior fiecal years back through 1932 were revieed acoordingly at that time.

The delly statement on the new basie was flret Lesued for February 17, 1954. In the depoeite and Withdrawals as shom, no dietinction is made as to the type of acoounts (budget, truet, eto.). The deposite are on the basia of certificates of deposit cleared through the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Total withdrawals are on the basis of checke pald or cash aisbursements made out of the Treasurer's aocount. Some of the withdrawal clae日ifications shown are reported on the basie of mailed roports of ohscks 18 sued and are adjueted by meane of olearing accounts to the total of ohecks paid. Except for relatively minor amounta, noncaeh interfund and other intragovernmental transaotion are excluded. The public debt figures in the dally atatement also are on a "clearanoe" basis, with the oxoeption of those iseuanoe and retirement transactions roported on the basis of telegrame Irom Federal Roeerve Banke. Noncash debt transaotion are included, however.

Reporting Bases - (Continued)

The dally statement before February 17, 1954, covered not only tranaactions cleared through the Treasurer's account but also certain Government agency transactions which were handled through comercial bank accounts, and includad noncash interfund and other intragovernmental transactions. It provided information similar to that in the present dally statement with respect to the status of the Treasurer's account, and similar to that in the present end-ol-month dally statement with respect to debt issuance, retirement, and amount outstanding. Reoelpts and expenditures, however, were classifled by type of account, and the budget results shown in the dally otatement were used as the basis for rellecting the results under the prosident's budget program as snacted by the Congress.

Receipts wers on the basis of deposits as they cleared the Treasurer's account. Expenditures cleared through the Treasurer's account were reported on two successive bases. Through 1946 they were on the basis of checks pald by the Treasurer of the Unitad States. Beginning with 1947, expenditures made through the facilities of the Traasury Department's Division of Disbursement were on the basis of checks 18sued, while certaln othere, principally those of the Department of Defense and its predecessor organizations, were on the basis of checka paid. Transactions handled through comercial bank accounts, consisting of market transactions in public debt and guaranteed securities, were as reported by the agencies. Interest on the public debt was included on a dus and payable basis beginning with November 1949 anc on a checks-pald basis prior to that time.

The circulation statement reflects transactions through the Treasurer's account which affect monetary stocks of gold and sllver and the amounts of coin and currency in the money supply of the country. It le lasued later than the dally atatament, however, and the 1 gures are based on transectiong consummated during the reporting period even through some may not have cleared the Treasurer's account during that period.

[^1]The announcement stated that the Treasury was combining for the first time a "Junior" advance repunding (in which holders could exchange relatively short-term maturities for an intermediate maturity), and a "senior" advance refunding (in which holders could exchange intermeciate-term securities for longterm issues). On terms mutually advantageous the Treasury thus offered holders of certain bonds an opportunity to gain additional income by extending their investment maturities for additional periods ranging between $6 \frac{7}{\text { a }}$ and $26 \frac{1}{a}$ years.

The extension of maturities provided by the offering is shown in the accompanying table.

Tax Anticipation Bills

Tenders totaling $$ 3,593$ million were recesved for the March 20 caah and exchange offering of $$ 1.8$ billion, or thereabouts, of 182-day tax anticipation series Treasury bills. Acceptances of tenders to-
 of 2.896 percent including $$ 146$ million of noncompetitive tenders for $$ 400,000$ or less from any one bidder which wers accepted in full at the average price of accepted competitive bide.

The bllle are dated March 23, 1962, and mature September 21, 1962. They will be accepted at par in payment of income and profits taxes due september 15 , 1962; and to the extent they are not presented for this purpose the face amount will be payable without interest at maturity. Issued in bearer form only, the new bills are in denominations of $$ 1,000$, $$ 5,000, $ 10,000, $ 50,000, $ 100,000, $ 500,000$, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

Payment for the new bills was required to be completed on March 23, 1962, in cash or other 1mmediately available funde, or in a like face amount of tax anticipation series bille maturing on that date. Cash adjustments were made for differences between the par value of the maturing bills accepted in exchange and the $188 u$ price of the new bills.

Incorporated banks and trust companies and responsible and recognized deslers in investment securitles were permitted to submit tenders without deposit. Tenders from others were required to be accompanied by payment of 2 percent of the face amount of the bllla applled for, or an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust oompany.

Weakly B1118 Increased

Issues of regular weekly bills during February totaled $$ 7.2$ billion, refunding $$ 6.9$ billion of bills maturing and providing about $$ 0.3$ billion of new cash. The now securities consleted of four lesues of 13-weak bllle of $$ 1.2$ blllion each, and four 1esues of 26 -week bllls of $$ 0.6$ blllion each. With the exception of the bllls dated February 23, which are for 90 days and 181 days, respectively, the new bille carry 91-day and 182-day maturities. Source: Actual figures through the fiscal year 1952 and the calendar year 1953 are from the daily Treasury statement, and thereafter from the monthly statement of receipts and expenditures of the Government (for explanation of reporting bases, see page II); estimates are from the 1903 Budget document, released January 18, 1962, including effects of proposed legislation. More detail for data on this page will be found in succeeding tables.
1/ Fiscal year figures beginning with the September 1960 issue of the Treasury Bulletin, and calendar year ilgures baginning with the June 1961 issue exclude certain interfund transactions from both net budget recelpts and budget expenditures (see pages iI, 2, and 4). Figures previously published for these serles have been revised to the new reporting basis. The change does not affect the budget surplus ur deficit.
2/ Excess of recelpts, or expenditures (-). For detail, see pages 9 - 13 For checks outstanding and telegraphic reports from Federal Reserve Banks; public debt interest accrued and unpaid beginning with June and the fiscal year 1955 (previously included from November 1969 as Interest checka and coupons outstanding); also deposits in transit and changes in cash held outside the Treasury and in certaln other accounts beginning with the fiscal year 1954. Net increase, or decrease ( - ).

纱 For current month detail and list of acts, see section on "Statutory Debt Limitation" in each 1ssue of the Bulletin. The limitations in effect during the period covered by this table and the date when each became effective are as follows: $275 billion, on June 26, 1946, $. 81 billion, on August 28, 1954; $278 billion, on July 1, 1956; $. 75 billion, on July 1, 1957; $280 billion, un February 26, 1958; $.88 billion, on September 2, 1958; $290 billion, on June 30, 195\%; billion, on July 1, 1959; and $$ 293$ billion, on July 1, 1960 . Frum July 1, 1961, through June 30, 1962, the lioit is $$ 298$ billiun. Thereafter it will revert to $$ 285$ blllion.
5/ Transactions of the Foreign Economic Cooperation Trust Fund. established under Section 114 (f) of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948 (62 Stat. 150), are consolldated with budget expenditures.

Source: Actual figures are from reports to the Treasury Department by disbursing officers and administrative agencies, on the monthly statement reporting basis (see page II); estimates are from the 1963 Budget document, released January 18, 1962, including effects of proposed legislation.
Consists of miscellaneous taxes (principally the tonnage tax on foreign vessels entering U. S. ports), bullion charges, and gifts and contributions.
2 Difference between the total shown in the monthiy statement of recelpts and expenditures of the Govermment (based on preliminary reports) and that from fingl accounts of disbursing officers. Less than $$ 500,000$.

Footnotes to Table 1 - (Continued)

Figures shown include (see footrote 8) increase in income tax withheld of $$ 109$ million in October, decrease of $$ 47$ million in Janusry; decreasea in income tax not withheld of $$ 2$ million in October and $$ 6$ million in January; decrease in transfers to Federal Old-Age and Survivora Insurance Trust Fund of $$ 105 \mathrm{million}$ in October, increase of $$ 49$ million in January; and decrease to Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund of $$ 2$ million in October, increase of $$ 3$ mililion in January.
Interest on refunds is included in expenditures in Table 3.
Amounts appropriated to the Federal Old-Age and Survivora Insurance Trust Fund are equivalent to the amounts of taxes collected and deposited for old-age Insurance. Amounts transferred currently for appropriation to the trust fund are based on estimates of old-age insurance tax recelpts made by the Secretary of the Treasury ( 42 U.S.C. 401 (a)), and are adjusted in later transfers on the basis of wage and self-employment income records maintained in the Socia. Security Administration. The amount of old-age insurance tax refunds is reimbursed to the general fund by the trust fund.
The Federal Disablilty Insurance Trust Fund was establlahed by the Social Security Act Amendments of 1956, approved August 1, 1956 ( 42 U.S.C. 401 (b)). The act appropriated to the trust fund amounts equivalent to specified percentages of the wages and aelf-employment income, respectively, which are taxed for old-age inaurance, and provided that the amounts appropriated should be transferred from time to time to the trust fund on the same basia as transfers to the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund. Rates of tax were increased by the percentages appropriated to the Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund, the increase being applicable to wages paid and taxable years beginning after December 31, 1956.
Amounts are appropriated to the Rallroad Retirement Account equal to the amount of taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act deposited In the Treasury, less refunds, during each fiscal year ( 65 Stat. 222 and 66 Stat. 371) and transfers are made currently. Figures for 1954 exclude the Government's contribution for creditable mllitary aervice ( 45 U.S.C. $228 \mathrm{c}-1$ ( n )).
The Eaployment Securlty Act of 1960, approved September 13, 1960 ( 74 Stat. 970) established in the Unemployment Trust Fund an adriniatration account, and appropriated for credit to that account, beginning

With the fiscal year 1961, amounts equlvalent to taxes collected and deposited under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. The tax receipts are transferred currently on the basis of estimates by the Secretary of the Treasury, with later adjustments as necessary. From that account are to be pald the administrative expenses of the employment aecurity program. Previoualy the corresponding amounts were included, respectively, in budget receipts and budget expenditures. Refunds of taxes are to be relmbursed from the administration account.
12/ The Highway Revenue Act of 1956, approved June 29, 1956 (23 U.S.C. 120, Note) established a Highway Trust Fund from which are to be made, as provided by appropriation acts, Federal-aid highway expenditures after June 30, 1956, and before July 1, 1972. The act appropriated to this fund amounts equivalent to specified percentages of receipts from certain excise taxes on motor fuels, motor vehicles, tires and tubes, and use of certain vehicles, and provided that the amounts approprlated should be transferred currently to the trust fund on the basis of estimates by the Secretary of the Treasury with proper adjustments to be made in subsequent transfers. The use tax was imposed by the act and rates were increased for the other taxes Previous to the fiscal year 1957 corresponding excise tax recelpts were included in net budget receipts and Federal-ald highway expenditures were included in budget expenditures.
13) For content, see Table 4. Theae transactions are included in the detail of both budget receipts and budget expenditures, but are deducted from the totals (see Reporting Bases, p. II).
14. Figures in this column differ from those published under the same caption prior to the September 1960 Treasury Bulletin because of the exclusion of certain interfund transactions (see footnote 14).
15 Transfers reduced by $$ 300$ million to correct those made earlier on basis of estimates (see footnote 8).
16/ Beginning fiscal 1961, the principal amounts for refunds of employment taxes and certain excise taxea (highway) are excluded from the transfers of tax receipts shown herein, and are now included with refunds of internal Revenue recelpts, applicable to trust accounts.
17. Reflects gross amounts based on reimbursements by trust accounts for refunds of taxes which were mede in previous months or fiscal years.

* Less than $$ 500,000$.

The cash income and outgo data appearing in tha Tressury Bulletin, beginning with the February 1956 1asue, are on a basis consiatent with recelpts from and payments to the public as derived in the 1957 ano subsequent Judgeta of the United Statea (in the Budget for 1963 in Special Analysis B). Seconcillation to cash aeposita anawithôrawala in the account of the Treasurer of the United States 18 shown on the same basia as in the Sudget cocuments. There is also shown the amount of net cash borroring from, or repayment of borrowing to, the public. By theae arrangements, data in accoroance with the Buçet classifications are mađe avallable month by month. Figurea for back years have beer, revised where necessary in order to make them as nearly comparable with current Budget claselilcations as avallable deta will permit. For this reason certaln of the 1 gurea differ somewhat from those published in earlier Bugget documents as well as in the Bulletln.

The Budget series of caah transactions is designed to provide information on the flow of money between the public and the Federal Government as whole, and therefora 1ncludes transactions not cleared through the Treasurer's account. Recelpts and payments include trancactions both 1n budget accounts anç in trust and deposit fund accounts. Operations of Government-sponsored enterprises are included
25. payments on a net basis as reflected in Treasury reports. Najor intragovermental trensactions which sere reported as both expenditurea and recelpts are eliminated from both. Noncash items which represent accrued oblifationo of the Government to make paymente in the future are also eliminatad from expenditures but are added later when actual peyments are made. Recelpts from the exercise of monetary authority are excluded as not representing caan recelved from the public. Federal cash borrowing from the public includes net borrowing by the Treasury through public debt trensactions and also net borrowing by Government agencles and Government-sponsored entemerisea through sales of treir own securities. It excludes changes in the cublic debt which do not reoreaent airect cash borrowing from the public. The net effect of all these transactiona with the oublic is replected in changer in the balance In the Treasurer ${ }^{\dagger}$ s account and in cash held outside the Treasury.

Cash transactions through the Treasurer's account are similar in general concept to those inclucea in the Buaget geries, but are $11 m 1 t e d$ in coverage to trinsactions which affect the balance in that account. On the other hand, they include recelpts from the exercise of monetary authority, which are excluded from recelpts from the public in the Budget series.

Table 7. - Derivation of Federal Government Net Cash Debt Transactions with the Public, and Reconcillation to Net Cash Debt Transactions through the Account of the Treasurer of the United States
(Net borrowing, or repayment of borrowing (-); in millions of dollers)

Footnotes to Table 3

1 All previously published figures were revised in the September 1960 Bulletin to take account of the deduction of certain interfund transactions from both net budget receipts and budget expenditures; and also in the July 1961 issue, deductions for certain intertrust fund transactions from both trust account receipts and trust account expenditures (see pp. 2, 4, 9, and 10). Formerly such transactions were included in the intragovernmental transactions which were deducted in deriving receipts from and payments to the public.

- Treated as noncash refund deductions from recelpts when issued and as cash refund deductions when redeemed.
2 Consists of seigniorage and the increment resulting from reduction in the weight of the gold dollar; excluded from receipts from the public but included in cash deposits in the Treasurer's account.

4 Figures in this column iffer from those published pris th the September 1960 Treasury Builetin because a few additional items of budget receipts which are also budget expenditures are included in the interfund transactions jeducted from budget receipts and budget expenditures (see footnote 1).
2 Adjusted for reclassification of certain repayments of advances from the general fund.
6/ Beginning fiscal 1961, principal amounts for refunds of taxes applicable to trust accounta, formerly included with trust account expenditures, are deducted from trust account receipts.

- Less than $$ 500,000$.

$\frac{1}{2}$ See Table 3, Cootnote 1.
2 Net operating expenditures, or receipta $\langle-\rangle$, as measured by funds provided by or applied to net security transactions reflected in Treasury reports (see Table 7). To a large extent, these Government sponsored enterprises secure funds for their operations by direct borrowing from the public or by cashing Federal securities which they hold, and they apply the net income received from operations to repayment of borrowing from the public or to investment in Eederal securities. On that basis, net expenditures for operations are shown in this table in terms of the combined net of disinvestment in Federal sucurities and sale of agency obligations in the market, and net receipts from operations are shown in terms of the combined net of investment in Federal securities and redemption of agency obligations in the market.
2. See Table 3, footnote 4
2) See Table 3, footnote 4.
2. See Table , footnote not include revolving fund receipts representing acquired securities amounting to $$ 1,643,070$ (par value).

Source nind Avillability of the Balance in the Trensurer's Account

The account of the Treasurer of the United States reflects not only tudget reoelpta and expenditures but sleo truat, deposit funs, and publle debt transaotions.

The working eseh of the Tressury io held malniy in Treasurer' accounto with Federal Reaerve Banka and branohes. As the balanoes in these accounts becoma dapleteA, they sre reatored by calling in (transferring) funca from the tax and loan socounta with thousands of combercial banks throughout the country.

Depoaita to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of buelnese under a unlform prooedure applicable to all banks whereby cuatomers of banks depoait with tham $t s x$ paymenta and funda for the purohase of Government cecurities. In most csaes the tranasotion Inrolvaa merely the transfer of money from s cuetomer's account to the tax and loan aooount in the eare Dank. On occaclons, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banka sare permitted to deposit in these acoounts proceeds from aubscriptione to public debt securitice entered for thelr own seceunt sa wall sa for the account of thelr cuetomere.

The tax and loan sccount syatem permita the Treasury to leave funda in banks and in the comyunities in which they arlee until suoh time as the Treasury needs the funda for ita operations. In thia way the ireasury is able to neutrallze tbe effect of lta fluctuating operationa on bsnk reaervee and the economy.

A detsiled deacription of the Treasury's depoaitsry ayotem may be found in the Annual Report of the Seoretary of the Treavury for 1955, pasea 275-284.

Note: The computed annusl interest charge represents the smount of interest that would be pald if each interest-bearing issue outatanding at the end of esch montb or year abould remain outatanding for a year st the spplicable annual rate of interest. The charge is computed for each issue by applying the appropriate snnual intereat rate to the amount outatanding on that date (the smount sctually borrowed in the case of securitles sold st a premium or discount, beginning with May 1960). Tha aggregate charge for all Interest-besring issues constitutes the total computed annual interest charge. The average snnual interest rate is computed by dividing the computed annusl interest charge for the totsl, or for any group of issues, by the corresponcing principsl awount. Beginning With ists for December 31, 1958, the computation is bssed on the rate of effective yield for issues sold at premium or discount. Prior to that date it was bssed on the coupon rate for sil 1ssues.

1. Includes only guaranteed securities held outside tbs Treasury.

Total includes "Other bonds" through May 1961; aee Tsble 3.
Included in debt outstanding st face smount, but discount value is used in computing annusl interest charge and annusl interest rate.
6 On United States savings bonds the rate to maturity is applied against the smount outstanding.

Note: In these tables sales of Series A-F and J bonds are included at issue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption value. Serles G, $H$, and $K$ are included at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured F and $G$ bonds outatanding are included in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the annual series have watured, and are then transferred to matured lebt upon which interest has ceased.

1) Sales and redemption figures include exchanges of minor amounts of (1) matured Series $E$ bonds for Series $G$ and $K$ bonds from May 1951 through April 1957 and (2) Seriea $F$ and J bonds for Serlea $H$ bonds beginning January 1960; however, they exclude exchanges of Series $E$ bonds for Series H bonds, which are reported in Table 3 .
2) Details by series on a cumulative basis and by periods for Series $A-D$ combined will be found in the February 1952 and previous issues of the Treasury Bulletin.
3) Because there is a normal lag in classifyling redemptions the distribution of redemptions between sales price and accrued discount has been estimated. Beginning with the Treaaury Bulletin of March 1961 the method of diatributing redemptions between salea price and accrued discount has been changed to reflect the distribution shown in final reports of classified redemptions. All periods shown have been revised on this baals.
4/ Reductions were made in issues and redemptions of Series E, H, F, G, $J$, and $K$ bonds in July 1954 to compensste for the erroneous inclusion of reissue transactions in June 1954 as reported in the daily Treasury atatement. The amounts involved were as follows: $$ 18$ million for issues of Series E and H, $17 million for lssues of Series F, G, J, and $K$, and $$ 35$ million for unclassified retirements.
5/ Series $F$ and $G$ sales were discontinued April 30, 1952, and Series J and K sales were discontinued April 30, 1957. Sales figures after April 30, 1957, represent adjustments.
6/ Includes exchanges of Series 2941 F and $G$ savings bonds for Treasury 3-1/4\% bonds of 1978-83.
If Includes the December 1959 exchanges of Series 1948 F and $G$ bonds for $4-3 / 4 \%$ marketable notes of 1964 .
4) Includes the December 1960 exchanges of Series 1949 F and G bonds for $4 \%$ marketable bonds of 1969.
$2 /$ Includes the December 1961 exchanges of Series 1950 F and G bonds for $3-7 / 8 \%$ marketable bonds of 1968 , of which $$ 300$ million were reported in December 1951, $20 miliion in January 1962, and $$ 0.2$ million in February 1962.
10 Represents changes in the amounts of redemptions not yet classified between matured and unmstured issuas. * Less than $500,000.

Table 1.- Summary by Principal Sources
(In thuusands of doliars)

Source: Intemal Revenue Service reports for detail of collections by type of zax; monthly statement of recefpts and expenditures of the Government for budget receipts from internal revenue (for explanation of reporting bases in this publication, see page II). Certain detail by type of tax is available only from returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The figures shown include collections for credit to special accounts for certain island possessions, as reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with the fiscal year 1955, they include the amounts of tax collected in Fuerto Rico upon articles of merchandise of Puerto Rican manufacture coming into the United States. Figures for 1954 have been revised to the same basis.
1/ Differences between the amounts of internal revenue reported by the Internal Revenue Service as collections for given periods and the amounts reported in Treasury statements as budget receipts for the same periods arose because of differences in the time when pastments were included in the respective reports. Tax payments are included in budget receipts when they are reported as credits to the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Prior to July 1954, they were included in Internal Revenue Service collection reports after the returns to which they applied had been received in internal revenue offices. Under procedure begun in 105C with withheld in me tax and old-age insurance taxes and later extended to railroad retirement taxes and many excises, these taxes are pald currently into Treasury depositaries and the depositary receipts, as evidence of such payments, are attached to quarterly returna to the Internal Revenue Service. Under this procedure, the payments are included in budget. receipts in the month in which the depositary receipts are issued to the toxpayers. Revised accounting procedures effective Jul; 1,1954 , extended the same practice to Internal Revenue Service collection reports.
2. Monthly figures include social security tax un self-employment. income, which is levied and collected as part of the individual income tax. Fiscal year figures exclude this tax, on the basis of estimates (see footnote 3), and it is included under "Old-age and disabilit; insurance,
4 In Internal Revenue Service reparts current collections are not separated as to type of tax; the breakdown show for fiscal years is based on estimates made in accordance with provisions of Sec. 201 of the Social Security Act, as amended (4_ U.S.C. 401), for transfer of tax recelpts to the trust funds (see "Budget Receipts and Expenditures," Table 1).
f/ Beginning with the fiscal year 1955, collections shown include unds tributed depositary receipts and unapplied collections. For excise taxes these receipts are included in the total only. Total collections Include "Taxes not otherwise classlfied."
2/ Budget receipts for 1956 were reduced by $$ 3,566$ thousand representing tax collections transferred to the Government of Guam pursuant to the act approved August 1, 1950 ( 48 U.S.C. 1421 h ), but this amount was included in collections reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with 195\%, such collections are excluded als, in Internal Revenue Service reports.
6/ Detail is reported by quarters beginning with the fiscal year 1950.

March 196?

Data relating to capital movementa between the United Stater and forelgn countries have been collectea since 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive Order 10033 of February 8,1949 , and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Information on the priricipal typas of data and the principal countries 18 reported monthly, and ia published regularly in the "Treasury 3ulletin." Sufplementary information is published less frequently. Reports by banks, bankers, aecurities brokera and dealers, and industrial and commercial concerns in the United Statea are mace initially to the Federal Reserve Banks, which forward consolicated 11gures to the Treasury. Beginning April 1954, data reported by banks in the Territories and posaesaions of the United Statea are incluod in the published data.

The term "foreigner" as used in these reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the "nlted gtates and its Territorles and poseesalone, the official institutions of foreign countriea, wherever such institutions may be located, and international organ1zations. "Short-tem" refera to original maturitiea of one year or lesa, and "long-term" refers to $2 l l$ other Taturities. A detalled diacusaion of the reporting coverage, statistical presentation, and definitions appeared in the Jure 1954 1asue of the "Treasury Bulletin," pages 45-47. As a result of changes in presentation introduced in that issue, not all breakdowna previously published W111 be exactly comparable to those now presented.

The lirat three sections which follow are published monthly. They provide summariea, by periods and by countriea, of data on short-term banking liabilities to and claime on forelgners and transactions in long-term ascuritlea by coreignera, and preasnt detalled braakdowns of the lateat available preliminary data.

Section IV provides aupplementary data in $B 1 x$ tablea which appear at leas iraquent intervals. Table 1, shortterm forelyn llabilities and claima reported by noninancial concerna, is publiahed quarterly in the January, April, July, and October issues of the Bulletin. Tsble 2 , long-term foreign 11abilities and claime reported by banza and bankers, and Table 3 , eatimated gold reaerves and dollar holdings of foreign countries and international inatitutions, are published quarterly in the March, Junc, September, and December 1a8ues. Table 4 , foreign credit and debit balancea in brokerage accounta, appears semiannually in the March and September 1saues. Table5, short-teri liabilitiea to foreigners in countries and areas not regularly reported separstely by banking institutiona, is preasnted annually, appearing in the Arril 18aue through 1958 and in the March laaue thereafter. Table 6, purchases and salea of long-term securities by foreignera during the preceding calendar year, also appeara annually, beginning with the Nay 1959 1asue.

Table 7.- Loans Outstanding December 31, 1961, Excluding Interagency Loans and Those Made by Deposit and Trust Revolving Funds, Classified by Types of Loans - (Continued) Part B.-Activities Reporting on an Annual Basis i/

1/ In accordance with an amendment issued June 23, 1950, to Department Circular No. 966, purchase money mortgages and similar long-term paper held by the agencies are now classified as loans receivable and aro included in this table. Prior to June 30, 1960, these assets had been classifled as accounts and notes recelvable or other assets.
2) Does not include foreign currency loans.

3 The dollar equivalents of these loans are computed for reporting purposes at varying rates. Where the loan agreements stlpulate a dollar denominated figure, the loans outstanding are generally valued at agreement rates of exchange. Loans executed in units of foreign currency are valued at the market rates (i.e., the rates of exchange at which Treasury sells such currencies to Government agenciea).
