

READOUT: Assistant Secretary for International Finance Brent Neiman's Travel to Argentina

March 15, 2024

BUENOS AIRES - From March 13-15, Assistant Secretary for International Finance Brent Neiman visited Buenos Aires and met with senior members of President Milei's administration, including Minister of Economy Luis Caputo, Secretary of Finance Pablo Quirno, and Central Bank of the Argentine Republic President Santiago Bausili and Vice President Vladimir Werning. Assistant Secretary Neiman also met with private sector and labor representatives.

Assistant Secretary Neiman expressed Treasury's support for the Argentinian people and emphasized our longstanding economic ties. He welcomed efforts by the authorities to restore fiscal stability and to effect disinflation, while protecting the most vulnerable. He also welcomed ongoing engagement with international financial institutions.
