READOUT: Assistant Secretary Elizabeth Rosenberg's Travel to Australia

March 14, 2023

SYDNEY – From March 9-13, Assistant Secretary for Terrorist Financing and Financial Crimes Elizabeth Rosenberg traveled to Canberra and Sydney, Australia. While in Australia, she met with government officials, private sector representatives, and independent security experts to discuss regional security issues, developments in the digital assets ecosystem, and other illicit finance issues. Assistant Secretary Rosenberg expressed her appreciation for the strong U.S.- Australia partnership across these issues and welcomed the opportunity to continue working closely together by sharing information, best practices, and creative solutions to challenges that affect both countries.
