Treasury Financing Operations

9-Month and One-year Bills

On August 19 tenders were invited for $$ 500$ million, or thereabouts, of 273-day Treasury bills, representing an additional amount of bills dated May 31, 1970, maturing May 31, 1971, and for $$ 1.2$ billion, or thereabouts, of. 365day Treasury bills to be dated August 31, 1970, to mature August 31, 1971, both series to be issued August 31. These issues were to refund $$ 1,701$ million of bills maturing August 31. Tenders were opened on August 25.

Tenders received for the 273-day bills totaled $1, 221 million, of which $$ 501$ million was accepted, including $$ 25$ million of noncompetitive tenders. The average bank discount rate was 6.510 percent.

Tenders received for the $365-$ day bills totaled $$ 2,036$ million, of which $$ 1,204$ million was accepted, including $64 million of noncompetitive tenders. The average bank discount rate was 6.396 percent.

13-Week and 26-Week Bills

Issues of regular weekly Treasury bills in August totaled $$ 12.5$ billion, replacing $$ 12.1$ billion of maturing bills. There were three 91-day issues of $$ 1.8$ billion, one 92-day issue of $$ 1.8$ billion, three $182-$ day issues of $$ 1.3$ billion and one 182-day issue of $$ 1.4$ billion. Average rates for the new issues are shown in the following table.

Treasury Bills - General

Treasury bills are sold on abid basis. The face amount is payable without interest at maturity. They are issued in bearer form only, and in denominations of $$ 10,000, $ 15,000$, $$ 50,000, $ 100,000, $ 500,000$, and $$ 1,000,000$ (maturity value). 2/ Tenders are received at Federal Reserve banks and branches. Each tender must be for a minimum of $$ 10,000$. Tenders over $$ 10,000$ must be in multiples of $$ 5,000$.

Banking institutions generally may submit tenders for account of customers. Tenders may be made without deposit by incorporated banks and trust companies and by responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 2 percent of the face amount of bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Noncompetitive tenders (without stated price), usually for $$ 200,000$ or less from any one bidder, are accepted ir full at the average price of accepted competitive bids for an issue.

Payment for accepted tenders must be made or completed on the date of issue, in cash or other immediately available funds or in a like face amount of Treasury bills maturing on that date. Payment for 13 -week, 26-week, 9-month, and oneyear bills may not be made by credit in Treasury tax and loan accounts.

U. S. Savings Bonds

On August 25, 1970, Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy announced that a $1 / 2$ percent bonus would be added to the interest rate paid to longer term holders of U. S. savings bonds. Series Ebonds purchased on or after June 1, 1970 when held to maturity will yield $5-1 / 2$ percent from date of issue to date of maturity. Series $H$ bonds purchased on or after June l, 1970 will yield approximately 5.12 percent for the first 5 years and 6 percent for the remaining 5 years to maturity, providing an over-all yield of $5-1 / 2$ percent from date of issue to date of maturity.

Outstanding Series E bonds that have not reached their first maturity will receive a $1 / 2$ percent increase inyield for semiannual interest periods beginning on or after June 1 , 1970, payable as a bonus at maturity.

Treasury Financing Operations - (Continued)

Outstanding Series E bonds that have reached first maturity, or are extended beyond first maturity while the bonus is in effect, will have the $1 / 2$ percent credited at the end of each semiannual interest period beginning on or after June 1, 1970, through their next maturity. The bonus is payable whenever the bonds are redeemed.

Outstanding Series $H$ bonds that have been held for less than 5 years will receive a $1 / 2$ percent increase in yield for semiannual interest periods beginning on or after June 1, 1970, : payable as abonus in the form of increased semiannual interest payments during the second 5 years to maturity.

Series H bonds that have been held 5 years, or are extended "while the bonus is in effect, will receive a $1 / 2$ percent increase in yield for semiannual interest periods beginning on or after June 1, 1970. The bonus will be added to semi-annual interest checks through next maturity.

Foreign Series and Foreign Currency Series

Foreign series securities issued in August totaled $$ 465$ million, consisting of five certificates of indebtedness and two notes. Redemptions for the month totaled $$ 300$ million. At the end of August foreign series securities outstanding totaled $$ 4,076$ million. (Details are shown on page 57.)

Foreign currency series securities issued in August consisted of one certificate denominated in Swiss francs equivalent to $$ 50$ million. Redemptions for the month totaled an equivalent of $$ 50$ million. At the end of August foreign currency series securities outstanding totaled an equivalent of $$ 1,366$ million and were denominated in German marks and Swiss francs. (Details are shown on page 59.)

Note: Details of Treasury market financing operations are shown elsewhere in tables on public debt operations.

Note: Net expenditures represent disbursements less proprietary receipts from the public and certain intrabudgetary transactions applicable to the expenditure account. Net lending represents loan disbursements less loan repayments. If only one column is shown for an agency the amounts represent net expenditures, unless otherwise noted. p Preliminary. r Revised.
"Obligations" are the basis on which the use of funds is controlled in the Federal Government. They are recorded at the point at which the Government makes a firm commitment to acquire goods or services and are the first of the four key events-order, delivery, payment, consumption--which characterize the acquisition and use of resources. In general, they consist of orders placed, contracts awarded, services received, and similar transactions requiring the disbursement of money.

The obligational stage of Government transactions is a strategic point in gauging the impact of the Government's operations on the national economy, since it frequently represents for business firms the Government commitment which stimulates business investment, including inventory purchases and employment of labor. Disbursements may not occur for months after the Government places its order but the order itself usually causes immediate pressure on the private economy.

[^4]of categories which are based upon the nature of the transaction without regard to its ultimate purpose. All payments for salaries and wages, for example, are reported as personnel compensation, whether the personal services are used in current operations or in the construction of capital items.

Federal agencies and firms of ten do business with one another; in doing so, the "buying" agency records obligations, and the "performing" agency records reimbursements. In Table $F O-1$, obligations that are incurred within the Government are distinguished from those incurred outside the Government. Tables FO-2, 3, and 4 show only those incurred outside.

Obligation data for the administrative budget fund accounts were first published in the September 1967 Treasury Bulletin and the trust fund accounts were first published in the October 1967 Bulletin. Beginning with the April 1968 Bulletin, the data are on the basis of the budget concepts adopted pursuant to the recommendations of the President's Commission on Budget Concepts.

> Due to non-receipt of reports from several large agencies, the July data are not included in this issue. They will be published in the October Bulletin. If the August data are available they will also be published in the October issue.

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The working cash of the Treasury is held mainly in Treasurer's accounts with Federal Reserve banks and branches. As the balances in these accounts become depleted, they are restored by calling in (transferring) funds from the tax and loan accounts with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of business under a uniform procedure applicable to all banks whereby customers of banks deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the transaction involves merely the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banks are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from subscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account as well as for the account of their customers.

The tax and loan account system permits the Treasury to leave funds in banks and in the commuities in which they arise until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operations. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the economy.

A detailed description of the Treasury's depositary system may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1955, pages 275-284.

1/ Special depositaries are permitted to make payment in the form of a deposit credit for the purchase price of U.S. Government securities purchased by them for their own account, or for the account of their customers who enter subscriptions through them, when this method of payment is permitted under the terms of the circulars invited subscriptions to the issues.
2) United States savings notes first offered for sale as of May 1, 1967.

3 Retirement plan bonds first offered for sale as of January 1,1963 ; tax and loss bonds first issued in March 1968.
4) Taxes eligible for credit consist of those deposited by taxpayers in the depositary banks, as follows: Withheld income taxes beginning

March 1948; taxes on employers and employees under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act beginning January 1950, and under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act beginning July 1951; a number of excise taxes beginning July 1953; estimated corporation income taxes beginning April 1967; and all corporation income taxes due on or after March 15, 1968.
5/ Under a special procedure begun in March 1951, authordzation was given during certain periods for income tax payments, or a portion of them, made by checks of $$ 10,000$ or more drawn on a special depositary bank, to be credited to the tax and loan account in that bank. This procedure was discontimued in April 1967.

* Less than $$ 500,000$.

Footnotes to Table FD-2

Source: On the basis of the daily Treasury atatement.
Nota: The computed annual interest charge represents the amount of interest that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of each month or year should remain outstanding for a jear at the applicable annual rate of interest. The charge is computed for aach issue by applying the appropriate annual interest rate to the amount cutstanding on that date (the arount actually borrowed in the case of securities sold at a premium or discount, beginning with May 1960). The aggregate charge for all interest-bearing issues conatitutes the total computed annual interest charge. The average annual interest rate is computed by dividing the computed annual interest charge for the total, or for any group of issues, by the corrasponding principgl amount. Beginning with data for December 31, 1958, the computation is based on the rate of effective yield for issues sold at premium or discount. Prior to that date it was based on the coupon rate for all issues.
1/ Included in debt outstanding at face amount, but discount value is used in computing annual interest charge and annual interest rate.
2/ On United States savings bonds the rate to maturity is applied against the amount outstanding.

Note: In thase tables sales of Sarias $A-F$ and $J$ bonds ara included at issue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption valua. Serias G, H, and K ara included at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have bean radaamed are includad in rademptions, Matured J and K bonds outstanding are included in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the annual series have matured, and are then transferred to maturad debt on which interest has ceased.

1) Salas and redemption figures includo axchanges of minor amounta of (1) matured Sarias E bonds for Saries G and K bonds from May 1951 through April 1957 and (2) Saries F and J bonds for Series H bonds beginning January 1960; however, thay exclude exchangas of Series $E$ bonds for Saries H bonds, which are reported in Table SB-3.
2) Datails by series on a curulative basis and by periods for Series A-D combinad will be found in the February 1952 and previous issues of the Traasury Bulletin.
3/ Bacausa thare is a normal lag in classifying redemptions, the distribution of redemption batween sales price and accrued discount has been estimated. Baginning with the Treasury Bulletin of March 1961 the mathod of distributing redemptions betwaon sales prica and accrued discount has been changed to reflect the eistribution shown in final reports of classified redemptions. All periods shown hava been revised on this basis.
3) Series F and G seles ware discontinued April 30, 1952, and Saries J and K sales were discontinued April 30, 1957. Salas figures after April 30, 1957, represent adjustients.

[^8][^9]The monthly Treasury Survey of Ownership covers securities issued by the United States Government, Federal agencies, Federally -sponsored agencies, and the District of Columbia. The banks and insur: ace companies included in the Survey currently account for about 90 percent of all such securities held by these institutions. The similar proportion for corporations and for savings and loan associations is 50 percent, and for State and local governments, 70 percent. Data were first published for banks and insurance companies in the May 1941 Treasury Bulletin, for corporations and savings and loan associations in the September 1960 Bulletin, and for State and local goverrments in the February 1962 Bulletin.

Holdings by commercial banks distributed according to Federal Reserve member bank classes and nonmember banks are published for June 30 and December 31. Holdings by corporate pension trust funds are published quarterly, first appearing in the March 1954 Bulletin.

The tables in this section are designed to provide data on Inited States reserve assets and liabilities and other statistics related to the United States balance of payments and international financial position. A number of changes were introduced in the May 1967 Bulletin to increase the usefulness of this section.

Table IFS-1 shows the reserve assets of the United States, including its gold stock, special drawing rights held in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, holdings of convertible foreign currencies, and reserve position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IFS-2 brings together the various statistical components of the liabilities whichenter into the United States balance of payments calculated on the liquidity basis. The inclusion of the United States reserve position in the International Monetary Fund in Table IFS-1 requires that the "holdings of dollans" of the Fund be excluded from the data on liabilities to foreigners, in order to avoid double counting.

Table IFS-3 presents an area breakdown of United States liquid liabilities to official institutions of foreign countries.

Table IFS-4 shows United States Treasury nonmarketable bonds and notes issued to official institutions of foreign countries.

Table IFS-5 sets forth the factors which affect the United States position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IFS-6 presents United States net monetary gold transactions with foreign countries and international and regional organizations.

Includes gold sold to the United States by the International Monetary tional Monetary Fund to mitigate the impact on the U.S. 隹d stock of foreign purchases for the purpose of making gold subscriptions the Fund under quota increases. For corresponding liabilities see Table TFS -2.
Includes gold in Exchange Stabilization Fund, which is not included in Treasury gold figures shown in daily Treasury statement. See "Account of the Treasurer of the United States," Table TUS -4.
Includes initial allocation on January 1, 1970, of $$ 867$ million of special drawing rights (SDR) in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, plus or minus transactions in SDR since that time.
Includes holdings of Treasury and Federal Reserve System.
5) The United States has the right to purchase foreign currencies equivalent to its reserve position in the fund automatically if needed. Under appropriate conditions the United States could purchase additional amounts equal to the United States quota. See Table IFS-5. 6) Reserve position includes, and gold stock excludes, $$ 259$ million gold subscription to the Fund in June 1965 for a U.S. quota increase which became effective on February 23, 1966. In figures published by the Fund from June 1965 through January 1966, this gold subscription was included in the U.S. gold stock and excluded from the reserve position.
7) Includes gain of $$ 67$ million resulting from revaluation of the German mark in October 1969, of which $$ 13$ million represents gain on German mark holdings at time of revaluation. See also footnotes 3 and 4 , Table TFS -4 .

Table IFS-2. - U.S. Liquid Liabilities to Foreigners

Note: Table is based on Treasury Department data and on data reported the Treasury Department by banks and brokers in the United States Data correspond to statistics following in this section and in the "Capital Movements" section, except for minor rounding differences Table excludes International Monetary Fund "holdings of dollars," and holdings of U.S. Treasury letters of credit and nonnegotiable, non-interest-bearing special U.S. notes held by other intemational and regional organizations. The liabilities figures are used by the Department of Commerce in the statistics measuring the balance of international payments of the United States on the liquidity basis however, the balance-of-payments statistics include certain adjustments to Treasury data prior to 1963 and some rounding differences, and may differ because of varying timing in incorporating revisions of Treasury data. The table does not include certain nonliquid liabilities to foreign official institutions which enter into the calculation of the official reserve transactions balance by the Department of Commerce
1/ Represents liability on gold deposited by the Intemational Monetary Fund to mitigate the impact on the U.S. gold stock of foreign purcbases for the purpose of making gold subscriptions to the fund under quota increases.
2) U.S. Government obligations at cost value and funds awaiting investment obtained from proceeds of sales of gold by the Intemational Monetary Fund to the United States to acquire income-earning assets Upon termination of investment, the same quantity of gold can be reacquired by the International Monetary Fund.
4 Derived by applying reported transactions to benchmark data; breakdown of transactions by type of holder estimated 1960-1963. Includes securities issued by corporations and other agencies of the United States Government, which are guaranteed by the United States
5/ Principally the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the Inter-American Development Bank.
Includes difference between cost value and face value of securities in DMF gold investment account. Liabilities data reported to the Treasury include the face value of these securities, but in this table the cost value of the securities is included under "Gold investment." The difference, which amounted to $\$ 43$ million $a \leq$ of the end of 1969 , is included in this column.
7) Includes total foreign holdings of U.S. Government bonds and notes, for which breakdown by type of holder is not available.
8/ Data on the two lines shown for this date differ because of changes in reporting coverage. Figures on the first line are comparable in cover age to those shown for the preceding date; figures on the second line are comparable to those shom for the following date.
2/ Data are comparable in coverage to those shown for the preceding date for data comparable to those shown for the following date, see second line opposite December 1969
10. Includes $$ 17$ million increase in dollar value of foreign currency liabilities resulting from revaluation of the German mark in October 1969. Not available. p Preliminary. I Revised.

Note: The initial U. S. quota in the International Monetary Fund was $$ 2.750$ million. The U.S. quota was increased to $$ 4,125$ million in 1959, and to $$ 5,160$ million in February 1966. Under the Articles of Agreement, subscription payments equal to the quota have been made 25 percent in gold and 75 percent in dollars.
1 Represents net Fund sales of gold to acquire U.S. dollars for use in Fund operations. Does not include transactions in gold relating to gold deposit or gold investment (see Table IFS-2).
2) Positive figures represent purchases from the Fund of currencies of other members for equivalent amounts of dollars: negative figures represent repurchases of dollars, including dollars derived from charges on purchases and from other net dollar income of the Fund. The United States has a commitment to repurchase within $3-5$ years, but only to the extent that the Fund's holdings of dollars exceed 75 percent of the U.S. quote. Furchases of dollars by other countries reduce the U.S. commitment to repurchase by an equivalent amount.
3/ Beginning Jamary 1970. includes dollars obtained by countries other than the United States from sales of gold to the Fund
4) Represents the United States gold tranche position in the Fund (the United States quota minus the Fund's holdings of dollars), which is the amount that the united states could purchase in foreign currencies automatically if needed. Under appropriate conditions, the United States could purchase additional amounts equal to the United States quota.
5/ Includes $$ 259$ million gold subscription to the Fund in June 1965 for & U.S. quota increase which became effective on February 23, 1966. In figures published by the Fund from June 1965 through January 1966, this gold subscription was included in the U.S. gold stock and excluded from the reserve positioh.

Background

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected since 1935 , pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive Order 10033 of February 8, 1949, and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Statistics on the principal types of data and the principal countries are published monthly in the "Treasury Bulletin." Reports are filed with the Federal Reserve Banks by banks, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking concerns in the United States. These statistics are then consolidated, and are published by the Treasury as promptly as possible.

The report forms and instructions used in the collection of the statistics have been revised a number of times. The most recent general revision of the report forms became effective with reports as of May 31, 1963. I/

The present form of the published presentation of the 'Capital Movements" statistics was introduced in the May 1969 issue of the "Bulletin." The principal changes were the rearrangement of the tables to bring together in separate sections all the data relevant to the same statistical series; the expansion of the time series on aggregate liabilities and claims reported by banks to show more detailed breakdowns by type of holder and type of liability and claim; and the presentation of statistics not previously published on the shortterm liquid claims of large nonbanking concerns.

Basic definitions

The term "foreigner" as used in the Treasury reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States, including United States citizens domiciled abroad, and the foreign branches, subsidiaries and offices of United States banks and business concerns; the central governments, central banks and other official institutions of foreign countries, wherever located; and international and regional organizations, wherever located. The term "foreigner" also includes persons in the United States to the extent that they are known by reporting institutions to be acting on behalf of foreigners.

In general, data are reported opposite the foreign country or geographical area in which the foreigner is domiciled, as shown on the records of reporting institutions. For a number of reasons, the geographical breakdown of the reported data may not in all cases reflect the ultimate ownership of the assets. Reporting institutions are not expected to go beyond the addresses shown on their records, and so may not be aware of the country of domicile of the ultimate beneficiary. Furthermore, U.S. liabilities arising from deposits of dollars with foreign banks are reported generally in the Treasury statistics as liabilities to foreign banks, whereas the liability of the foreign bank receiving the deposit may be to foreign official institutions or residents of another country.

Data pertaining to branches or agencies of foreign official institutions are reported opposite the country to which the official institution belongs. Data pertaining to international and regional organizations are reported opposite the appropriate international or regional classification except for the Bank for International Settlements and the European Fund, which are included in the classification "Other Western Europe."
"Short-term" refers to obligations payable on demand or having an original maturity of one year or less. "Long-term" refers to obligations having an original maturity of more than one year, and includes securities having no contractual maturity.

Reporting coverage

Reports are required from banks, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking concerns in the United States, including the branches, agencies, subsidiaries, and other affiliates in the United States of foreign firms. Institutions which have total reportable liabilities, claims or securities transactions below a specified exemption level, based on the average for the report dates during a six-month period, including the current report date, are exempt from reporting.

Banks file reports monthly covering their short-term and long-term liabilities to and claims on foreigners; an exemption of $$ 500,000$ is applicable to reports in each of these categories. Twice a year they also report their short-term dollar liabilities to foreigners in countries notshown separately on the monthly report of liabilities. Banks, securities brokers and dealers, and in some instances, nonbanking concerns, report monthly their transactions in securities with foreigners; the applicable exemption level is $$ 100,000$.

Quarterly reports are filed by exporters, importers, industrial and commercial concerns, financial institutions other than banks and brokers, and other nonbanking firms if their liabilities or claims are $$ 500,000$ or more. Such firms also report the liquid portion of their claims for each month-end when they have reportable claims of $$ 1$ million or more. The foreign credit and debit balances of securities brokers and dealers are reported quarterly; the exemption level applicable to these reports is $$ 100,000$.

Description of statistics

Data collected on the Treasury Foreign Exchange Forms are published in the "Treasury Bulletin" in six sections. Each section contains all the data relevant to the same statistical series, with tables showing time series by type and country, and the detailed breakdowns of the latest available data.

Section I covers the short-term and long-term liabilities to foreigners reported by banks in the United States. The data exclude the holdings of dollars of the International Monetary Fund derived from payments of the United States subscription and from the exchange transactions and other operations of the Fund. (Liabilities representing the "gold investment" of the Fund, however, are included.) The data also exclude U.S. Treasury letters of credit, and nonnegotiable, noninterestbearing special notes of the United States held by international and regional organizations.

Section II presents the short-term and long-term claims on foreigners reported by banks in the United States, including claims held for their own account and for the account of their domestic customers. The data exclude convertible foreign currencies held by U.S. monetary authorities.

Sections JIl and IV show respectively the jiabilities to, and claims on, foreigners reported by exporters, importers, industria] and commercial firms, financial institutions other than banks and brokers, and other nonbanking concerns in the United States. The data exclude the intercompany accounts of business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidieries abread or with their foreign parent companies. (Sueh transactions are reported by business firms to the Department of Comerce on its direct investment forms.) The data alsn exclude clajms held through Unjted States banks. Separate figures are shown in Section IV for the short-term liquid claims of large nonbanking concerns in the United States.

Section $V$ contains dal, on transactions in all types of long-term domestic and foreign sccurities by foreigners reported by banks and brokers in the United States (excepl, nonmarketable U.S. Treasury notes, foreign series, and nonmarketable U.S. Treasury bonds and notes, foreign currency scries, which are shown in "International Financial Statistics" section, Table JFS-4). The data cover new issues of securities, transactions in outstanding issues, and redemptions of securities. They includr transactions executed in the United States for the account of foreigners, and transactions executed abroad for the account of reporting institutions and their domestic customers. The data include some transactions which are clnssified as direct investments in the balance of payments accounts. The data exclude securities issued abroad by foreign subsidiaries of U.S. corporations, some of which are treated in the balance of payments as issues of U.S. corporations.

The geographical breakdown of the data on securities transactions shows the country of domicile of the foreign buyers and sellers of the securities; in the case of outstanding issues, this may differ from the country of the original issuer. The gross figures contain some offsetting transactions between foreigners. The net figures for total transactions represent transactions by foreigners with United States residents; but the net figures for transactions of individual countries and areas may include some transactions between foreigners of different countries. Beginning with data for 1969, transactions between foreigners in new issues not offered for sale to United States residents but managed by underwriters in the United States are excluded from the gross figures.

Section VI comprises two tables on the money credit and debit balances, as appearing on the books of reporting brokers and dealers in the United States, in accounts of foreigners with them, and in their accounts carried by foreigners.

The data published in these sections do not cover all types of reported capital movenents between the United States and foreign countries. The principal exclusions are the intercompany capital transactions of business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies, and capital transactions of the United States Government. Consolidated data on all types of capital transactions are published by the Department of Commerce in its regular reports on the United States balance of payments.

Section V - Transactions in Long-Term Securities by Foreigners  Reported by Banks and Brokers in the United States

Table CM-V-4. - Estimated Foreign Holdings of Marketable U.S. Government Bonds and Notes by Country
(Position at end of period in millions of dollars)

Note: Data represent estimated official and private holdings of marketable U.S. Government securities with an original maturity of more than one year. Data shown as of end year 1966 through end year 1968 (first column) are based on a July 31.2963 benchmark survey of holdings and the regular monthly reports of securities transactions (see Table CM-V-3). Data shown for end year 1968 (second column) thmugh latest date are based on a benchark survey as of November 30. 1968, and the monthly transactions reports. For statistical convenience, the new series is introduced as of December 32. 1968, rather than as of the survey date.

The difference between the two series is believed to arise from errors in reporting during the period between the two benchmark surveys, from shifts in ownership not involving purchases or sales through U.S. banks and brokers, and from physical transfers of securities to and from abroad. It is not possible to reconcile the two series or to revise figures for earlier dates.
