

Readout from a Treasury Spokesperson on Secretary Mnuchin's Conference Call with the Finance Ministers of Australia, Canada, and the United Kingdom

October 29, 2020

WASHINGTON – On October 28, 2020, U.S. Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin participated in a conference call with the Finance Ministers of Australia, Canada and the United Kingdom to discuss policies to support business and employment in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. The call, hosted by Chancellor Rishi Sunak, is the latest in a series of regular calls among the Finance Ministers of the “Five Eyes” nations. The Ministers discussed various policy responses to support workers and businesses and collaborative efforts to promote a strong and sustained economic recovery.
