CHAPTER VI.—DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Salaries, Department of Justice—

Salaries: For Attorney General, $15,000; Solicitor General, [$10,000] $12,000; Assistant to the Attorney General, [$9,000] $10,000; six Assistant Attorneys General, at $10,000 each; and other personal services in the District of Columbia, including the Solicitors of the State, Treasury, Commerce, and Labor Departments, and the office forces of the Solicitors of the Treasury, Commerce, and Labor Departments, [$1,194,300] $1,128,060; in all, [$1,228,300] $1,225,060: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations, contained in this act, for the payment for personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., [pp. 65-71, secs. 661-673, 45 Stat., pp. 776-785] title 5, secs. 661-673; U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673), the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, as amended, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade, but not more often than once in any fiscal year, and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law. When specifically approved by the head of any of the executive departments provided for herein, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, institution, or service, in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget (U. S. C., title 5, secs. 3, 293, 294; U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, secs. 295, 297, 673-678; act Jan. 25, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1107)

CHAPTER VII.—DEPARTMENT OF LABOR OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY Salaries, Office of Secretary of Labor— Salaries: Secretary of Labor, $15,000; Assistant Secretary, $10,000; Second Assistant Secretary, $10,000; and other personal services in the District of Columbia, [$194,760,] $176,860; in all, [$209,760,] $211,860: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations, contained in this act, for the payment for personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended [(U. S. C., pp. 65-71, secs. 661-673, 45 Stat., pp. 776-785),] (U. S. C., title 5, secs. 661-673; U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673), the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, as amended, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade, but not more often than once in any fiscal year, and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law. When specifically approved by the head of any of the executive departments provided for herein, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, institution, or service, in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget (U. S. C., title 5, secs. 611-622; act Jan. 25, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1135) -----			$211, 860. 00	$209, 760. 00

OUT OF THE POSTAL REVENUES

The following sums are appropriated in conformity with the act of July 2, 1836 (U. S. C., [p. 49,] title 5, [sec.] secs. 380, [p. 1283, sec.] 786), for the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, [1930] 1931, namely:

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

OFFICE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL

Salaries, Office of the Postmaster General—

Postmaster General, $15,000; for personal services in the office of the Postmaster General in the District of Columbia, [$209,490] $217,990; in all, [$224,490] $232,990: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations contained in this act for the payment of personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., [pp. 65-71,] title 5, secs. 661-673; [45 Stat., pp. 776-785] U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673), the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, as amended, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade, but not more often than once in any fiscal year, and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed, as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law (U. S. C., title 5, sec. 361; U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673; act Dec. 20, 1928, vol. 45, p. 1049)

Deficiency in the Postal Revenues—
If the revenues of the Post Office Department shall be insufficient to meet the appropriations made under Title II of this act, a sum equal to such deficiency in the revenues of such department is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to supply such deficiency in the revenues of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, [1930] 1931, and the sum needed may be advanced to the Post Office Department upon requisition of the Postmaster General.
Sec. 2. Appropriations for the fiscal year [1930] 1931 available for expenses of travel of civilian officers and employees of the executive departments and establishments shall be available also for expenses of travel performed by them on transfer from one official station to another when authorized by the head of the department or establishment concerned in the order directing such transfer: Provided , That such expenses shall not be allowed for any transfer effected for the convenience of any officer or employee.
Sec. 3. Expenditures from appropriations made herein for the maintenance, upkeep, and repair, exclusive of garage rent, pay of operator, fuel and lubricants, on any one passenger-carrying vehicle used by the Treasury or Post Office Departments shall not exceed one-third of the market price of a new vehicle of the same make or class and in any case more than $500.
Sec. 4. When specifically approved by the Postmaster General, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, institution, or service, in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget.

Salaries: For Secretary of State, $15,000; Undersecretary of State, [$10,000;] $12,000; four Assistant Secretaries of State, at $10,000 each, and other personal services in the District of Columbia, including temporary employees, and not to exceed $5,500 for employees engaged on piecework at rates to be fixed by the Secretary of State, [$1,315,000] $1,787,765; in all, [$1,340,000] $1,854,765: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations, contained in this act, for the payment for personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., [pp. 65-71,] title 5, secs. 661-673; [45 Stat., pp. 776-785] U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673), the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, as amended, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade, but not more often than once in any fiscal year, and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law.

When specifically approved by the head of any of the executive departments provided for herein, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, institution, or service, in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget (U. S. C., title 5, secs. 3, 661-673; U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673; act Jan. 25, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1095)

Cumulative Sinking Fund— SEC. 6. (a) That there is hereby created in the Treasury a cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of bonds and notes issued under the first Liberty bond act, the second Liberty bond act, the third Liberty bond act, the fourth Liberty bond act, or under this act, and outstanding on July 1, 1920. The sinking fund and all additions thereto are hereby appropriated for the payment of such bonds and notes at maturity, or for the redemption or purchase thereof before maturity by the Secretary of the Treasury at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe, and shall be available until all such bonds and notes are retired. The average cost of the bonds and notes purchased shall not exceed par and accrued interest. Bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1920, and for each fiscal year thereafter, until all such bonds and notes are retired, there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of such sinking fund, an amount equal to the sum of (1) 2½ per cent of the aggregate amount of such bonds and notes outstanding on July 1, 1920, less an amount equal to the par amount of any obligations of foreign governments held by the United States on July 1, 1920, and (2) the interest which would have been payable during the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made on the bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund during such year or in previous years. That subdivision (a) of section 6 of the Victory Liberty loan act is amended by inserting before the period at the end of the first sentence a comma and the following words: "and of bonds and notes thereafter issued, under any of such acts or under any of such acts as amended, for refunding purposes" (U. S. C., title 31, sec. 767)-----	395, 624, 000. 00	¹ 382, 720, 000. 00

SEC. 2. Appropriations for the fiscal year [1930] 1931 available for expenses of travel of civilian officers and employees of the executive departments and establishments shall be available also for expenses of travel performed by them on transfer from one official station to another when authorized by the head of the department or establishment concerned in the order directing such transfer: Provided , That such expenses shall not be allowed for any transfer effected for the convenience of any officer or employee.
SEC. 3. Expenditures from appropriations made herein for the maintenance, upkeep, and repair, exclusive of garage rent, pay of operator, fuel and lubricants, on any one passenger-carrying vehicle used by the Treasury or Post Office Departments shall not exceed one-third of the market price of a new vehicle of the same make or class and in any case more than $500.
SEC. 4. When specifically approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, institution, or service, in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget.

Salaries, Militia Bureau— Militia Bureau, War Department (act Feb. 28, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1350) -----				149, 164. 00	145, 000. 00
In all, salaries, War Department [$4,689,641] $4,789,696. In expending appropriations or portions of appropriations contained in this act for the payment for personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended (U. S. C., [pp. 65-71,] title 5, secs. 661-673; [45 Stat., pp. 776-785] U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 675), the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, as amended, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade but not more often than once in any fiscal year and then only to the next higher rate: Provided , That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law. When specifically approved by the Secretary of War, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, corps, or branch, in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget (act Feb. 28, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1350).

C., [p. 219,] title 10, sec. 1339; [p. 1302,] title 40, [sec.] secs. 259, [; p. 1303, sec.] 267), including also the engagement, by contract or otherwise, of the services of architects, or firms, or partnerships thereof, and other technical and professional personnel as may be deemed necessary without regard to civil-service requirements and restrictions of law governing the employment and compensation of employees of the United States, [$14,441,950] $16,062,860, of which not to exceed [$4,800,000] $3,000,000 shall be available for the payment of obligations incurred under the contract authorizations for these purposes carried in the War Department appropriation act for the fiscal year [1929] 1930 [and in the second deficiency act, fiscal year 1928] and of which the sum of $230,400 shall be immediately available for the construction of a sea wall at Selfridge Field, Michigan: Provided, That of the amount herein appropriated, [$4,800,000] $2,000,000 shall be payable from the military post construction fund created by section 4 of the act approved March 12, 1926 (U. S. C., [p. 1913,] title 10, sec. 1597), and [$9,641,950] $14,062,860 shall be payable out of the general fund of the Treasury: Provided further, That the Secretary of War is authorized to enter into contracts for the purposes specified in [the said act of May 26, 1928] the foregoing acts, to an amount not to exceed $3,000,000, in addition to the appropriation herein made. Provided further, That the Quartermaster General is hereby exempted from all laws and regulations relative to employment and to granting leaves of absence to employees with pay while employed on construction work at the Military Academy: Provided further, That the funds appropriated for construction at the United States Military Academy may be expended without advertising when in the opinion of the Quartermaster General it is more economical and advantageous to the Government to dispense with advertising (U. S. C., title 10, secs. 1339, 1597; title 40, secs. 259, 267; acts Mar. 3, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1390; Feb. 18, 1928, vol. 45, p. 129; Mar. 10, 1928, vol. 45, p. 300; May 26, 1928, vol. 45, p. 748; Feb. 23, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1258; Feb. 25, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1301; Feb. 28, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1358; Mar. 1, 1929, vol. 45, p. 1425)
