

Statement by Secretary Mnuchin on Chairman Crapo Housing Finance Reform Outline

February 1, 2019

Washington – U.S. Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin released the following statement today in response to Chairman Crapo’s outline for housing finance reform:

“Protecting American taxpayers by ensuring the safety and stability of the United States housing finance system is a priority for the Treasury Department. The outline for housing reform legislation released by Chairman Crapo is a productive first step toward that goal, and I applaud him for his efforts.”
