

READOUT: Secretary of the Treasury Janet L. Yellen's Meeting with Peking University School of Development Professors and Students

April 7, 2024

BEIJING – Secretary of the Treasury Janet L. Yellen today met with professors and students from the Peking University National School of Development. Secretary Yellen discussed China's economic outlook and exchanged views on U.S-China economic relations with university professors and students. Secretary Yellen also delivered remarks to graduate students, in which she shared her own experiences and career as an economist and emphasized the importance of deepening ties between the American and Chinese people.

###