The 1995 Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations Act included the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO) with the Office of Management and Budget. Previously, appropriations for ISOO were provided to the General Services Administration. For 1996, ISOO is separately included as an independent agency.

This Office assists the President in the discharge of budgetary, management, and other executive responsibilities.

OMB-wide offices.—Executive direction and coordination for all Office of Management and Budget activities is provided. This includes the Director's immediate office as well as staff support in the areas of Budget Review, Administration, Office of Communications, Legislative Reference, Legislative Affairs, Economic Policy, and General Counsel.

Budget instructions and procedures are developed, review of agency estimates is coordinated, budget data systems are maintained, agency financial management plans are reviewed, the budget document is prepared, and scorekeeping is accomplished.

National security and international affairs; General government and finance; Natural resources, energy, and science; Human resources; and Health/Personnel.—Agency programs, budget requests, and management activities are examined, appropriations are apportioned, proposed changes in agency functions are studied, and special studies aimed at establishing goals and objectives that would result in long- and short-range improvements in the agencies' financial, administrative, and operational management are conducted.

Financial management.—Policy guidance for implementing financial statements, financial systems, credit and cash management, and internal controls is provided to agencies; evaluation of agency performance and progress is carried out; and a Government-wide long term financial management plan is prepared.

Information and regulatory affairs.—Agency proposals to implement or revise Federal regulations and information collection requirements are reviewed and coordinated. Information resources management and statistical policies and practices are analyzed and developed.

Procurement policy.—The Office of Federal Procurement Policy is responsible for promoting economy, efficiency, and effectiveness in the procurement of property and services by and for the Executive branch.
