Treasury Financing Operations

Auction of $2-Y e a r$ Notes

On November 12 the Treasury announced that it. would auction $$ 2,500$ million of 2 -year notes to refund $$ 1,370 \mathrm{mil}$ lion of notes held by the public maturing November 30, 1976, and to raise $$ 1,130$ million new cash. The notes of fered were Treasury Notes of Series T-1978, to be dated November 30, 1976, due November 30, 1978, with interest payable semiannually on May 31 and Novemiser 30 in each year until maturity. A cour pon rate of $5-3 / 4 \%$ was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield basis, the average of which translated into an average accepted price close to 100.000 .

Tenders for the notes were received until $1: 30$ p.m., EST, November 18, and totaled $$ 4,224$ million, of which $$ 2,803$ million was accepted at yields ranging from $5.76 \%$, price 99.981, up to $5.94 \%$, price 99.647. Noncompeti tive tenders for $$ 1,000,000$ or less from the public were accepted in full at the average yield of accepted tenders, $5.86 \%$, price 99.795 . These totaled $$ 318$ million.

In addition, $$ 426$ million of tenders were accepted at the average price from Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks for their own account in exchange for securities maturing November 30, 1976, ( $$ 136 \mathrm{million}$ ) and from Federal Reserve Banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities for new cash ( $$ 290$ million).

Tenders were received at Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D. C. Bearer notes, with interestcoupons attached, and notes registered as to principal and interest were authorized to be issued in denominations of $$ 5,000, $ 10,000, $ 100,000$, and $1,000,000.

Auction of 4 -Year 1-Month Notes

On November 23 the Treasury announced that it would auction $$ 2,500$ million of 4 -year l-month notes to raise new cash. The notes offeredwere Treasury Notes of Series F-1980, to be dated December 7, 1276, due December 31, 1980, with interest payable semiannually on June 30, and December 31 in each year until maturity. A coupon rate of $5-7 / 8 \%$ was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield basis, the average of which translated into an average accepted price close to 100.000 .

Tenders for the notes were received until 1:30 p.m.,EST, November 30 , and totaled $$ 5,613 \mathrm{million}$, of which $$ 2,504 \mathrm{mil}$ lionwas accepted atyields ranging from $5.87 \%$, price 100.007 up to $5.92 \%$, price 99.829 . Noncompetítive tenders for $$ 1,000,000$ or less from the public were accepted in full at the average yield of accepted tenders, $5.91 \%$, price 99.864 . These totaled $$ 502$ million. In addition, $$ 180$ million of tenders were accepted at the average-yield price from foreign and interna-

Tenders were received at Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D. C. Bearer notes, with interest coupons attached, and notes registered as to principal and interest were authorized to be issued in denominations of $$ 1,000, $ 5,000, $ 10,000$, $$ 100,000$, and $$ 1,000,000$.

132-Day Bills

On November 29, tenders were invited for $$ 2,000$ million, or thereabouts, of 132-day Treasury bills. to be issued on December 10, 1976. The bills will be an additional issue of bills dated October 21, 1976, and maturing April 21, 1977.

Tenders were opened on December 7. They totaled $$ 4,695$ million, of which $$ 2,000$ million was accepted, including $$ 28$ million of noncompetitive tenders. The averagebank discount rate was $4.448 \%$.

52-Week Bills

On December 2 tenders were invited for $$ 3,253$ million. or thereabouts, of 364-day Treasury bills to be dated December 14, 1976, and to mature December 13, 1977. Tenders were opened on December 8 . They totaled $$ 6,688 \mathrm{milli}$, of which $$ 3,253$ million was accepted, including $$ 69 \mathrm{milli}$ on of noncompetitive tenders from the public and $$ 999 \mathrm{milli}$ on of bills issued at the average price to Government accounts and Federal Reserve Banks for themselves and as agents of foreign and international monetary autnorities. An additional $251 million of the billswere issued to Federal Reserve Banks as agents of foreign and international monetary authorities for new cash. The average bank discount rate was 4.708\%. The issue was to refund $$ 3,253$ million of bills maturing December 14, 1976.

This invitation for tenders was for the first series of 52-week Treasury bills to be issued, with a limited exception, in book-entry form only.

During recent months, the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Banks have made considerable efforts to acquaint investors and financial institutions with details of the planned conversion to an exclusive book-entry system for. Treasury securities. A number of public meetings and special briefings were held in various parts of the country, and the reactions were such as to convince the Treasury that partial implementation could begin.

The Treasury has made an exception to its exclusive book-entry offering of 52 -week bills for investors who are still required by law or regulation to hold securities in physical form. Definitive bills in the $$ 100,000$ denomination will be available to such investors for a limited period of tionel monetary authorities. time.

Treasury Financing Operations-Continued

Although the Treasury will not initially charge any fee for establishing or maintaining book-entry accounts on its records, it reserves the right to impose charges at a later date for services provided after original issue on future Treasury offerings of book-entry securities.

The Treasury plans to convert the regular weekly issuance of 26 -week bills to full book-entry form beginning in early June 1977, with the conversion of l3-week bills to follow in September 1977.

13-Week and 26-Week Bills

Issues of regular weekly Treasury bills in November to taled $$ 24,800$ millyan. These issues were offered for cash and in exchange for bills maturing in the same amount. There were three 13 -week issues in the amount of $$ 2,600$ million and one 13 -week issue of $$ 2,500$ million. There were two 26 -week issues in the amount of $$ 3,700$ million and one 26 -week issue each of $$ 3,500$ and $$ 3,600$ million. Average rates for the new issues are shown in the following table.

| Date of issue | Annual average rate (bank discount basis) |  |

Treasury Bills (9ther than Short-dated bills) - General

Treasury bills aresold on a bid basis. The par amount is payable without interest at maturity. They are issued in bearer form only in the case of all issues except 52-week bills, in denominations of $$ 10,000, $ 15,000, $ 50,000, $ 100,000$, $$ 500,000$ and $$ 1,000,000$ (maturity value). 52-week issues of bills are issued in book-entry form on the records of either the Federal Reserve banks and branches or of the Treasury. For a limited period of time, definitive bills in the $$ 100,000$ denominationwill be available only to investors who are able to show that they are required by law to hold securities in т.hysical form.

Tenders are received at Federal Reserve banks and branches and fromindividuals at the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington. Each tender must be for a minimum of $$ 10,000$. Tenders over $$ 10,000$ must be in multiples of $$ 5,000$. Banking institutions generally may submit tenders for account of customers. Tenders may be made without deposit by incorporated banks and trust companies and by responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 2 percent of the par amount of bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Noncompetitive tenders (without stated price), usually for $$ 500,000$ or less from any one bidder, for each issue of 13-week, 26 -week, and 52 -week bills are accepted in full at the average price of accepted competitive bids for an issue.

Payment for accepted tenders must be made or completed on the date of issue, in cash or other immediately available funds or inalike face amount of Treasury bills maturing on that date. Payment for 13 -week, 26 -week, and 52-week bills may not be made by credit in Treasury tax and loan accounts.

Foreign Series and Foreign Currency Series

Foreign series securities issued in. November totaled $$ 690$ million, consisting of two bills and two notos. Redemptions for the month totaled $$ 472$ million. At the end of November, foreign series securities outstanding totaled $$ 20,907$ million. (Details are shown on page 51.)

There were no foreign currency series securities issued in Noveqber. Redemption for the month totaled an equivalent of $$ 20$ million. At the end of November foreign currency series securities outstanding totaled an equivalent of $$ 1,579$ million and were all denominated in Swiss francs. (Details are shown on page 54.)

colums (3) and (9) above. Trust interfund transactions are payments from one fund to another trust fund and are excluded in calculating from one fund to another trust fund and are excluded in calculating trust fund receipts and outlays. The intragovernmental transactions are fayments iron Federal funds to lrust funds, and vice versa, but
"Obligations" are the basis on which the use of funds is controlled in the Federal Government. They are recorded at the point at which the Government makes a firm commitment to acquire goods or services and are the first of the four key events--order, delivery, payment, consumption--which characterize the acquisition and use of resources. In general, they consist of orders placed, contracts awarded, services received, and similar transactions requiring the disbursement of money.

The obligational stage of Government transactions is a strategic point in gauging the impect of the Government's operations on the national economy, since it frequently represents for business firms the Government commitment which stimulates business investment, including inventory purchases and employment of labor. Disbursements may not occur for months after the Government places its order but the order itself usually causes imediate pressure on the private economy .

Obligations are classified according to a uniform set of categories which are based upon the nature of the transaction without regard to its ultimate purpose. All payments for salaries and wages, for example, are reported as personnel compensation, whether the personal services are used in current operations or in the construction of capital items.

Federal agencies and firms often do business with one another; in doing so, the "buying" agency records obligations, and the "performing" agency records reimbursements. In Table FO-1, obligations that are incurred within the Government are distinguished from those incurred outside the Government. Tables $\mathrm{FO}-2,3$, and 4 show only those incurred outside.

Obligation data for the administrative budget fund accounts were first published in the September 1967 Treasury Bulletin and the trust fund accounts were first published in the October 1967 Bulletin. Beginning with the April 1968 Bulletin, the data are on the basis of the budget concepts adopted pursuant to the recomendations of the President's Commission on Budget Concepts.

Source and Availability of the Balance in the Account of the U.S. Treasury

The working cash of the Treasury is held mainly in 'Treasury's accounts with Federal Reserve banks and branches. As the balances in these accounts become depleted, they are restored by calling in (transferring) funds from the tax and loan accounts with thousands of commercial banks throughout the country.

Deposits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of business under a uniform procedure applicable to all banks whereby customers of banks deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the transaction involves merely the transfer of money from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same bank. On occasions, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, banks are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from subscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account as well as for the account of their customers.

The tax and loan account system permits the Treasury to leave funds in banks and in the communities in which they arise until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operations. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operations on bank reserves and the economy.

A detailed description of the Treasury's depositary system may be found in the Annuel Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1973, pages 282-285.

1/ Effective January 1972, the Treasury operating balance excludes the gold balance in Treasury.
2/ Represents deposits in certain comnercial depositaries that have been converted from a time deposit to a demand deposit basis to permit greater flexibility in Treasury cash management.
3/ Will not agree with Daily Treasury Statement due to rounding.
I/ Represents funds in process of collection by (a) the U.S. Treasury and (b) commercial banks which have been authorized to defer credit until checks are collected. Data prior to January 1072 included in "miscellaneous items" column.
5/ Represents demand deposits in National, Foreign, and other bank depositaries previously included in time deposits.
6/ Includes monetary assets in transit between Federal Reserve banks and other depositaries.
7/ The free gold balance can be readily converted to available funds with Federal Reserve banks.

Note: The computed annual interest charge represents the amount of interest that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of each month or year should remain outstanding for a year at the applicable annual rate of interest. The charge is computed for each issue by applying the appropriate annual interest rate to the amount outstanding on that date (the amount actually borrowed in the case of securities sold at a premium or discount, beginning with May 1960). The aggregate charge for all interest-bearing issues constitutes the total computed annual interest charge. The average annual rate is computed by dividing the computed annual interest charge for the toval, or lor any group of issues, by the corresponding principal amount. Beginning with data for Deceruber 31, 1958, the computation is based on the rate of effective yield for issues sold at premium or discount. Prior to that date it was based on the coupon rate for all issues. 1. As of July 1974, includes Federal FinancingBank.
2) Excludes Federal Financing Bank.

3 Included in debt outstanding at face amount, but disccunt value is used in computing annual interest charge and annual interest rate.
4 On United States savings bonds the rate to maturity is applied against the amount outstanding.
2/ As of July 31, 1974, Monthly Statement of the Public Debt of the U.S. the column heading was changed to "Covernment account series" which includes Treasury deposit funds in addition to those accounts previously shown as special issues.

Note: In these tables sales of Series $A-F$ and $J$ bonds are included at is aue price, and redemptions and amounts outstanding at current redemption value. Series $G, H$, and $K$ are included at face value throughout. Matured bonds which have been redeemed are included in redemptions. Matured $J$ and $K$ bonds outstanding are Included in the interest-bearing debt until all bonds of the annual series have matured, and are then transferred to matured debt on which interest has ceased.
1/ Sales and redemption figures include exchanges of minor amounts of (1) matured Serles E bonds for Serles $G$ and $K$ bonds from May 1951 through April 1957; (2) Series $F$ and J bonds for Serles $H$ bonds beginning January 19.60; and (3) U.S. Savines notes for Serles $H$ bonds beginning January 1072; however, they exclude exchanges of Series $E$ bonds for Series $H$ bonds, which are reported in Table SB-3.
2 Details by series on a cumulative basis and by ferlods of Series $A-D$ comblned will be found in the February 1952 and previous issues of the Treasury Bulletin.
3. Because there is a normal lag in clasalfying redemptions, the diatribution of redemption between sales price and accrued discount has been eatimated. Beginnins with the Treasury Bulletin of March 1961 the method of distributing redemptions between sales price and accrued discount has been changed to reflect the distribution shown in final reports of classified redemption. All periods shown have been revised on this basis.
Series and G sales were discontinued April 30, 1952, and Series and $K$ salea were discontinued April 30, 1957. Sales figures after April 30, 1957, represent adjustments.

6 Includes exchanges of Series 1948 F and $G$ bonds for $4-3 / 4 \%$ marketabie notes of 1964.

1. Includes exchanges of Series 1949 F and $G$ bonds for $L 8$ marketable bonde of 1969.
8/ Includes exchanges of Series 1960 f and $G$ bonds for $3-7 / 8$ marketable bonds for 1968.
a/ Includes exchanges of Series 1951 and 2952 F and $G$ bonds for 3-7/8\% marketable bonds of 1971 and 48 marketable bonds of 1980. between matured and unmatured dasues

Less than $$ 500,000$. D Preliminary. r Revised.

United States savings notes were on sale May 1, 1967 through June 30, 1970. The notes were eligible for purchase by individuals with the simultaneous purchase of Series E savings bonds.

The principal terms and conditions for purchase and redemption and information on investment yields of savings notes appear in the Treasury Bulletins of March 1967 and June 1968; and in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for fiscal year 1974.

The monthly Treasury Survey of Ownership covers securities issued by the United States Government, Federal agancies, Fed-erally-sponsored agencies, and the District of Columbia. The banks and insurance companies included in the Survey currently account for about 80 percent of all such securities held by these institutions. The similar proportion for corporations and for savings and loan associations is 50 percent, and for Stata and local governments, 40 percent. Data were first published for banks and insurance companies in the May 1941 Treasury Bulletin, for corporations and savings and loan associations in the September 1960 Bullatin, and for State and local governments in the February 1962 Bulletin.

Holdings by commercial banks distributed according t., Federal Reserve member bank classes and nonmember banks are published for June 30 and December 31. Holdings by corporate pension trust funds are published quarterly, first appearing in the March 1954 Bulletin.

YIELDS OF TREASURY SECURITIES NOVEMBER 30, 1976

Based on closing bid quotations

Table AY-1. - Average Yields of Long-Term Treasury, Corporate and Municipal Bonds by Periods

1) Treasury bond yields are based on a compoaite of closing bid quotations in the over-the-counter market. Series includes bonds on which the interest income is subject to normal tax and surtax which are neither due nor callable before 10 years. For bonds currently in series, see Table MQ-3.
2/ Treasury series based on reoffering yields of new corporate bonds with 5 years call protection and rated Aa by Moody's Investors Service. Prior to June 1973, this series reflected bonds without call protection. The value of 5 years call protection in that period ranged from 10 to 25 basis points.
3/ Index of new issue reoffering yields on Aa 20 year general obligations compiled by Securities Industry Association. Weekly series are not available prior to January 1970.
4/ One or more new long-term bonds added to the average
5 An existing bond dropped from the average.

The tables in this section are designed to provide data on United States reserve assets and liabilities and other statistics related to the United States balance of payments and international financial position. A number of changes were introduced in the May 1367 and July 1372 issues of the Bulletin to increase the usefulness of this section.

Table IFS-1 shows the reserve assets of the United States, including its gold stock, special drawing rights held in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, holdings of convertible foreign currencies, and reserve position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IFS-2 brings together statistics on liabilities to foreign official institutions, and liquid liabilities to all other forelgners, which are used in the United States balance-of-payments statistics.

Table IFS-3 presents an area breakdown of United States liabilities to official institutions of foreign countries.

Table IFS-4 shows United States Treasury nonnarketable bonds and notes issued to official institutions of foreign countries.

Table IFS-5 sets forth the factors which affect the United States position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IFS-6 presents a measure of weighted-average changes in exchange rates between the United States dollar and the currencies of certain other countries.

T/ Includes gold sold to the United States by the Internationsl Monetary Fund with the right of repurchase, and gold deposited by the International Monetary Fund to mitigate the impact on the U.S. gold stock of foreign purchases for the purpose of making gold subscriptions to the Fund under quota increases. For corresponding liabilities see Table IFS-2.
2) Prior to December 1974, excludes gold held by the Exchange Stabilization Fund. On December 9, 1974, the Treasury acquired all gold held by the Exchange Stabilization Fund. See" Account of the U.S. Treasury," Table UST-3.
3/ Includes initial ellocation on January 1, 1970 of $$ 867$ million, second allocation on January 1, 1971 of $$ 717$ million and third allocation on Januery 1, 1972 of $$ 710$ million of special drawing rights (SDR) in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, plus or minus transactions in SDR.
4 Includes holdings of Treasury and Federal Reserve System.
5 The United States has the right to purchase foreign currencies equivalent to ita reserve position in the Fund automatically if needed. Under appropriate conditions the United States could purchase additional amounts equal to the United States quota. See Table IFS-5.
6/ Reserve position includes, and gold stock excludes, $$ 259$ million gold subscription to the Fund in June 1965 for a U.S. quota increase which became effective on February 23, 1966. In figures published by the Fund from June 1965 through January 1966, this gold subscription was included in the U.S. gold stock and excluded from the reserve position.
I) Includes gain of $$ 67$ million resulting from revaluation of the German mark in October 1969, of which $$ 13$ million represents gain on German mark holdings at the time of revaluation. See also footnotes 3 and 4, Table IFS-4.
8/ Includes $$ 28$ million increase in dollar value of foreign currencies revalued to reflect market exchange rates as of December 31, 1971. See also footnotes 3 and 5, Table IFS-4.

2/ Total reserve assets include increase of $$ 1,016$ million resulting from change in par value of the U.S. dollar in May 1972, consisting of $$ 828$ million total gold stock, $$ 822$ million Treasury gold stock, $$ 155$ million special drawing rights and $$ 33$ million reserve position in the International Monetary Fund.
10) Total reserve assets include increase of $$ 1,436$ million resulting from change in par value of the dollar on October 18,1973 , consisting of $$ 1,165$ miliion total gold stock, $$ 1,157$ million Treasury gold stock, $$ 217$ million special drewing rights, and $$ 54$ million reserve position In the International Monetary Fund.
11 Beginning July 1974, the LMF adopted a technique for valuing the SDR based on a weighted-average of exchange rates for the currencies of 16 member countries. The United States SDR holdings and reserve position in the INF are also valued on this basis beginning July 1974. At valuation used prior to July 1974 (SDR $1=$ 1.20635$ ), the following end-of-month values amounted to (in millions of dollars)

Note: The initial U.S. quote in the International Monetary Fund was $$ 2,750$ million. The U.S. quota was increased to $$ 4,125$ million in 1959 , $$ 5,160$ million in February 1966 , and $$ 6,700$ million in December 1970, and revelued to $$ 7,274$ million in May 1972 and $$ 8,083$ million in October 2973 as a result of changes in the par value of the dollar. Under the Articles of Agreement, subscription payments equal to the quota have been made 25 percent in gold and 75 percent in dollars.
1/ Represents net Fund sales of gold to acquire U.S. dollars for use in Fund operations. Does not include transections in gold relating to gold deposits or gold investment (see Table IFS-2).
2 Positive figures represent purchases from the Fund of currencies of other members for equivalent amounts of dollars; negative figures represent repurchases of dollars, including dollars derived from charges on purchases and from other net dollar income of the Fund. The United States has a comitment to repurchase within $3-5$ years, but only to the extent that the Fund's holdinga of dollars exceed 75 percent of the U.S. quota. Purchases of dollars by other countries reduce the U.S. commitment to repurchase by an equivalent amount.
3 Beginning January 1970, includes dollars obtained by countries other than the United States from sales of gold to the Fund.
4/ Represents the United States gold tranche poaition in the Fund (the United States quota minus Fund's holdings of dollara), which is the amount that the United States could purchase in foreign currencies automatically if needed. Under appropriate conditions the United States could purchase additional amounts equal to the United States quota.

2/ Includes $$ 259$ million gold subscription to the Fund in June 1965 for a U.S. quota increase which became effective on February 23, 19615 In figures published by the Fund from June 1965 through January lofe, this gold subscription was included in the U.S. gold stock and excluded from the reserve position.
6/ Includes $$ 30$ million of special drawing rights.
7/ Represents amount payable in dollars to the Fund to maintain the value of Fund holdings of U.S. dollars.
8) Excludes currency valuetion adjustments for each month as follows (in millions of dollars):

Table IFS-6. - Weighted-Average of Exchange Rate Changes for the Dollar

1/ This table preaents calculations of weighted average percentage changes in the rates of exchange between the dollar and certain foreign currenciea, in order to provide a measure of changes in the dollar's general foreign exchange value broader than a measure provided by any single exchange rate change. Calculations are provided for two aets of countries that account for a major share of U.S. foreign trade. U.S. bilateral trade patterns in 1972 are used as a convenient, readily bilateral trade patterns in 1972 are used as a convenient, readily exchange rate changes, though such weights do not provide a full measure of indivicual currencies' relative importance in U.S. international tranaactions because they take no account of factors other than trade. The calculations do not purport to represent a guide to meauring the impact of exchange rate changes on U.S. international transactions.
Exchange rate data used in constructing the indices reported here differ aomewhat from those used in earlier calculations to more accurately reflect end-or-period currency values.
The equations used are as follows:
Equation one ia used to calculate a trade-weighted average of changes in the dollar coat of foreign currencies:

(EQI) $\quad E_{m}=\Sigma\left(\Delta $ / £ C_{i} * M_{i} / \Sigma M\right)$

Where: $E_{m}$ is the weighted average of percentage changes in the dollar cost of individual foreign currencies;
$\Delta $ / f c_{i}$ is the percent change in the dollar cost of foreign currency i; and
$M_{i} / \Sigma M$ is U.S. imports from country i, as a proportion of total U.S. imports from all countries in the set.
Equation two is used to calculate a trade-weighted average of changes in the foreign exchange cost of dollara:
(EQ2) $\quad E_{X}=\Sigma\left(\Delta \mathrm{fc}_{i} / $ * X_{i} / \Sigma X\right)$
Where: $E_{X}$ is the weighted average of percentage changes in the foreign currency cost of dollars:
$\Delta \mathrm{fc}_{\mathrm{i}} / $$ is the percent change in the foreign currency i cost of dollars; and $X_{i} / E X$ is U.S. exports to country i, as a proportion of total U.S. exports to all countries in the set.
Equation three combines the above export-weighted and import-weighted averagea to provide an overall measure of exchange rate change:

EQ3) $E=\left[\left(E_{m} * m / m+x\right) *(-1)\right]+\left[E_{x} * x / m+x\right]$
Where: $m / m+x$ is U.S. imports as a proportion of its total trade with all countries in the set; and $x / m+x$ is U.S. exports as a proportion of its total trade with all countries in the set.

Background

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected since 1935, pursuant to Executive Order 6560 of January 15, 1934, Executive Order 10033 of February 8, 1949, and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. Statistics on the principal types of data and the principal countries are published monthly in the "Treasury Bulletin." Reports are filed with the Federal Reserve Banks by banks, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking concerns in the United States. These statistics are then consolidated, and are published by the Treasury as promptly as possible.

The report forms and instructions used in the collection of the statistics have been revised a number of times. The most recent general revision of the report forms became effective with reports as of May 31, 1963. I/

The present form of the published presentation of the "Capital Movements" statistics was introduced in the May 1969 issue of the "Bulletin." The principal changes were the rearrangement of the tables to bring together in separate sections all the data relevant to the same statistical series; the expansion of the time series on aggregate liabilities and claims reported by banks to show more detailed breakdowns by type of holder and type of liability and claim; and the presentation of statistics not previously published on the short-term liquid claims of large nonbanking concerns.

Basic definitions

The term "foreigner" as used in the Treasury reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States, including United States citizens domiciled abroad, and the foreign branches, subsidiaries and offices of United States banks and business concerns; the central governments, central banks and other official institutions of foreign countries, wherever located; and international and regional organizations, wherever located. The term "foreigner" also includes persons in the United States to the extent that they are known by reporting institutions to be acting on behalf of foreigners.

In general, data are reported opposite the foreign country or geographical area in which the foreigner is domiciled, as shown on the records of reporting institutions. For a number of reasons, the geographical breakdown of the reported data may not in all cases reflect the ultimate ownership of the assets. Reporting institutions are not expected to go beyond the addresses shown on their records, and so may not be aware of the country of domicile of the ultimate beneficiary. Furthermore, U.S. liabilities arising from deposits of dollars with foreign banks are reported generally in the Treasury statistics as liabilities to foreign banks, whereas the liability of the foreign bank receiving the deposit may be to foreign official institutions or residents of another country.

Data pertaining to branches or agencies of forelgn official institutions are reported opposite the country to which the official institution belongs. Data pertaining to international and regional organizations are reported opposite the appropriate international or regional classification except for the Bank for International Settlements and the European Fund, whichare included in the classification "Other Western Europe."
"Short-term" refers to obligations payable on demand or having an original maturity of one year or less. "Iongterm" refers to obligations having an original maturity of more than one year, and includes securities having no contractual maturity.

Reporting coverage

Reports are required from banks, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking concerns in the United States, including the branches, agencies, subsidiaries, and other affiliates in the United States of foreign firms. Institutions which have total reportable liabilities, claims or securities transactions below a specified exemption level, based on the average for the report dates during a six-month period, including the current report date, are exempt from reporting.

Banks file reports monthly covering their short-term and long-term liabilities to and claims on foreigners; an exemption of $$ 500,000$ is applicable to reports in each of these categories. Twice ayear they also report their shortterm dollar liabilities to foreigners in countries not shown separately on the monthly report of liabilities. Banks, securities brokers and dealers, and in some instances, nonbanking concerns, report monthly their transactions in securities with foreigners; the applicable exemption level is $100,000.

Quarterly reports are filed by exporters, importers, industrial and comercial concerns, financial institutions other than banks and brokers, and other nonbanking firms if their liabilities or claims are $$ 500,000$ or more. Such firms also report the liquid portion of their claims for each monthend when they have reportable claims of $$ 1$ million or more. The foreign credit and debit balances of securities brokers and dealers are reported quarterly; the exemption level applicable to these reports is $$ 100,000$.

Description of statistics

Data collected on the Treasury Foreign Exchange Forms are published in the "Treasury Bulletin" in six sections. Each section contains all the data relevant to the same statistical series, with tables showing time series by type and country, and the detailed breakdowns of the latest available data.

Section I covers the short-term and long-term liabilities to foreigners reported by banks in the United States. The data exclude the holdings of dollars of the International Monetary Fund derived from payments of the United States subscription and from the exchange transactions and other operations of the Fund. (Liabilities representing the "gold investment" of the Fund, however, are included.) The data also exclude U.S. Treasury letters of credit, and nonnegotiable, noninterest-bearing special notes of the United States held by international and regional organizations.

Section II presents the short-term and long-term claims on foreigners reported by banks in the United States, including claims held for their own account and for the account of their domestic customers. The data exclude convertible foreign currencies held by U.S. monetary authorities.

Sections III and IV show respectively the liabilities
ro, and claims on, foreigners reported by exporters, importers, industrial and comercial firms,financial institutions other than banks and brokers, and other nonbanking concerns in the United States. The data exclude the intercompany accounts of business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies. (Such transactions are reported by business firms to the Department of Commerce on its direct investment forms.) The data also exclude claims held through United States banks. Separate figures are shown in Section IV for the short-term liquid claims of large nonbanking concerns in the United States.

Section $V$ contains data on transactions in all types of long-term domestic and foreign securities by foreigners reported by banks and brokers in the United States (except nonmarketable U.S. Treasury notes, foreign series, and nonmarketable U.S. Treasury bonds and notes, foreign currency series, which are shown in "International Financial Statistics" section, Table IFS-4). The data cover new issues of securities, transactions in outstanding issues, and redemptions of securities. They include transactions executed in the United States for the account of foreigners, and transactions executed abroad for the account of reporting institutions and their domestic customers. The data include some transactions which are classified as direct investments in the balance of payments accounts. The data exclude securities issued abroad by foreign subsidiaries of U.S. corporations, some of which are treated in the balance of payments as issues of U.S. corporations.

The geographical breakdown of the data on securities transactions shows the country of domicile of the foreign buyers and-sellers of the"securities; in the case of outstending issues, this may differ from the country of the original issuer. The gross figures contain some offsetting transactions between foreigners. The net figures for total transactions represent transactions by foreigners with United States residents; but the net figures for transactions of individual countries and areas may include some transactions between foreigners of different countries. Beginning with date for 1969, transactions between foreigners in new issues not offered for sele to United States residents but managed by underwriters in the United States are excluded from the gross figures.

Section VI comprises two tables on the money credit and debit balances, as appearing on the books of reporting brokers and dealers in the United States, in accounts of foreigners with them, and in their accounts carried by foreigners.

The data published in these sections do not cover all types of reported capital movements between the United States and foreign countries. The principal exclusions are the intercompany capital transactions of business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies, and capital transactions of the United States Government. Consolidated data on all types of capital transactions are published by the Department of Commerce in its regular reports on the United States balance of payments.
