Table FFO-6. - Investment Transactions of Government Accounts in Federal Securities (Net)

r Revised.

FEDERAL FISCAL OPERATIONS
Table FFO-7. - Trust Funds Transactions July 1, 1971 through November 30, 1971

"Obligations" are the basis on which the use of funds is controlled in the Federal fovernment. They are recorded at, the point at which the Covernment makes a firm commitment, to acquire goods or services and are the first of the four key events--order, delivery, payment, consumption--which characterize the acquisition and use of resources. In general, they consist of orders flaced, contracts awarded, services received, and similar transactions requiring the disbursement of money.

The obligational stage of Government transactions is a strategic point in gauging the impact of the Covernment's operations on the national economy, since it frequently represents for business firms the Government commitment whish stimulates business investment, including inventory purchases and employment of labor. Disbursements may not occur for months after the Government places its order but the order itself usually causes imnediate pressure on the private economy.

Obligations are classified according to a uniform set of categories which are based upon the nature of the transaction without regard to its ultimate purpose. All payments for salaries and wages, for example, are reported as personnel compensation, whether the personal services are used in current operations or in the construction of capital iterns.

Federal agencies and firms often do business with one another; in doing so, the"buying" agency records obligations, and the "performing" agency records reimbursements. In Table FO-1, obligations that are incurred within the Government are distinguished from those incurred outside the Government. Tables FO-2, 3, and 4 show only those incurred outside.

Obligation data for the administrative budget fund accounts were first published in the September 1967 Treasury Bulletin and the trust fund accounts were first published in the October 1967 Bulletin. Beginning with the April 1968 Bulletin, the data are on the basis of the budget concepts adopted pursuant to the recommendations of the President's Comnission on Budget Concepts.

FEDERAL OBLIGATIONS
Table FO-1. - Gross Obligations Incurred Within and Outside the Federal Government by Object Class, October 31, 1971

Source: Reports on Obligations, Stendard Form 225, from agencies 1/ For Federal Budget presentation a concept of "net obligations incurred" is generaily used. This concept eliminates transactions within the Government and revenue and reimbursements from the public which by statute may be used by Government agencies without appropriation action by the Congress. Surmary figures on this basis follow. (This data is on the basis of Reports on Obligations received from the agencies prior to reports submitted for Budget presentation and therefore may differ somewhat from the Budget document.)

Comparative Statement by Months

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Treasurer's Account

The working cash of the Treasury is held mainly in Treasurer's accounts with Federal Reserve banks and branches. As the balances in these accounts become depleted, they are restored by calling in (transferring) funds from the tax and loan accounts with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of business under a uniform procedure applicable to all banks whereby customers of banks deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the transaction involves merely the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banks are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from subscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account as well as for the account of their customers.

The tax and loan account system permits the Treasury to leave funds in banks and in the communities in which they arise until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operations. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the economy.

A detailed description of the Treasury's depositary system may be found in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1955, pages 275-284.

Table TUS-1. - Status of the Account of the Treasurer of the United States

[^3]System funds were transferred to deposit fund accounts and became demand obligations of the Treasury. Balances of these funds, therefore, are no longer liabilities within the general account of the Treasurer. Uncollected items, exchanges, etc., also previously shown as liabilities were combined with "Unclassified collections, etc. shown under assets.

Footnotes to Table FD-2

On the basis of the daily Treasury statement.
The computed annual interest charge represents the amount of interest that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of each month or year should remain outstanding for a year at the applicable annual rate of interest. The charge is computed for each issue by applying the appropriate annual interest rate to the amount outstanding on that date (the amount actually borrowed in the case of securities sold at a premium or discount, beginning with May 1960). The aggregate charge for all interest-bearing issues constitutes the total computed annual interest charge. The average annual interest rate is computed by dividing the computed annual interest charge for the total, or for any group of issues, by the corresponding principal amount. Beginning with data for December 31, 1958, the computation is based on the rate of effective yield for issues sold at premium or discount. Frior to that date it was based on the coupon rate for all issues.

1. Included in debt outstanding at face amount, but discount value is used in computing annual interest charge and annual interest rate.
2) On United States savings bonds the rate to maturity is applied against the amount outstanding.

Table FD-9. - Status and Application of Statutory Limitation

The Second Liberty Bond Act ( 31 U.S.C. 757 b ), as amended by the Act of March 17, 1971 (Public Law 92-5), provides that the face amount of obligations issued under authority of that Act, and the face amount of obligations guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, shall not exceed in the aggregate $$ 400$ billion outstanding at any one time. Public Law 92-5 also provides that beginning March 17, 1971, and ending June 30 , 1972, the public debt limit shall be temporarily increased by $$ 30$ billion to $$ 430$ billion.

The Act of June 30,1967 (Public Law $90-39$ ) provides that the face amount of beneficial interests and participations issued under section 302(c) of the Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act (12 U.S.C. 1717(c)) during the fiscal year 1968 and outstanding at any time shall be added to the amount otherwise taken into account in determining whether the requirements of the above provisions are met.

Note: In these tables sales of Series $A-F$ and $J$ bonds are included at issue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption value. Series $G, H$, and $K$ are included at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured $J$ and $K$ bonds outstanding are included in the interest-bearinc debt until all bonds of the annual series have matured, and are then transferred to matured debt on which interest has ceased
1/ Sales and redemption figures include exchanges of minor amounts of (1) matured Series $E$ bonds for Series $G$ and $K$ bonds from May 1951 through April 1957 and (2) Series $F$ and $J$ bonds for Series $H$ bonds beginning January 1960; however, they exclude exchanges of Series E tonds for Series H bonds, which are reported in Table SB-3.
2) Details by series on a cumulative basis and by periods for Series A-D combined will be found in the February 1952 and previous issues of the Treasury Bulletin.
3/ Because there is a normal lag in classifying redemptions, the distribu tion of redemption between sales price and accrued discount has been estimated. Beginning with the Treasury Bulletin of March 1961 the method of distributing redemptions between sales price and accrued discount has been changed to reflect the distribution shown in final reports of classified redemption. All periods shown have been revised on this basis.
4/ Series F and G sales were discontinued April 30, 1952, and Series J and $K$ sales were discontinued April 30, 1957. Sales figures after April 30, 1957, represent adjustments.
5/ Includes exchanges of Series 1941 F and $G$ savings bonds for $3-1 / 4 \%$ marketable bonds of $1978-83$.
6/ Includes exchanges of Series 1948 F and $G$ bonds for $4-3 / 4 \%$ marketable notes of 1964.
I) Includes exchanges of Series 1949 F and G bonds for $4 \%$ marketable bond

8/ Includes exchanges of Series 1950 F and $G$ bonds for 3-7/8\% marketable bonds of 1968.
9/ Includes exchanges of Series 1951 and 1952 F and $G$ bonds for 3-7/8\% marketable bonds of 1971 and $4 \%$ marketable bonds of 1980.
10/ Represents changes in the amounts of redemptions not yet classified between matured and umatured issues. Less than $500,000.

United States savings notes were on sale May l, 1967 through June 30, 1970. The notes were eligible for purchase oy individuals with the simultaneous purchase of Series E savings bonds.

The principal terms and conditions for purchase and redemption and information on investment yields of savings notes appear in the Treasury Bulletins of March 1967 and June 1968.

p Preliminary.

The tables in this section are designed to provide duta on United states reserve assets and liabilities and other statistics.related to the United States balance of payments and international financial position. A number of changes were introduced in the May 1967 Bulletin to increase the usefulness of this section.

Table IFS-1 shows the reserve assets of the United States, including its goldstock, special drawing rights held in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, holdings of convertible foreign currencies, and reserve position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IFS-2 brings together the various statistical components of the liabilities which enter into the United States balance of payments calculated on the liquidity basis. The inclusion of the United States reserve position in the International Monetary Fund in Table IFS-1 requires that the "holdinge of dollars" of the Fund be excluded from the data on liabilities to foreigners, in order to avoid double counting.

Table IFS-3 presents an area breakdown of United States liquid liabilities to official institutions of foreign countries.

Table IFS-4 shows United States Treasury nonmarketable bonds and notes issued to official institutions of foreign countries.

Table IFS-5 sets forth the factors which affect the United States position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IF:-6 presente United States net monetary fold transactions with foreign countries and international and regional organizations.

Table IFS-1. - U.S. Reserve Assets
( 1 n millions of dollars)

1) Includes gold sold to the Urited States by the international Monetary Fund with the right of repurchase, and gold deposited by the International Monetary Fund to mitigate the impact on the II.S. gold stock of foreign purchases for the purpose of making gold subscriptions to the Fund under quota increases. For corresponding liabilities see Table IFS-2.
2/ Includes gold in Exchange Stabilization Fund, which is not included in Treasury gold figures shown in daily Treasury statement. See "Account
3/ Includes initial allocation on January 1, 1970, of $$ 867$ million and second allocation on January 1, 1971 of $$ 717$ million of special drawing rights (SDR) in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, plus or minus transactions in SDR.
2) Includes holdings of Treasury and Federal Reserve System.

5/ The United States has the right to purchase foreign currencies equivalent to its reserve position in the Fund automatically if needed. Under appropriate conditions the United States could purchase additional amounts equal to the United States quota. See Table IFS-5.
6) Reserve position includes, and gold stock excludes. $\$ 259$ million gold subscription to the Fund in June 1965 for a U.S. quota increase which became effective on February 23, 1966. In figures published by the Fund from June 1965 through January 1966 , this gold subscription was included in the $\mathrm{i} . \mathrm{S}$. . gold stock and excluded from the reserve position
7) Includes gain of $$ 67$ million resulting from revaluation of the German mark in October 1969, of which $$ 13$ million represents gain on German mark holdings at time of revaluation. See also footnotes 3 and 4 ,
Table IFS-4.
8/ Includes $$ 28$ million increase in dollar value of foreign currencies See also footnotes 3 and 6. Table IFC-4.

Note: Table is based on Treasury Department data and on data reported to the Treasury Department by banks and brokers in the United States.
Data correspond to statistics following in this section and in the "Capital Movements" section, except for minor rounding differences. Table excludes International Monetary Fund "holdings of dollars," and holdings of U.S. Treasury letters of credit and nonnegotiable, non-interest-bearing special U.S. notes held by other international and regional organizations.
1/ Represents liability on gold deposited by the International Monetary Fund to mitigate the impact on the U.S. gold stock of foreign purchases for the purpose of making gold subscriptions to the fund under quota increases.
2/ U.S. Government obligations at cost value and funds awaiting invest ment obtained from proceeds of sales of gold by the International Monetary Fund to the United States to acquire income-earning assets.
Upon termination of investment, the same quantity of gold can be reacquired by the International Monetary Fund.
3/ Includes Bank for International Settlements and European Fund.
4/ Derived by applying reported transactions to benchmark data; breakdown of transactions by type of holder estimated 1960-1963. Includes securities issued by corporations and other agencies of the United States Government, which are guaranteed by the United States.
Principally the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the Inter-American Development Bank.
6) Includes difference between cost value and face value of securities in TMF gold investment account. Liabilities data reported to the Treasury include the face value of these securities, but in this table the cost value of the securities is included under "cold investment." The difference, which amounted to $$ 19$ million as of the end of 1970 , is included in this column.
7/ Includes total foreign holdings of U.S. Government bonds and notes, for which breakdown by type of holder is not available
8) Data on the two lines shown for this date differ because of changes in reporting coverage. Figures on the first line are comparable in coverage to those shown for the preceding date; figures on the second line are comparable to those shown for the following date.
9/ Includes $$ 17$ million increase in dollar value of fareign currency liabilities resulting from revaluation of the German mark in October 1969 Not available

Background

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected since 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive Order 10033 of February 8, 1949, and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Statistics on the principal types of data and the principal countries are published monthly in the "Treasury Bulletin." Reports are filed with the Federal Reserve Banks by banks, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking concerns in the United States. These statistics are then consolidated, and are published by the Treasury as promptly as possible.

The report forms and instructions used in the collection of the statistics have been revised a number of times. The most recent general revision of the report forms became effective with reports as of May 31, 1963. 1/

The present form of the published presentation of the "Capital Movements" statistics was introduced in the May 1969 issue of the "Bulletin." The principal changes were the rearrangement of the tables to bring together in separate sections all the data relevan't to the same statistical series; the expansion of the time series on aggregate liabilities and claims reported by banks to show more detailed breakdowns by type of holder and type of liability and claim; and the presentation of statistics not previously published on the short-term liquid claims of large nonbanking concerns.

Basic definitions

The term "foreigner" as used in the Treasury reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States, including United States citizens domiciled abroad, and the foreign branches, subsidiaries and offices of United States banks and business concerns; the central governments, central banks and other official institutions of foreign countries, wherever located; and international and regional organizations, wherever located. The term "foreigner" also includes persons in the United States to the extent that they are known by reporting institutions to be acting on behalf of foreigners.

In general, data are reported opposite the foreign country or geographical area in which the foreigner is domiciled, as shown on the records of reporting institutions. For a number of reasons, the geographical breakdown of the reported data may not in all cases reflect the ultimate ownership of the assets. Reporting institutions are not expected to go beyond the addresses shown on their records, and so may not be aware of the country of domicile of the ultimate beneficiary. Furthermore, U.S. liabilities arising from deposits of dollars with foreign banks are reported generally in the Treasury statistics as liabilities to foreign banks, whereas the liability of the foreign bank receiving the deposit may be to foreign official institutions or residents of another country.

Data pertaining to branches or agencies of foreign official institutions are reported opposite the country to which the official institution belongs. Data pertaining to international and regional organizations are reported opposite the appropriate international or regional classification except for the Bank for International Settlements and the European Fund, which are included in the classification "Other Western Europe."
"Short-term" refers to obligations payable on deman or having an original maturity of one year or less. "Long. term" refers to obligations having an original maturity o more than one year, and includes securities having no con. tractual maturity.

Reporting coverage

Reports are required from banks, securities brokers ane dealers, and nonbanking concerns in the United States, in. cluding the branches, agencies, subsidiaries, and other af. filiates in the United States of foreign firms. Institution which have total reportable liabilities, claims or securitie transactions below a specified exemption level, based on the average for the report dates during a six-month period, in. cluding the current report date, are exempt from reporting

Banks file reports monthly covering their short-ter and long-term liabilities to and claims on foreigners; a exemption of $$ 500,000$ is applicable to reports in each o: these categories. Twice a year they also report their short. term dollar liabilities to foreigners in countries not show separately on the monthly report of liabilities. Banks securities brokers and dealers, and in some instances, non. banking concerns, report monthly their transactions in secur. ities with foreigners; the applicable exemption level is $$ 100,000$.

Quarterly reports are filed by exporters, importers, in. dustrial and comercial concerns, financial institutions other than banks and brokers, and other nonbanking firms i: their liabilities or claims are $$ 500,000$ or more. Such firms also report the liquid portion of their claims for each month. end when they have reportable claims of $$ 1$ million or more The foreign credit and debit balances of securities brokers and dealers are reported quarterly; the exemption level ap. plicable to these reports is $$ 100,000$.

Description of statistics

Data collected on the Treasury Foreign Exchange ForII are published in the "Treasury Bulletin" in six sections Each section contains all the data relevant to the same statis tical series, with tables showing time series by type ar country, and the detailed breakdowns of the latest availab] data.

Section I covers the short-term and long-term liabiliti to foreigners reported by banks in the United States. data exclude the holdings of dollars of the Internations Monetary Fund derived from payments of the United State subscription and from the exchange transactions and othe operations of the Fund. (Liabilities representing the "go] investment" of the Fund, however, are included.) The dat also exclude U.S. Treasury letters of credit, and nonnegc tiable, noninterest-bearing special notes of the United State held by international and regional organizations.

Section II presents the short-term and long-term claim on foreigners reported by banks in the United States, includin claims held for their own account and for the account o their domestic customers. The data exclude convertible for eign currencies held by U.S. monetary authorities.

Sections III and IV show respectively the liabilitie to, and claims on, foreigners reported by exporters, importers, industrial and comercial firms,financial institutions other than banks and brokers, and other nonbanking concerns in the United States. The data exclude the intercompany accounts of business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies. (Such transactions are reported by business firms to the Department of Comerce on its direct investment forms.) The data also exclude claims held through United States banks. Separate figures are shown in Section IV for the short-term liquid claims of large nonbanking concerns in the United States.

Section $V$ contains data on transactions in all types of long-term domestic and foreign securities by foreigners reported by banks and brokers in the United States (except nonmarketable U.S. Treasury notes, foreign series, and nonmarketable U.S. Treasury bonds and notes, foreign currency series, which are shown in "International Financial Statistics" section, Table IFS-4). The data cover new issues of securities, transactions in outstanding issues, and redemptions of securities. They include transactions executed in the United States for the account of foreigners, and transactions executed abroad for the account of reporting institutions and their domestic customers. The data include some transactions which are classified as direct investments in the balance of payments accounts. The data exclude securities issued abroad by foreign subsidiaries of U.S. corporations, some of which are treated in the balance of payments as issues of U.S. corporations.

The geographical breakdown of the data on securities transactions shows the country of domicile of the foreign buyers and sellers of the securities; in the case of outstanding issues, this may differ from the country of the original issuer. The gross figures contain some offsetting transactions between foreigners. The net figures for total transactions represent transactions by foreigners with United States residents; but the net figures for transactions of individual countries and areas may include some transactions between foreigners of different countries. Beginning with data for 1969, transactions between foreigners in new issues not offered for sale to United States residents but managed by underwriters in the United States are excluded from the gross figures.

Section VI comprises two tables on the money credit and debit balances, as appearing on the books of reporting brokers and dealers in the United States, in accounts of foreigners with them, and in their accounts carried by foreigners.

The data published in these sections do not cover all types of reported capital movements between the United States and foreign countries. The principal exclusions are the intercompany capital transactions of business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies, and capital transactions of the United States Government. Consolidated data on all types of capital transactions are published by the Department of Commerce in its regular reports on the United States balance of payments.
