ANNOUNCEMENT

Publication of the Treasury Bulletin will switch from monthly to quarterly following the release of the November 1982 issue. The inaugural quarterly issue, which for most data series will cover the first quarter of fiscal 1983, will be published in February 1983. Thereafter, the Bulletin will be published in May, August, and November, or the second month of every quarter.

A change in emphasis as well as frequency will be reflected in the quarterly Treasury Bulletin. A new, streamlined look will characterize the Bulletin, in which summary-level information is stressed and excess detail and duplicate information are eliminated from the statistical tables. This change will more closely approximate the original purpose of the Bulletin to provide information in a compact and usable form.

"Obligations" are the basis on which the use of funds is controlled in the Federal Government. They are recorded at the point at which the Government makes a firm commitment to acquire goods or services and are the first of the four key events--order, delivery, payment, and con-sumption-which characterize the acquisition and use of resources. In general, they consist of orders placed, contracts awarded, services received, and similar transactions requiring the disbursement of money.

The obligational stage of Government transactions is a ctrategic point in gaugiog the impact of the Government's operations on the national economy, since it frequently represents for business firms the Government commitment which stimulates business investment, including inventory purchases and employment of labor. Disbursements may not occur for months after the Government places its order, but the order itself usually causes immediate pressure on the private economy.

Obligations are classified according to a uniform set of categories based upon the nature of the transaction without regard to its ultimate purpose. All payments for salarles and wages, for example, are reported as personnel compensation, whether the personal services are used io current operations or in the construction of caplral frems.

Federal agencies often do buslness with one another; in doing ao, the "buying" agency records obligations, and the "performing" agency records reimbursemente. In Table FO-1, obligations Incurred within the Goverament are distinguished from those incurred outside the Government. Table fo-2 shows only those incurred outside.

Obligation data for the administrative budget fund accounts were first published in the September 1967 Treasury Bulletin, and the trust fund accounts were first published in the October 1967 Bulletin. Beginning with the April 1968 Bulletin, the data are on the basis of the budget concepts adopted pursuant to the recommendations of the President's Comission on Budget Concepts.

The opersting cash of the Treasury is maintalned in Treasury e account a with the Federal Reserve banks and branches and in tax and loan accounts. AB the balances in the accounts at the Federal Reserve banka become depleted, they are restored by calling in (withdrawing) funds from thousands of financial insticutfons throughout the country authorized to malntain tax and loan accounts.

Under authority of Public Law 95-147, the Treasury implemented a program on November 2. 1978, to invest a portion of its operating cash in obligations of depositaries maintaining tax and loan accounts. Under the Treasury tax and loan investment program, depositary financial institutions select the manner in which they will participate in the program. Depositaries that wish to retain funds deposited in their tax and loan ccounts in interest-bearing obligations participate under the Note Option; depositarles that wish to remit the funds to participate under the treasury's account at Federal Reserve banks participate under the Reraltiance Option.

Note: The computed annusl interest charge represents the amount of interest that would be paid if each interest-bearing issue outstanding at the end of each month or year should remain outstanding for a year at the applicable annual rate of interest.

The aggregate charge for all interest-besring issues constitutes the total computed annusi interest charge. The average snnual rate is computed by dividing the computed annual interest charge for the total or for any group of issues by the corresponding principal amount. The computation is based on the rate of effective yield for

1) This table presenta calculations of weighted average percentage changes in the rates of exchange between the dollar and certain foreign currencies, In order to provide a measure of changes in the dollar's general foreign exchange value broader than a measure provided by any single exchange rate change. Calculations are provided for two sets of countries that account for a major share of U.S. foreign trade. U.S, bilateral trade patterns in 1972 are used as a convenlent, readily available proxy for the assignment of relative weights to individual exchange rate changes, though such weighta do not provide a full measure of individual currencies' relative importance in U.S. international tranaactions because they take no account of factors other than trade. The calculations do not purport to represent a guide to measuring the impact of exchange rate changes on U.S. international tranaactions.
Exchange rate data used in constructing the indicea reported here differ somewhat from those uned in earlier calculations to more accurately reflect end-of-period currency values.

The equations used are as follows:
Equation one is used co calculate a crade-welghted average of changes in the dollar cost of foreign currencies:

Where: $E_{p}$ is the weighted average of percentage changes in the dollar cost of Individual foreign currencies;
$\Delta $ / \mathrm{fc}_{1}$ is the percent change in the dollar cost of foreign currency 1 ; and
$M_{1} /$ LM in U.S. imports from country i, as a proportion of total U.S. imports from all countries in the set.

Equation two is used to calculate a trade-welghted average of changea in the foreign exchange cost of dollars:

Where: $E_{x}$ is che weighted average of percentage changes in the foreign currency cost of dollars; $\Delta \mathrm{f}_{\mathrm{i}} / \mathrm{s}$ is the percent change in the foreign currency i cost of dollars; and $X_{i} / \Sigma \mathrm{X}$ is U.S. exports to country 1 , as a proportion of total U.S. exports to all countries in the set.
Equation three combines the above export-weighted and import-welghted averages to provide an overall measure of exchange rate change:
(EQ3) $E=\left[\left(E_{m} * m / m+x\right) *(-1)\right]+\left[E_{x} * x / m+x\right]$
Where: m/motx is U.S. imports as a proportion of its total trade with all countries in the set; and $x / \pi+x$ is U.S. exports as a proportion of its total trade with all countries in the set.

2/ Australia, Austria, Belgium-Luxembourg, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, and United Kingdom.
3/ The currencies of 46 IMF member countries which account for approximately 90 percent of U.S. total trade.

Background

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected since 1935 under Treasury regulations pursuant to Executive Orders Nos. 6560 of January 15. 1934. and 10033 of February 8, 1949, and the Internathonal Investment Survey Act of 1976. Reports are filed with Federal Reserve banks by bank. bank hoiding companies, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking enterprises in the United States. Statistics on the principal typer of data by country or geographical area are then consolldated and are published in the monthly Treasury gulletin.

The reporting forms and instructions I/ used in the Treasury International Capital (TIC) Reporting System have been revised a number of times to meet changing conditions and to increase the usefurness of an ongoing effort to ensure the adequacy of the Treasury capital movements statistics for anslysis and policy formulation the international Einanctal position of the United States and on movements of capital between the Uaited States and forefen councries Revised forms and lnstructions are developed with the cooperation of other Government agenctes and the Federal Reserve System and in consultations with represeatatives of banks, securities firms, and nonbanking enterprises.

Major revistons of the TIC 8-series forms, filed by banks and some brokers in the United States, became effective with reports as of April 30, 1978; new data series were Introduced in the July 1978 Treasury Bulletin. Also, effective March 1981, reporting coverage of the Bserles forms was enlarged to include holdings by brokers and dealers of certain types of short-term money market instruments. Substantial revisions of the $C$-series forms, filed by nonbanking enterprises, were revisions of the c-series porms, ,iled by nonbanking enterprises, were effective with reports as of Oecerber 31, 1978; the new data serles are shown beginning with the June 1979 issue. Revisions of the TIC Eorms that affect the format and coverage of the current Capital Movements tables are noted under "Bescription of Statistics" below.

Basic Definitions

Abstract

The term "foreigner" as used in the Treasury reports covers all institutians and individuals domiciled outside the Unlced states. including U.S. cicizens domiclled abroad, and the foreign branches, subsidiaries, and offices of U.S. banks and business concerns; the central governments, central banks, and other offlctal institutions of forelgn countries, wherever located, and international and regional arganizations, wherever locared. The rem "foreigner" also includes persons 10 the United States to the extent that they are known by reporting institutions to be acting on behalf of foreigners.

In general, data are reported oppasite the foreign country or records of reporting institutians. For a number of reasons, the geographical breakdown of the reported data may not in all cases reflect the ultimate ownership of the assets. Reporting institutions are not expected to go beyond the addresses shown on their records, and so may not be aware of the country of damicile of the ultimate beneficiary. Furthermore, U.S. liabilities arising from deposits of dollars with foreign banks are reported generally in the Treasury statistics as liabilities to forelgn banks, whereas the liability of the Eoreign bank recelving the deposit may residents of another country
Data pertaining to branches or agencies of foreign official institution belongs. Data pertaining to international and regional institution belongs. ations are reported opposite the appropriace international or regional classification except for the Bank for International Settlements which is included in the classificarion "Other Eurape."

Ceographical Classification

A number of changes in geagraphical classificarion were introduced for most Capital Movements tables in the July 1978 1ssue. Several countries formerly included in "Eastern Europe" and "Other Latin American Republics" are now shown separately in the country list as well "Miodle Eastern Regional" in view of the prollferation of regional financial organizationa in that area, primarily in the Arab States. The remaining countries in the categories "Other Eastern Europe" and "Other Western Europe" were combined into a single "Orher Europe" category; and the heading "Larin America" was retitled "Latin America and Caribbean." To the extent possible, the statistica for earliet dates have been adjusted in accordance with these revised geographical categories.

Beporting Coverage

Reports are required from banks, bank holding companies, International Banking Facillties (IBF"s), securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking enterprises in the United States, including the branches, agencles, subsidiarles, and other affillates in the united States of foreign firms. Entities that have reportable liabllities, clalms, or securities transactions below specifted exemption levels are exempt fram reporting.

Sanks and some brokers and dealers flle reports monthly covering cheir dollar liabillties $t o$, and dollar clalms on, forelgnera in a number of countries. Twice a year, as of June 30 and Oecember 31. they also report the same liabilitles and clalms items with respect to foreigners in countries not shown separately oo the monthly reporta. Beginning with reports due as of June 30. 1978, quarterly reparts are filed with respect to llabilities and claims denominated in foreign currencies vis-avis forefgners. Effective January 31, 1982, the specifled exemption level applicable to the monthly and quarterly banking reparts is $$ 10$ million and is based on the average for the repart dates during a six-manth period, including the current report date. There is no eeparate exemption level tor the seatannual reporta.
Banks, securicies broker, and deelers, and in mose tnatances aanbanking enterpriaen report monthly their eranaactiona in securicies With forelgnera; the applicable exemplion level $10 $ 500.000$ on the grand total of purchacea and on the grand tocal of alea durting the sonth

Quarterly reports are flled by exporters, importers, faduscrial and comercial concerns, financial inetitutiona other than banka and brokers, and other nonbanking enterperteea if thesp liabllictem to, or claims on, unafflliated forelgners exceed a apectfied exemption level ou a two quarter-rnd average bala. Effective March 31, 1982. this exemption level was aet at $$ 10$ alllion, up from $$ 2$ allilon. degining December 31, 1978, these flrs also report for each sonch-end thelr U.S. dollar-denominated depoast and certiflcate of deposit clafna of $$ 1 r$ 1llian or wore on bank abroad

Deacription of Seatistics

Section I presente data on liablliclea to forelgnere reported by banka, brokers, and deslers in the United States. Beginning Aprit 1978. the following, ajor changes were made in the reporting coverage: atounts due to banks oun forelign offlces are reported separately; previoua distinction between short-teri and long-tern liablilcsea was elialnaced: a separation of the liabillcies of the reapondente theseselves from thelr custody liabllicles to forchgners; and foreign currency liablistlea are only avallable quarterly. Alao, beginaing Rprit 1978, the data on liabilitiea were made more emmplete by extending co aecurlties brokera and deslera the requirement za report certain of thes oum liabilietea and all of thelr custody liabllities ca forelgners.

Section it presenta the clatas on forelgnera reported by banka in the United States. Beginning with daca reported as of the end of April 1978, a distinction wns made between banky clatns held for thetr ourn account and clafas held for their domestic customera. The forser are avallable in a monchly series whereas the later data are collected on quarterly basia only. Also, the diatinction in reporting of long-tera and ahort-term eomponents of benka clalas usa diacontinued. Moturity data began to be callected quarterly on a thae reminling co maturley basis as opposed co the historic original maturicy classffication. Forelgo currency claims are also collected only on quarcerly basla. Seginning March 1982, thia claima coverage was extended to certoln iteas in the hands of brokers and dealers in the United States.

Another important change in the claims reporting, beginaing with new quarterly data as of June 30,1978 , was the adoption of broadened concept of "foreign public barrower," thich replaced the previous eategory of "foreign offictal insticution" to produce eore eeningfu! infarmation an lending to the public sector of forelgn countries. The term "foreign publlc borrower" encomasaes central governmente and departments of central governments of forelgn countriee and of their possessions; foreign central benks, cablllaselon funds, and exchange authortties; corporationa and other agenclea of central governaeaca, includfng development banks, developaent inatitutione and other agenclee which are majority-omed by the central governtent or lis departante: State, prowincial, and local governmenta of foreign countries and their departmente and agenctes; and any incernational or reglonal organizacion or subordinate or affiliated agency thereof, ereated by ereaty or convention between soverelgn ataces.

Section til includes supplementary acatiscica on U.S. banke liabillcles $t 0$, and clalas on, forelgners. The auppleaentary data oo bsnks' loans and credics to nonbank foreigners cosbine sele ced information from the TIC reports with data from the monchly Federal Reserve 2502 reports submitced for major Loretgn brancher of t. S. bank:. Other supplementary dath on U.S. banks dallar llabilities to and banks' own doliar clatms on, countries not regularly ereported separately are avallable semtannualiy In the April and October lasues of the Bulletin.

Section iv ahows the liabilities 20 , and claima on unaftilated forelgners by exporters, iaporters, induatrial and comercial concerns, financial inatitutions other than banks and brakers, ad other nonbanking enterprises in the Uniced Statea. The data exclude the intercompany accounta of nonbanking enterpriaen in the Cilted State enterprises to the Department of Comerce on lla direct inveataent farms.) The data also exclude clasae held through banka in the United States. Beginning with dats reported as of Decenber 31, ia7k, there ia collected on time-remaining basia inatead of the prior originat maturity basis. In addicton, the number of reporters increased somewhat late 1978.

Section $V$ contalns data on cranmactiona in all types of longeter doneatic and foreign aecupities by foreigners as reported by baras and brokers in the United Staten (except nonarketable U.S. Treanur) wied, fortign bertes; and nonearketehie W.S. Treasury mindandional Financia currency serien. Which are Table IFS-3). The data crover new lasued of securlefes, cransactiona to outstanding lesues, and redeapelona of securitics. They include crannen tions exncued in the nited Statee f the account of forelgnera, and eranmectiona executed abradit ther data include same cranascrsons which are classified as dirnct aventil 1 a che bola securlica eorporatlone.

The geographical breakdown of the data on securftiee tranaal thon show the councry of doalclle of the foretinn buvern and sellera f the securities; in the case of outstanding issues, this may differ from the country of the original issuer. The gross figures contain some offsetting transactions between foreigners. The net figures for total transactions represent transactions by foreigners with U.S. residents; but the net figures for cransactions of individual countries and areas may include some transactions between foreigners of different countries.

The data published in these sections do not cover all types of reported capital movements between the United States and foreign countries. The principal exclusions are the intercompany capital transactions of nonbanking business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies, and capital transactions of the U.S. Governuent. Consolidated data on all types of international capital transactions are published by the Department of Commerce in its regular reports on the U.S. balance of payments.

[^24]Background
Data have been collected since 1974 on the foreign currency positions of banks and nonbanking firms in the United States, and on those of foreign branches, majority-owned forelgn partnerships, and majority-owned forelgn subsidiarles of U.S. banks and nonbanking firms. Reports cover eight major forelgn exchange market currencies and U.S. dollara held abroad. Reporting has been required pursuant to title II of Public Law 93-110, an amendment to the Par Value Modification Act of September 21, 1973, and implementing Treasury regulations. Statistics on the positions have been published monthly since March 1977 beginning with data for December 1975.

The report forms and instructions used in the collection of bank data were revised effective with reports as of November 1, 1978, for the weekly reports, and as of October 31, 1978 (the last business day of the month), for the monthly reports. The most recent revision of the nonbank foreign currency forms (see below) became effective as of the last business day of September 1978. Among the changes on the forms, the Belgtan franc was deleted as a reporting currency.

The monthly tables for all eight major foreign currencles have been deleted from publication beginning with the May 1982 Treasury 8ulletin. All tables for the Italian lira and French franc were also deleted.

Common Definitions and Concepts

The term "United States" means the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, Midway Island, the Virgin Islands, and Wake Island. The term "foreign" means locations other than the "United States." The term "worldwide" is used to describe the sum of "United States" and "foreign" data.

Data for the United States include amounts reported by sole proprletorships, partnerships, and corporations in the United States fncluding the U.S. branches and subsidiaries of foreign nonbanking concerns, in the case of "nonbanking firms ${ }^{\circ}$ positions," and the agencies, branches, and subsidiaries located in the United States of foreign banks and banking institutions, in the case of the weekly and monthly "bank positions."

Data for "foreign branches" and "abroad" include amounts reported by the branches, majority-owned partnerships and majority-owned subsidiarles of U.S. banking and nonbanking concerns. In general, these data do not reflect the positions of foreign parents or foreign parents' subsidiaries located abroad except through intercompany accounts. The data include the foreign subsidiaries of a few foreign-owned U.S.-based corporations.

Assets, liabilities, and foreign exchange contract data are reported on the basis of time remaining to maturity as of the date of the report, regardless of the original maturity of the instrument involved. "Spot" means due for recelpt or delfvery within 2 business days from the date of the report. "Short-term" means maturing in 1 year or less from the date of the report.
"Majority-owned foreign partnerships" are those organized under the laws of a foreign country in which one or more nonbanking concerns or nonprofit institutions in the United States, directly or indirectly, own more than 50 percent profit interest. "Majority-owned foreign subsidiarles" are foreign corporations in which one or more nonbanking business concerns or nonprofit institutions located in the United States directly or indirectly own stock with more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, or more than 50 percent of the total value of all classes of stock.

Reporting Threshold

The exemption level applicable to banks and banking institutions is $$ 10$ million equivalent. The exemption level applicable to nonbanking business concerns and nonprofic institutions was $$ 1$ million equivalent on all nonbank forms from March 1975 through November 1976. It was raised to $$ 2$ million equivalent on the monthly reports of positions held in the United States from November 1976 through September 1978. The exemption level was raised to $$ 3$ million on foreign subsidiary positions on June 31, 1977, and for positions held in the United States on September 30, 1978.

Firms must report their entire foreign currency position in a specified forelgn currency if a specified U.S. dollar equivalent value is reached in any category of assets, liabilities, exchange contracts bought and sold, or the net position in the currency. In general, exemption levels are applied to the entire firm in the United States and separately to each foreign branch or subsidiary. In reports on thelr foreign branches, majority-owned foreign partnerships and majority-owned foreign subsidiaries, U.S. banks and nonbanks are required to report the U.S. dollar-denominated assets, liabilities, exchange contracts bought and sold, and net positions of those branches, partnerships, and subsidiaries with reportable positions in the specified foreign currencies.

Description of Statistics

Data collected on the Treasury forelgn currency forms are published in the Treasury Bulletin in seven sections. The first sectinn presents a summary of worldwide net positions in all of the currencies reported. Sections II through VI each present data on a specified foreign currency. Section VII presents the U.S. dollar positions of the forelgn branches and subsidiaries of U.S. firms which are required to report in one or more of the specified foreign currencies.
