

Statement by Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin on USTR Announcement on Tariffs

April 3, 2018

Washington – Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin issued the following statement on the announcement of tariffs on Chinese goods by the U.S. Trade Representative on:

“Ambassador Lighthizer’s announcement today regarding proposed tariffs on Chinese goods further supports our commitment to achieving free, fair, and reciprocal trade and to defend U.S. innovation from unfair practices. This is another example of President Trump’s commitment to American companies and workers to enable them to compete fairly around the world. We will continue to engage in discussions with China to address these issues of reciprocal trade.”
