

Statement by Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin on the Provision of Coronavirus Relief Fund Dollars to Native American Tribes

June 12, 2020

WASHINGTON – U.S. Secretary of the Treasury Steven T. Mnuchin today issued the following statement on the provision of Coronavirus Relief Fund dollars to Native American Tribes:

“We are pleased to be making payments of the bulk of the balances remaining for tribal governments in the Coronavirus Relief Fund,” said Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin. “These payments reaffirm our commitment to ensuring that tribal governments receive this much-needed economic relief, and are an important step towards defeating this virus and supporting our communities across the country.”
