Reporting Bases

Data on receipts, expenditures, and debt which appear In the "Treasury Bulletin" are based largely on two Treasury financial reports, the "Daily Statement of the United States Treasury" and the "Monthly Statement of Recelpts and Expenditures of the United States Government." Certain monetary statistics are based at least in part on the "Circulation Statement of United States Money." Where there statements are given as sources for individual tables, they are cited by name only. Their respective roporting bases are described below. For other data in the Bulletin, information on sources or reporting bases is given in connection with the tables themselves.

The monthly statement of receipts and expenditures was ifret published for February 1954 , and replaced the dally statement as the primary source of information on budget results and other recelpt and expenditure data classified by type of account. At the same time, the daily statement was changed to a statement of cash deposits and withdrawals affecting the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Both publications have provided comparative figures on their respective bases from the beginning of the fiscal year 1953. The announcsment of February 17, 1954, with respect to these reporting changes may be found In the April 1954 issue of the Bulletin.

The monthly statement shows all receipts and expenditures of the Government, including those made from cash accounts held outside the United States Treasury. The Information is complled irom reports by the Treasurer of the United States and by all other collecting and disbursing agencies, including those agencies which maintain checking accounts in commercial banks. These reports cover transactions recorded in the accounts of the agenciea during the reporting period. The net of the tranaactions as complled from these reports is reconciled in the monthly statement to changes in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outside the Treasurer's account and changes in the public debt outstanding.

Recelpts of taxes and customs duties are reported on a collections basis. Other recelpts are reported partially on a collections basis and partially on a deposits basis. Expenditures, except interest on the public debt, are reported on the basis of checks issued or cash payments made by disbursing officers. Transactions of an interfund or intragovernmental nature are included on the same basio even though the actual 18 suance of checks may not be involved. Interest on the public debt is included on an accrual basis beginning with figures for June 1955 and the fiscal year 1955. Prior to that, it was included on a due and payable basis. The same reporting basis as that in the monthly statement provides the ilscal year ilgures for the Treasury's "Combined Statement of Receipts, Expend-Itures and Balances of the United States Government ${ }^{n}$ and for actual recelpts and expenditures in the "Budget of the United Statee Government."

Beginning with the ilnal statement for the fiscal year 1960 , the monthly statement reports totals for net budget recelpts and budget expenditures after deduction of certain interfund transactions which are included in the detall of both budget recelpts and budget expenditures. The transactions deducted consist of interest payments and minor amounts of certain other payments made by Government agencies to the Treasury. This reporting change was made in accordance with the plan stated in the President's Budget Nessage of January 18, 1960. It does not affect the surplus or deflcit. Flgures for earlier periods shown in the Treasury Bulletin were revised to the new reporting basis in the September 1960 issue. The interfund transactions deducted under this procedure do not include payments to the Treasury by wholly owned Government corporations for retirement of their capital stock and for disposition of earninge. These capital transfers have been excluded currently from budget receipts and budget axpenditures beginning July 1 , 1948, and 11gurea for prior f1scal years back through 1932 were revised accordingly at that time.

The dally statement on the new basis was first issued for February 17, 1954. In the deposits and withdrawals as shown, no distinction is made as to the type of accounts (budget, trust, etc.). The deposits are on the basis of certiflcates of deposit cleared through the account of the Treasurer of the Unlted States. Total withdrawals are on the basis of checks paid or cash disbursements made out of the Treasureris account. Some of the withdrawal classifications shown are reported on the basis of malled reports of checks issued and are adjusted by means of clearing accounts to the total of checks pald. Except for relatively minor amounts, noncash interfund and other intragovernmental transactions are excluded. The public debt ilgures in the dally statement also are on a "clearance" basis, with the exception of those issuanoe and retirement transactions reported on the basis of telegrams from Federal Reserve Banks. Noncash debt transactions are included, however.

The dally statement before February 17, 1954, covered not only transactions cleared through the Treasurer's account but also certain Government agency transactions which were handled through commercial bank accounts, and included noncash interfund and other intragovernmental transactions. It provided information similar to that in the present daily statement with respect to the status of the Trsasurer's account, and similar to that in the present end-of-month dally statement with respect to debt issuance, retirement, and amount outstanding. Recelpts and expenditures, however, were classifled by type of account, and the budget results shown

In the daily statement were used as the basis for reflecting the results under the President's budget progran as enacted by the Congress.

Recelpts were on the basis of deposits as they cleared the Treasurer's account. Expenditurea cleared through the the Treasurer's account were reported on two successive bases. Through 1946 they were on the basis of checks paid by the Treasurer of the United Statea. Beginning with 1947, expenditures made through the facilities of the Treasury Department's D1vision of Disbursement were on the basis of checks lasued, while certain others, principally those of the Department of Defense and 1ts predecessor organizations, were on the basis of checks pald. Transactions handled through commercial bank accounts, consisting of market transactions in public debt and guaranteed securities, were as reported by the agencies. Interest on the public debt was included on a due and payable basis beginning with November 1949 and on a checks-paid basis prior to that time.

The circulation statement reflects transactions through the Treasurer's account which affect monetary stocks of gold and sllver ano the amounts of coin and currency in the money supply of the country. It is issued later than the daily statement, however, and the flgures are based on transactions consummated during the reporting period even though some may not have cleared the Treasurer's account during that period.

May Exchange Offering

An exchange offering of three new Treasury securities for the three $1 s s u e s$ maturing May 15 and June 15 in the aggregate of $$ 11.7$ blllion was announced by the Treasury on April 26, 1962. Holders of the maturities were given the option of exchanging them for a like face amount of any or all of the securities offered. The subscription books for the new securities were open from Aprll 30 through May 2. Cash subscriotions were not received.

The exchange options consisted of:
3-1/4 percent 1-year certificates of indebtedness, dated May 15, 1962, and maturing May 15, 1963, at par; or $3-5 / 8$ percent $33 / 4$ year Treasury notes, dated May 15, 1962, and maturing February 15, 1966, at 99.80 to yield about 3.68 percent to maturity; or 3-7/8 percent $91 / 2-y e a r$ Treasury bonds dated May 15, 1962, and maturing November 15, 1971, at 99.50 to $y 1 e l d$ about 3.94 percent to maturity.

Subscriptions accepted totaled approximately $11,003 million, leaving $$ 680$ million to be paid in cash. Preliminary results are shown in the accompanying table.
cember 15,1961 , to May 15,1962 , and the discount on the new notes and bonds. When the bonds in bearer form were surrendered in exchange, coupons dated June 15, 1962, were required to be attached. Interest on registered bonds was paid, as on the notes, by check or credit. The adjustments pald to those exchanglng the maturing bonds are shown below.

| New  issues  exchanged | Credits per $1,000 |  |  |

1/ Consists of miscellaneous taxes (principally the tonnage tax on foreign vessels entering U. S. ports), bullion charges, and gifts and contributions.
2) Difference between the total shown in the monthly statement of receipts and expenditures of the Government (based on preliminary reports) and that from final accounts of disbursing officers.
Less than $$ 500,000$.

Footnotes to Table 1 - (Continued)

6/ Includes adjustmenta as follows for: Income taxes not withheld, October - $$ 2$ million, January -$6 miliion, and April - $$ 450$ million; income taxes withheld, October +$109 million, Jsnuary -$47 million, and April $+$ 74$ million; transfers to Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, October - $$ 105$ million, January $+$ 49$ million, and April $+$ 348$ million; and transfers to Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund, October - $$ 2$ million, January $+$ 3$ million, and April $+$ 29$ million. See also footnote 8 .
7/ Interest on rerunds is included in expenditures in Table 3
8/ Anounts appropriated to the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund are equivalent to the amounts of taxes collected and deposited for old-age insurance. Amounts transferred currently for appropriation to the trust fund are based on estimates of old-age insurance tax receipts made by the Secretary of the Treasury (42 U.S.C. 401 (a)), and are adjusted in later transfers on the basis of wage and self-employment income records maintained in the Social Security Administration. The amount of old-age insurance tax refunds is reimbursed to the general fund by the trust fund.
9/ The Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund was established by the Social Security Act Amendments of 1956, approved August I, 1956 (42 U.S.C. 401 (b)). The act appropriated to the trust fund amounts equivalent to specified percentages of the wages and self-eaployment income, respectively, which are taxed for old-age insurance, and provided that the amounts appropriated should be transferred from time to time to the trust fund on the same basis as transfers to the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund. Rates of tax were increased by the percentages appropriated to the Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund, the increase being applicable to wages paid and taxable years beginning after December 31, 1956.
10. Amounts are appropriated to the Railroad Retirement Account equal to the amount of taxes under the Rallroad Retirement Tax Act deposited in the Treasury, less refunds, during each fiscal year ( 65 Stat. 222 and 66 Stat. 371 ) and transfers are made currently. Figures for 1954 exclude the Govermment's contribution for creditable military service (45 U.S.C. $228 \mathrm{c}-1$ ( $n$ )).
11. The Employment Security Act of 1960, approved September 13, 1960 (74 Stat. 970) established in the Unemployment Trust Fund an administration account, and appropriated for credit to that account, beginning Witb the fiscal year 1961, amounts equivalent to taxes collected and deposited under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. The tay receipts are transferred currently on the basis of estimates by the Secretary of the Treasury, with later adjustments as necessary. From that account are to be paid the administrative expenses of the employment security program. Previously the corresponding amounts were included, respectively, in oudget receipts and budget expenditures. Refunds of taxes are to be reimbursed from the administration account.

12) The Highway Revenue Act of 1956, approved June 29, 1956 (23 U.S.C. 120, Note) established a Highway Trust Fund from which are to be made, as provided by appropriation acts, Federal-aid highway expenditures after June 30, 1956, and before July 1, 1972. The act appropriated to this fund amounts equivalent to specified percentages of receipts from certain excise taxes on motor fuels, motor vehicles, tires and tubes, and use of certain vehicles, and provided that the amounts appropriated should be transferred currently to the trust fund on the basis of estimates by the Secretary of the Treasury with proper adjustments to be made in subsequent transfers. The use tax was imposed by the act and rates were increased for the other taxes. Previous to the fiscal year 1957 corresponding excise tax receipts were included in net budget receipts and Federal-aid highway expenditures were included in budget expenditures.
13/ For content, see Table 4. These transactions are included in the detall of both budget receipts and budget expenditures, but are deducted from the totals (see Reporting Bases, p. II).
14 Figures in this column differ from those published under the same caption prior to the September 1960 Treasury Bulletin because of the exclusion of certain interfund transactions (see footnote 14).
15 Transfers reduced by $$ 300$ million to correct those made earlier on basis of estimates (see footnote 8).
16/ Beginning fiscal 1961, the principal amounts for refunds of employment taxes and certain excise taxes (highway) are excluded from the transfers of tax receipts shown herein, and are now included with rerunds of Internal Revenue receipts, applicable to trust accounts.
17) Reflects gross amounts based on reimbursements by trust accounts for refunds of taxes which were made in previous months or fiscal years.

Source: Expenditures for 1962 are from reports to the Treasury Departwent by disbursing officers, on the monthly statement reporting basis (see page II). They are classified in accordance with classifications used in the 1963 Budget document, Table 14, as nearly as can be done on an individual appropriation and fund item basis. Prior year figures are from the same source but have been adjusted below the appropriation level in some instances by the Bureau of the Budget for use in Table 14. Where current classificstions differ on this account, they are footnoted. Revolving fund transactions are included net in the expenditures.
1/ Beginning March 1962, functional classifications have been revised to agree with those shown in the 1963 Budget document. Expenditures by major functions for fiscal 1962 through April 1962, and fiscal 1961 through April 1961 are show below. Details by functions are not available for publication in this issue but will appear in the June Bulletin.

Table ll.- National Service Life Insurance Fund

Note: This fund was established by the National Service Life Insurance Act of 1940 (38 U.S.C. 720).

Footnotes to Table 10

1) State unemployment funds; used for benefits payments mainly. Beginning August 1961, withdrawals by States have been reduced by reimbursementg to State accounts from Federal Extended Compensation Azcount.
2/ Established by the Employment Security Act of I460, approved September 13, 1960 ( 74 Stat. 970), into which are deposited tax receipts transferred in accordance with the act (see "Budget Receipts and Expenditures," Table 1, footnote 21) and from which are paid the adninistrative expenses of the employment security program and reimbursement for tax refunds. Previously the corresponding amounts were included, respectively, in budget receipts and budget expenditures, and only the excess of receipts over expenditures, if any, was transferred to the trust account by appropriation. Receipts consist of appropriated and unappropriated transfers of tax collections. The Federal unemployment tax allows to the taxpayer credit for contributions to State unemployment funds up to 90 percent of the tax.
3 Net of repayments.
Excess of collections from Federal unemployment tax over expenditures for benefits and administrative expenses each year is deposited in this account to maintain a reserve of $$ 200$ million available for loans to States when needed to replenish the balances in their accounts in the trust fund. Beginning 1961, these transfers are from the administration fund in the trust account; previously they were from the general fund. Any remaining excess is credited to the State accounts (42 U.S.c. 1101 1103).
2) Established by the act approved March 24, 1961 (42 U.S.C. 1104), which provides for a temporary program of extended unemployment compensation payments.
6 For payment of benefits and refunds ( 45 U.S.C. 360). Figures exclude interim advance of $$ 15$ million from the Treasury and subsequent repayment, both in 1940.
I/ Contributions under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act of 1938 as amended ( 45 U.S.G. 360 (a)), in excess of the amount specified for adroinistrative expenses (see footnote 8).
8/ Temporary advances are made when the balance in the Railroad Unemploy-

Insurance Account is insufficient to meet payments of benefits and refunds due or to become due. Whenever the balance is sufficient to pay such benefits and refunds, repayments are made, plus interest at 3\% per annum, pursuant to P. L. 86-28, dated May 19, 1959 ( 73 Stat. 32).
9) Excess, if any, over specified balance at end of year is transferred to the account ( 45 U.S.C. 361 (d)).
10 Consists of a specified proportion of contributions deposited in the fund to be available for administrative expenses. The Railroad Unemployment Insurance Administration Fund was eatablished in the Unemployment Trust Fund pursuant to the amending act of September 6, 1958; before that the administration fund was a separste trust fund (45 U.S.C. 361).
11. Total includes $$ 107.2$ million transferred from State accounts to the Railrood Unemployment Insurance Account in connection with its establishment ( 45 U.S.C. 363).
12 Beginning fiscal 1961 refunds of taxes (principal only) are reported as deduction from receipts. Interest paid on refunds of taxes will continue to be included under expenditures.
13/ Includes $$ 2$ million for repayment of general fund advances, temporary extended Railroad unemployment insurance.
Includes $$ 155$ million proposed for separate transmittal.
15 Includes repayment of general fund advances of $484 million for temporary extended unemployment compensation and $$ 11$ million for temporary extended Railroad unemployment insurance. Also includes $$ 150$ million proposed for separate transmittel.
16/ Includes adjustments to monthly statement basis
17 / Inculus
Excludes adjustment pursuant to the act of September 6, 1958 ( 45 U.S.C. 361 (a)); see footnote 19.
18 Includes an adjustment of $$ 7.2$ million pursuant to the act of September 6, 1958 (45 U.S.C. 361 (a)); see footnote 10.

* Iess than $$ 50,000$.

Table 12.- Investments of Specified Trust Accounts in Public Debt Securities by Issues, as of March 31, 1962

[^3]Less than $$$ (t, OfU)

The cash income and outgo data appearinc in the Treasury Bulletin, beginning with the February 1956 issue, are on a basis consiatent with recelpts from and payments to the public as derived in the 1957 ano subeequent 3udgets of the United States (in the Budget for 1963 in Special Analygig B). Reconciliation to cash deposita and withdrawals in the account of the Treasurer of the Undted States is shown on the same basis as in the Budget documents. There is also shown the amount of net cash borrowing from, or repayment of borrowing to, the public. By these arrangements, data in accordance with the Buaget classiflcations are made avallable month by month. Figures for back yeare have been revised where necessary in order to make them as nearly commarable with current Budget claselfications as avallable data will permit. For this reason certain of the ilgures differ somewhat from those published in earlier Buaget documents as well as in the Bulletin.

The Budget series of cash transactions is designed to provide information on the flow of money between the public and the Feaeral Government as a whole, and therefore lncludes transactions not cleared through the mreasurer's account. Receipts and payments include transactions both in budget accounts anc in trust and deposit fund accounts. Operstions of Government-sponsored enterprifes are included

In payments on a net basis as reflected in treasury renorta. Najor intraqovernmentel transections which are renorted as both expenditures and recelpts are eliminated from both. Noncagh items which repreaent accrued obligations of the Goverment to make paymente in the future are also eliminatod from expenditures but are added later when actual payments are made. Receipts from the exercise of monetary authority are excluded as not representing cash recelved from the public. Federal cash borrowing from the public includes net borrowing by the Treasury through public debt transactione and also net borrowing by Government agencies and Government-eponsored enterprises through sales of their own securities. It excludes changes in the public debt which do not represent direct cash borrowing from the public. The net effect of all these transactions with the public is reflected in changee in the balance in the Treasurer's account and in cash held outside the Treasury.

Cash trangactiong through the Treasurer's account are Eimilar in general concept to those incluced in the Budget eeries, but are limited in coverage to transactions which affect the balance in that account. On the other hand, they include receipts from the exercise of monetary authority, which are excluded from receipts from the public in the Buoget series.

Footnotes to Table 3

1 All previously published figures were revised in the September 1960 Bulletin to take account of the deduction of certain interfund trans actions from both net budget receipts and budget expenditures; and also in the July 1961 issue, deductions for certain intertrust fund transactions from both trust account receipts and trust account expenditures (see pp. 2, 4, 9, and 10). Formerly such transactions wre included in the intragovernmental transactions which were
2. Treated as deriving receipts from and payments to the public.

Treated as noneash refund deductions from receipts when issued and as cash refund deductions when redeemed
2) Consists of seigniorage and the increment resulting from reduction in the weight of the gold dollar; excluded from receipts from the public but included in cash deposits in the Treasurer's account

4 Figures in this coium differ from those published prior to the September 1760 Treasury Bulletin because a few additional items of budget receipts which are also budget expenditures are included in the interfund transactions deducted from budget receipts and budget expenditures (see footnote 1).
2) Adjusted for reclassification of certain repayments of advances from the general fund.
6) Beginning fiscal 1961, principal amounts for refunds of taxes applicable to trust accounts, formerly included with trust account expenditures, are defucted from trust account receipts.

Footnotes to Table 4

$\frac{1}{2}$ See Table 3, footnote 1 .
Net operating expenditures, or receipts (-), as measured by funds provided by or applied to net security transactions reflected in Treasury reports (see Table 7). To a large extent, these Government sponsored enterprises secure funds for their operations by direct borrowing from the public or by cashing Federal securities which they hold, and they apply the net income received from operations to repayment of borrowing from the public or to investment in Federal securities. On that basis, net expenditures for operations are shown in this table in terms of the combined net of disinvestment in Federal securities and sale of agency obligations in the mariset, and net receipts from operations are show in terms of the combined net of investment in Federal securities and redemption of agency obligations in the market.
3/ See Table 3, footnote 4 .

6/ Excluded from borrowing because the transactions are treated as deductions from receipts in Table 3.
7 Market transactions in public debt securities and agency obligations Less than $$ 500,000$.

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The account of the Treasurer of the United States reflects not only budget reoelpts and expenditures but also trust, deposit fund, and public debt transaotions.

The working cash of the Treasury is held mainly in Treasurer's accounts with Federal Reserve Banks and branohes. As the balances in these accounts become depleted, they are restored by calling in (transfersing) funds from the tax and loan accounts with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposits to tax and loan aocounts occur in the normal course of business under a unlform procedure appllcable to all banks whereby customers of banks deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the transaotion involves mersly the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banks are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from subscriptions to public debt securities entered for thelr own sccount as well as for the account of their customers.

The tax and loan account system parmits the Treasury to leave funds in banks and in the communities in which they arlse until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for 1 ts operations. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of 1ts fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the economy.

A detalled description of the Treasury's depositary system may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 2955, pages 275-284.

2/ Beginning December 1954, Poat Office Department and Postmasters diabursing accounts are no longer treated as liability accounta of the Treasurer of the United States, but are classified and treated in the same manner as other disbursing accounts, in accordance with the change in method of reporting Post office transactions (see Budget Receipts and Expenditurea," Table 3). An adjustment of $207 million in the balance in the Treasurer's account (and in the "clearing account") reflacts thia change.

1. Special depositaries are permitted to make payment in the form of a deposit credit for the purchase price of U. S. Government obligations purchased by them for their own account, or for the account of their customers who enter subscriptions through them, when this method of payment is permitted under the terms of the circulars inviting subscriptions to the issues.
4) Taxes eligible for credit consist of those deposited by taxpajers in the depositary banks, as follows: Withheld income tax beginning

March 1948; taxes on employers and employees under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act beginning January 1950, and under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act beginning July 1951; and a number of excise taxes beginning July 1953.
3 Under a special procedure begun in March 1951, authorization may be given for income tax payments, or a purtion of them, made by checks of $$ 10,000$ or more drawn on a special depositary bank, to be credited to the tax and loan account in that bank. This procedure is followed during some of the quarterly periods of heavy tax payments.

Note: The computed annual interest charge represents the amount of interest that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of each month or year should remain outstanding for a year at the applicable annual rate of interest. The charge is computed for each issue by applying the appropriate annual interest rate to the amount outatanding on that date (the amount actually borrowed in the case of securities sold at a premium or discount, beginning with May 1960). The aggregate charge for all interest-bearing issues constitutes the total computed annual intereat charge. The average annual interest rate is computed annual intereat charge. The average annual charge for the total, or for any group of issuea, by the corresponding principal amount. Beginning with data for December 31, 1958, the computation is based on the rate of effectlve yleld for 1ssues sold at premium or discount. Prior to that date it was based on the coupon rate for all issues.
1/ Includes only guaranteed securities held outside the Treasury.
2/ Total includes "Other bonds" through May 1961; see Table 3.
Included in debt outstanding at face amount, but discount value is used in computing annual interest charge and annual interest rate Un United Statea savings bonds the rate to maturity is applied 4 against the amount outstanding.

23) Excess of maturing $4-3 / 4 \%$ Treasury notes over allotments of new securities on subscriptions from holders of those notes (see Table 4, footnotes $4 \dot{4}$ and 46).
$\frac{24}{25}$. Reopening of an earlier issue.
25. Holders of $2-1 / 2 \%$ Treasury bonds maturing June 15, 1967, December 15, 1968, June 15, 1969, and December 15, 1969, were offered the option to exchange the bonds during the period from September 12, 1960, to September 20, 1950, inclusive, the first for $3-1 / 2 \%$ bonds of 1980 , the second for $3-1 / 2 \%$ bonds of 1990 , and the other two for $3-1 / 2 \%$, bonds of 1998 , subject to allotment if the combined total of subscriptions for the bonds of 1990 and 1998 exceeded an outside 11 it of $$ 4.5$ billion.
26. Holders of the maturing certiflcates were not offered preemptive rights to exchange their holdings, but were permitted to present them in payment or exchange, in whole or in part, for the $-1 / 4 \%$ notes offered in the amount of around $$ 6.9$ billion. For detail of offering, see Table 4 .
27. Excess of maturing $4-7 / 8 \%$ certificates over 8 llotments of new securities on subscriptions from holders of those certificates (see Table 4, footnotes $5 I$ and $5 \bar{z}$ ).
28 From March 20 throuzh March 22, 296 , owners of $2-1 / 4 \%$ bonds of June 15, 1959-62 2-1/4\% bords of December 15, 1959-62, 2-5/8\% notes maturing February 15, 1963, and 2-1/29 bonds maturins August 15, 1963, were granted the option of excranging their holdings. The first three were exchangeable for a new $3-5 / 8 \%$ Dond due November 15,1967 and the last for a new $3-3 / 8 \%$ bond due November 15 , 1966. Exchanges were subject to allotment if subscriptions exceeded $5 billion for the bonds of 1967 or $$ 3$ billion for the bonds of 2960 . Holders of the maturing certificates and notes were not offered preemptive $r 1 g h t s$ to exchange their holdings, but were permitted to present them in payment or exchange, in whole or in part, for the $: ,250 million affering of $3 \%$ certificates or the $$ 2,500$ million offering of $3-1 / 4 \%$ notes. For detail of offering, see Table 4 . Excess of maturing $4-3 / 8 \%$ certificates and $3-5 / 8 \%$ notes over allotments of new securities an subscriptions from holders of those certificates and notes (see Table 4, footnotes 55 and 56).

Note: In these tables sales of Serles $A-F$ and $J$ bonds are included at issue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption value. Serles $G$, $H$, and $K$ are included at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured $F$ and G bonds outstanding are included in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the annual series have matured, and are then transferred to marured debt upon which interest has ceased.
1/ Sales and redemption figures include exchanges of minor amounts of (1) matured Series E bonds for Series G and K bonds from May 1951 through April 1957 and (2) Series F and J bonds for Series h bonds beginning January 1960; however, they exclude exchanges of Series E bonds for Series H bonds, which are reported in Table 3 .
2/ Details by series on a cumulative bssis and by periods for Series A-D combined will be found in the February 1952 and previous issues of the Treasury Bulletin.
3) Because there is a normal lag in classifying redemptions the distribu tion of redemptions between gales price and accrued discount has been estimated. Beginning with the Treasury Bulletin of March 1961 the method of distributing redemptions between sales price and accrued discount has been changed to reflect the distribution shown in final reports of classified redemptions. All periods shown have been revised on this basis.
4. Reductions were made in issues and redemptions of Series E, H, F, G, $J$, and $K$ bonds in July 1954 to compensate for the erroneous inclusion of reissue transactions in June 1954 as reported in the daily Treasur: statement. The amounts involved were ss follows: $$ 18$ million for lssues of Serles $E$ and $H$, $$ 17$ million for issues of Series $F, G, J$, and $K$, and $$ 35$ million for unclassified retirements.
5 Series F and G sales were discontinued April 30, 1952, and Series J and $K$ sales were discontinued April 30, 1957. Sales figures after April 30, 1957, represent adjustments.
6/ Includes exchanges of Series 1941 F and $G$ savings bonds for Treasury 3-1/4\% bonds of 1978-83.
7) Includes the December 1959 exchanges of Series 1948 F and $G$ bonds for $4-3 / 4 \%$ marketable notes of 1964 .
8/ Includes the December 1960 exchanges of Series 2949 F and $G$ bonds for $4 \%$ marketable bonds of 1969.
a) Includes the December 1961 exchanges of Series 1950 F and G bonds for $3-7 / 8 \%$ marketable bonds of 1968.
10/ Refresents changes in the amounts of redemptions not yet classified between matured and unmatured issues.

1. Includes certain obligations not subject to statutory debt limitation. For amount subject to limitation, see page 1
Excludes trust departments.
3 Includes trust companies and, beginning with figures for July 1949, also includes stock savings banks. Previously, those banks were re ported as a separate classification.
幺 Included with all other investors are those banks, insurance companies. savings and loan associations, corporations and State and local government funds not reporting in the Treasury Survey.
5 Consists of corporate pension trust funds and profft sharing plans which involve retirement benefits. The data are compiled from quarterly reports by trustees of funds which account for approximately 90 percent of United States Government securities held by all corporate pension trust funds. Since the data are not available each month, the regular monthly Survey includes holdings by these funds under "Held by all other investors." The quarterly data are presented as supplemental information in a memorandum column accompanying the Survey for each reporting date, beginning with December 31, 1953.
2. United States savings bonds, Series E. F, and J, are shown at current redemption value. They were reported to the Treasury Survey at maturity value but have been adjusted to current redemption value for use in this statement.

7/ Includes $$ 73$ million depositary bonds held by commercial banks not included in the Treasury Survey.
8/ Holdings by reporting investors not available.
a Guaranteed securities are those held outside the Treasury.
10 Except partially tax-exempt bords, which are classified to earliest call date.
11. Partially tax-exempt securities are those with the income exempt from the normal tax except that in the case of partialiy tax-exempt Treasury bonds, interest derived from $$ 5,000$ of principal amount owred by any one holder is also exempt from the surtax. For all other securities, the income is subject to normal tax and surtax.
12) Includes guaranteed securities which are classified as taxable although a small indeterminate amount of the Federal Housing Administration debentures is partially tax-exempt.
23) The Treasury bonds of 1960-65 are partially tax-exempt (see footnote 11).

14/ Includes only publicly offered issues.
25 The proprietriry interest of the United States in these banks ended in July 1951.
16) The proprietary interest of the United States in these barks ended in June 1947.

1/ Amount issued on May 15,1962 was $$ 6,685$ million. Beginning April 1953, prices are closing bid quotations in the over-the-counter market. Prices for prior dates are the mean of slosing bid and ask quotations, except that before October 2. 1939, they are closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange. "When issued" prices are included in the history beginning October 1, 1939. Dates of highs and 10ws in case of recurrence are the latest dates.
3) Amount issued on May 25,1962 was $$ 3,114$ miliion.
4. On callable issues market convention treats the yield to earliest call date as more significant when an issue is selling above par, and to maturity when it is selling at par or below.
5. Anount issued on May 15, 1962 was $$ 1,204$ million.
6. Included in the average yield of long-term taxable Treasury bonds as shown under "Average Xields of Long-Term Bonds."

Table 1.- Average Yields of Taxable Treasury and Moody'a Aaa Corporate Bonds by Periods

Source: Beginning April 1953, Treasury bond yields are reported to ting bi Treasury by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, based on closing bi quotations in the over-the-counter market. Yields for prior periods were computed on the basis of mean of closing bid and ask quotations. Moody's Investor Service is the source for the average of Aaa Corporate bonds. For definition of taxable bonds, gee footnotes to the "Treasury Survey of Ownership" in this issue of the Bulletin.

1) Series includes bonds which are neither due nor callable before a lIven number of years as follows: April 1953 to date, 10 years; April 1952 - March 1953, 12 years; October 1941 - March 1952 years. For bonds currently in the series, see Table 4 under "Market Quotations on Treasury Securities" in this issue of the Bulletin.
2) One or more new long-term bonds added to the average.
3) An existing bond dropped from the average (see footnote 1).

Source: Internal Revenue Service reports for detail of collections by type of tax; monthly statement of receipts and expenditures of 1 he Government for budget receipts from internal revenue (for explanation of repurting bases in this publication, see page II). Certain detail by type of tax is available only from returns filed with the Internal Revenue Servi The $f$ igures shown include collections for credit to special accounts for certain island possessions, as reported by the Internal Revenue Service Beginning with the fiscal year 2955, they include the amounts of tax collected in Puerto Rico upon articles of merchandise of Puerto Rican marufacture coming into the United States. Figures for 1954 have bear revised to the same basis.

1) Differences between the amounts of internal revenue reported b; the Internal Revenue Service as collections for given periods and the amounts reported in Treasury statements as budget receipts for the same periods arose because of differences in the time when payments ere included in the respective reports. Tax payments are included in budget receipts when they are reported as credits to the account of the Ireasurer of the United States. Prior to July 1954, the $f$ were included in Internal Revenue Service collection reports after the returns to which they applied had been received in internal revenue offices. Under procedure begun in 1950 with withheld income tax and ld-age insurance taxes and later extended to railroad retirement taxes and many excises, these taxes are paid currently into Treasury depositaries and the depositary receipts, as evidence of such payments, are attached to quarterly returns to the Internal Revenue Service. Under this procedure, the payments are included in budget receipts in the month in which the depositary receipts are issued to the taxpayers. Revised accounting procedures effective July 1, 1954, extended the same practice to Internal Revenue Service collection reports Munthly figures include social security tax on self-employment income, which is levied and collected as part of the individual income tax. Fiscal year figures exclude this tax, on the basis of estimates (see footnote 3), and it is included under "Old-age and disabilit: insurance."
\%) In Internal Revenue Service reports current collections are not separated as to type of tax; the breakdown shown for fiscal years is based on estimates made in accordance with provisions of Sec. 201 of the Social Security Act, as amended ( 42 U.S.C. 401) , for transfer of tax receipts to the trust funds (see "Budget Receipts and Expenditures," Table 1).
2) Beginning with the fiscal year 1955 , collectiuns shown include undis tributed depositary receipts and unapplied collections. For excise taxes these receipts are included in the total only. Total collectlons include "Taxes nct otherwise classified."
Budget receipts for 1956 were reduced by $$ 3,566$ thousand represent ing tax collections transferred to the Government of Guam pursuant to the act approved August. 1, 1950 (48 U.S.C. 1421 h ), but this amount was included in collections reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Beginning with 1957, such collections are excluded also in Internal Revenue Service reports.
6 Detail is reported by quarters beginning with the fiscal year 1956

$\stackrel{\rightharpoonup}{\mathrm{p}}$ Preliminary.

Data relating to capital movementa between the United States and Porelgn countries have been collected since 1y55, purguant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive Oräer 10033 of February 8,2949 , and Treasury reधulations promulgated thereunder. Information on the principal types of data and the principal countries is reported monthly, and is published regularly in the "Treabury Bulletin." SuFplementary information is published less frequently. Repcrta by banks, bankers, aecurities brokers and dealers, and industrial and commercial concerns in the United Statea are mace inltially to the Federal Reserve Eanks, which forward consolicated figures to the Treasury. Seginning April 1954, data reported by banke in the Territories and possessions of the United Stater are included in the fublisked data.

The term "forel gner" as used in these reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States anc 1ta Territories and posseasions, the officlal institutions of forelgn countries, wherever such institutions may be located, and international organ1zations. "Short-term." refers to original maturities of one year or lese, and "long-term" refers to all other raturities. A detalled discuasion of the reporting coverage, statistical preaentation, and cefinitions appeared In the June 1954 1ssue of the "Treasury Bulletin," pagea 45-47. As a result of chances in preaentation introduced in that issue, not all breakdowne previously pubilshed W111 be exactly comparable to those now preaented.

The P1rat three sections which follow are published monthly. They provide sumarles, by periods and by countriea, of data on ahort-term banking liabilitiea to and claims on forelgners and tranactions in iong-term securlties by forelgners, and present detalled breakdowns of the latest available preliminary data.

Section IV provides eupplementary data in aix tablea which appear at leas frequent intervals. Table 1 , shortterm forelgn liabilities and claims reported by nonfinancial concerna, is published quarterly in the January, April, July, and October issues of the Bulletin. Table 2, long-term foreign liabilities and claime reported by ban'sa and bankers, and Table 3, estlmated gold reserves and dollar holdinga of foreign countries and international institutions, are published quarterly in the March, June, September, and December 18auea. Table 4, forelgn credit and debit balancea in brokerage accounts, appeare semiannually in the March and September iseues. Table5, Bhort-term liabilitiea to forelgners in countries ard areas not regularly reported aeparately by banking institutiona, is oresented annually, appearing in the Arril 1 ssue through 1958 and in the March 1asue thereafter. Table 6 , purchases and ales of long-term securities by foreigners during the preceding calendar year, also appears annually, beginning with the May 1959 1asue.

Table 6.- Purchases and Sales of Long-Term Securitiea by Foreignera During Calendar Year 1961
(In thousands of dollara)

Foreign currencies reported herein in United States collar equivalents were acquired without purchase with dollars, for the most part in connection with foreign assletance and agricultural trade development programs authorized by various provisions of law. The currencies are held in the custody of the Treasury Department until such time as they are either sold for dollars to Governlment agencies or transferred to Government agencies for expenditure without charge to appropriations, as specifically authorized by law.

Prior to July 1, 1953, foreign currencies acquired by Government agencies without peyment of dollars were avoilable to the collecting agencies to defray operating expenses and were not subject to the regular approprlation processes.

The act of July 15, 1952, sec. 1415 (66 stat. 662), provided that after June 30, 1953, United States agencles could no longer expend foreign currencies belonging to the United States except as provided annually in appropriation acts. Subsequent legislation required executive departments and agencies, with certain exceptiona, to reimburse the Treasury in collars for the foreign currencles used. Expcutive Orders No. 10488 dated September 23, 1953, and No. 10900 dated January 5, 1961, as amended, provided for the issuance of regulation by the Sacretary of the Treas ury governing the purchase, custody, transfer, or sale of foreign exchange by the United States.

Accordingly, Treasury Department Circular No. 930 was 1ssued on October 19, 1953, effective December 1, 1953. These regulations provided for the transfer of department and agency foreign currency balances as of November 30, 1953. into Treasury custody, and the $110 w$ of future collections through Treasury accounts; and established requirements with respect to withdrawals from Treasury accounts; initations on purchases and amounts of holdings; the use of Poreign depositaries; and accounting for the currencies. Department Circular No. 930 as revised October 20, 1961, gdded certain requirements governing foreign currency reporting and accounting.

Figures are stated in dollar equivalents, computed for reporting purposes, to provide a common denominator for the currencies of the many foreign countries involved. It should not be assumed that dollars, in amounts equal to the balances, are actually aval lable for the general use of the United states Government, since most of the currencles are inconvertible and restricted as to uses by the terms of agreaments between the United States and the foreien governments.

The tables exclude the counterpart funds owned by and held in accounts of the foreign govemments. The use of such funds is subject to approval of the United States, and transactions therein are included in reports of the Agency for International Development. The tables also exclude the United States purohases of foreign currencies which are under dollar accountabllity and reported as dollar transactions.

Detalled data, by account, agency, program, forelgn country, units of currency, and related dollar equivalents, are published annually in the Combined Statement of Recelpts, Expenditures and Balances, beginning with fiscal 1958.
