

Statement by Secretary Mnuchin on the Confirmation of Mark Calabria as Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency

April 5, 2019

Washington - U.S. Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin issued the following statement today on Mark Calabria's confirmation as Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA):

"I applaud the Senate for voting to confirm Mark Calabria, an experienced economist. Mark will be an effective leader of the FHFA and a critical partner in carrying out President Trump's federal housing finance reform agenda, and I look forward to working closely with him.

"I would like to also thank Comptroller Joseph Otting, who has effectively served as Acting FHFA Director at such an important time for the Agency."
