Enforcement of the Standard Container, Hamper, and Produce Agency Acts—

To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry into effect the act entitled "An act to fix standards for Climax baskets for grapes and other fruits and vegetables, and to fix standards for baskets and other containers for small fruits, berries, and vegetables, and for other purposes," approved August 31, 1916 (U. S. C., title 15, secs. 251–256), the act entitled "An act to fix standards for hampers, round stave baskets, and splint baskets for fruits and vegetables, and for other purposes," approved May 21, 1928 (U. S. C., Supp. III, title 15, secs, 257–257i), and the act entitled "An act to prevent the destruction or dumping, without good and sufficient cause therefor, of farm produce received in interstate commerce by commission merchants and others and to require them truly and correctly to account for all farm produce received by them," approved March 3, 1927 (U. S. C., Supp. III, title 7, secs. 491–497), including the purchase of such perishable farm products as may be necessary for detection of violations of the latter act: Provided, That all receipts from the sale of such products shall be credited to this appropriation, and shall be reexpendable therefrom, and including the employment of such persons and means as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem necessary in the city of Washington and elsewhere (*U. MISCELLANEOUS

Work for Other Departments—

During the fiscal year [1931] 1932 the head of any department or independent establishment of the Government requiring inspections, analyses, and tests of food and other products, within the scope of the functions of the Department of Agriculture and which that department is unable to perform within the limits of its appropriations, may, with the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, transfer to the Department of Agriculture for direct expenditure such sums as may be necessary for the performance of such work (act May 27, 1930, vol. 46, p. 424).

Experiments and Demonstrations in Livestock Production—

To enable the Secretary of Agriculture, in cooperation with the authorities of the States concerned, or with individuals, to make such investigations and demonstrations as may be necessary in connection with the development of livestock production in the cane-sugar and cotton districts of the United States (acts June 30, 1914, vol. 38, p. 441; May 27, 1930, vol. 46, p. 424),

Plant Industry	Motor propelled	Cotton production and diseases.	1	Automobile	$600				$600	$200	Transporting workers between United States cotton-breeding field station, Greenville, Tex., and points where work is conducted.	Official in charge and assistants.
Do	do	do	1	do	700				700	200	Transporting workers between United States cotton-field station, Shafter, Calif., and points where work is conducted.	Do.
Do	do	do	1	do	700				700	200	Transporting workers between United States San Diego acclimatization garden, San Diego (Torrey Pines), Calif., and points where work is being conducted.	Do.
Do	do	Cereal crops and diseases.	1	do	650				650	400	For use in Pacific Northwest, States of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Utah, in connection with the coordination activities incident to the cooperative wheat-improvement program in the area.	Assistant agronomist; railroad connections for cross-country travel in this region are so unsatisfactory that too large a proportion of the time of the man to be assigned to coordinate activities would be taken up in getting from place to place without a car. The car will have additional usefulness in covering the country more intimately, permitting a detailed study of crop and other conditions, and the carrying of material between stations.
Do	do	do	1	do	650				650	400	For use in Pacific Northwest area, in connection with the investigation of the wheat root rots.	Assistant pathologist; the localities where these diseases occur are situated at some distance from any desirable central location for the headquartering of the investigator assigned to this study.
Do	do	do	1	do	700				700	400	For use in connection with cooperative corn disease investigations at Bloomington, Ill.	Senior agronomist and assistant; the field plots where these studies are carried on at Bloomington are situated some 8 miles from town, where laboratory headquarters are maintained, also field studies are carried on at a number of fertility fields of the Illinois Experiment Station.
Do	do	Barberry eradication.	6	Coaches	3,300				3,300	2,400	For use in carrying on the work of barberry eradication during the field season; also in educational work with rural schools in the winter, when both our men and the materials used need protection from the weather which is not afforded by trucks; also for transportation of Government officials, farmers, business men, and others with whom we are cooperating, to show them demonstrations and to confer in connection with the planning of work. In many instances it is necessary for more than 2 such people to travel together, and the trucks are quite unsuitable.	Agents in charge of field offices in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Minnesota, district No. 1 (North Dakota, Montana and northern Wyoming), and district No. 2 (South Dakota and eastern Nebraska.)

Allowance for Quarters, Foreign Commerce Service—

[To enable the Secretary of Commerce, under such regulations as he may prescribe, in accordance with the provisions of the act approved April 12, 1930, amending an act entitled "An act to establish in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Department of Commerce, a Foreign Commerce Service of the United States, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1927, to furnish the officers in the Foreign Commerce Service of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce stationed in a foreign country, without cost to them and within the limits of this appropriation, allowances for living quarters, heat, and light, notwithstanding the provisions of section 1765 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 5, sec. 70)] (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 193),

For allowances for living quarters, including heat, fuel, and light, as authorized by the act approved June 26, 1930 (46 Stat., p. 818),

Estimate, 1932, $220,000 Appropriated, 1931, $200,000

0140 Allowance for living quarters, heat, and light: Expenditures—1932, $220,000; 1931, $200,000.

Employees of the bureau may be paid in lieu of all transportation expenses not to exceed 7 cents per mile for the use of their own automobiles when used for necessary travel on official business.

Appropriations herein made for the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce shall be available for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with the promotion of foreign and domestic commerce, or either, and also expenses of illustrating the work of the bureau by showing of maps, charts, and graphs at such meetings, when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce.

The purchase of supplies and equipment or the procurement of services for the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, in foreign countries, may be made in open market without compliance with section 3709 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (U. S. C., title 41, sec. 5), in the manner common among business men, when the aggregate amount of the purchase or the service does not exceed $100 in any instance.

Total, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, [[1] $4,886,660] $5,401,400, of which amount not to exceed [$1,916,015] $2,103,760 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia.

During the fiscal year [1931] 1932 the head of any department or independent establishment of the Government having funds available for scientific investigations and requiring cooperative work by the Bureau of Standards on scientific investigations within the scope of the functions of that bureau, and which the Bureau of Standards is unable to perform within the limits of its appropriations, may, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, transfer to the Bureau of Standards such sums as may be necessary to carry on such investigations. The Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer on the books of the Treasury Department any sums which may be authorized hereunder, and such amounts shall be placed to the credit of the Bureau of Standards for the performance of work for the department or establishment from which the transfer is made, including, where necessary, compensation for personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 203).

Appropriations herein made for the Bureau of Standards shall be available for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with standardization and research, or either, when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, and for the compensation and expenses of medical officers of the Public Health Service detailed to the Bureau of Standards for the purpose of maintaining a first-aid station and making clinical observations (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 203).

Total, Bureau of Standards, [$2,735,671] $2,889,270, of which amount not to exceed [$2,156,550] $2,263,950 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia.

NOTE.—Exclusive of $750,000 in second deficiency act, 1930.

expended in the same manner as sums appropriated herein may be expended (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 214).

The purchase of supplies and equipment or the procurement of services for the Bureau of Mines, at the seat of government, as well as in the field outside of the District of Columbia, may be made in open market without compliance with section 3709 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in the manner common among business men, when the aggregate amount of the purchase or the service does not exceed $100 in any instance (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 214).

For the purchase or exchange of professional and scientific books, law books, and books to complete broken sets, periodicals, directories, and other books of reference relating to the business of the Bureau of Mines, there is hereby made available from any appropriations made for such bureau not to exceed $3,500 (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 214).

For necessary traveling expenses of the director and employees of the bureau, acting under his direction, for attendance upon meetings of technical, professional, and scientific societies, when required in connection with the authorized work of the Bureau of Mines and incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, there is hereby made available from any appropriations made to the Bureau of Mines not to exceed in all $3,000 (act Apr. 18, 1930, vol. 46, p. 214).

Total, Bureau of Mines, annual appropriations, general fund:

Estimate 1932, $2,314,385 Appropriated 1931, $2,549,480

When specifically approved by the [head of any of the executive departments provided for herein,] Secretary of Commerce, transfers may be made between the appropriations in this act under the respective jurisdiction of any bureau, office, institution, or service, [including any appropriations for the Foreign Service under the Department of State,] in order to meet increases in compensation resulting from the reallocation by the Personnel Classification Board of positions under any such organization unit. Any such transfers shall be reported to Congress in the annual Budget.

NOTE.—No transfers were made under the above provision of law during the fiscal year 1930.

Total, Department of Commerce, general and special funds:

Estimate 1932, $54,638,226 Appropriated 1931, $54,619,485

ESTIMATES OF APPROPRIATIONS REQUIRED FOR THE SERVICE OF THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1932

CHAPTER V.—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Salaries, Office of the Secretary of the Interior—

Secretary of the Interior, $15,000; First Assistant Secretary, Assistant Secretary, and other personal services in the District of Columbia, [$380,500] $370,320; in all, [$395,500] $385,320: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations, contained in this act, for the payment for personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended [(U. S. C., title 5, secs. 661–673, U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, sec. 673)], with the exception of the First Assistant Secretary and the Assistant Secretary the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, as amended, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade but not more often than once in any fiscal year and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed, as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law (U. S. C., title 5, secs. 481–496; act May 14, 1930, vol. 46, pp. 279–280; July 3, 1930, vol. 46, pp. 1003–1005).

Surveying the Public Lands—

Surveying public lands: For surveys and resurveys of public lands, examination of surveys heretofore made and reported to be defective or fraudulent, inspecting mineral deposits, coal fields, and timber districts, making fragmentary surveys, and such other surveys or examinations as may be required for identification of lands for purposes of evidence in any suit or proceeding in behalf of the United States, under the supervision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and direction of the Secretary of the Interior, [$700,000] $750,000, of which amount not to exceed $20,000 may be expended by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, for the purchase of metal or other equally durable monuments to be used for public-land survey corners wherever practicable: Provided, That not to exceed $5,000 of this appropriation may be expended for salaries of employees of the field surveying service temporarily detailed to the General Land Office: Provided further, That not to exceed $15,000 of this appropriation may be used for the survey, classification, and sale of the lands and timber of the so-called Oregon and California Railroad lands and the Coos Bay wagon-road lands: Provided further, That not to exceed $50,000 of this appropriation may be used for surveys and resurveys, under the rectangular system provided by law, of public lands deemed to be valuable for oil and oil shale: Provided further, That no part of this appropriation shall be available for surveys or resurveys of public lands in any State which, under the act of August 18, 1894 (U. S. C., title 43, sec. 863), advances money to the United States for such purposes for expenditure during the fiscal year [1931] 1932: Provided further, That this appropriation may be expended for surveys made under the supervision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, but when expended for surveys that would not otherwise be chargeable hereto it shall be reimbursed from the applicable appropriation, fund, or special deposit (U. S. C., title 43, sec. 54; act May 14, 1930, vol. 46, p. 282).

General Expenses, Geological Survey—

For every expenditure requisite for and incident to the authorized work of the Geological Survey, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, including not to exceed [$30,000] $40,000 for the purchase and exchange, and not to exceed $60,000 for the hire, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles for field use only by geologists, topographers, engineers, and land classifiers, and the Geological Survey is authorized to exchange unserviceable and worn-out passenger-carrying and freight-carrying vehicles as part payment for new freight-carrying vehicles, and whenever, during the fiscal year ending June 30, [1931] 1932, the Director of the Geological Survey shall find that the expense of travel can be reduced thereby, he may authorize the payment of not to exceed 3 cents per mile for a motor cycle or 7 cents per mile for an automobile used for official business, and including not to exceed $4,000 for necessary traveling expenses of the Director and members of the Geological Survey acting under his direction, for attendance upon meetings of technical, professional, and scientific societies when required in connection with the authorized work of the Geological Survey, to be expended under the regulations from time to time prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and under the following heads:

For topographic surveys in various portions of the United States, [$744,000] $790,000, of which amount not to exceed [$350,000] $360,000 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia: Provided, That no part of this appropriation shall be expended in cooperation with States or municipalities except upon the basis of the State or municipality bearing all of the expense incident thereto in excess of such an amount as is necessary for the Geological Survey to perform its share of standard topo-

During the fiscal year [1931] 1932 the head of any department or independent establishment of the Government having funds available for scientific and technical investigations and requiring cooperative work by the Geological Survey on scientific and technical investigations within the scope of the functions of that bureau and which it is unable to perform within the limits of its appropriations may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, transfer to the Geological Survey such sums as may be necessary to carry on such investigations. The Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer on the books of the Treasury Department any sums which may be authorized hereunder, and such amounts shall be placed to the credit of the Geological Survey for the performance of work for the department or establishment from which the transfer is made: Provided, That any sums transferred by any department or independent establishment of the Government to the Geological Survey for cooperative work in connection with this appropriation may be expended in the same manner as sums appropriated herein may be expended: And provided further, That any funds herein appropriated for the Geological Survey for cooperative work may be utilized prior to July 1, 1931, as required, to enable the Geological Survey to continue its cooperative work pending reimbursement from cooperative agencies, the amount so utilized to be repaid to the appropriation from which advanced;

During the fiscal year[s 1930 and 1931] 1932, upon the request of the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of War, or the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to furnish aerial photographs required for topographic mapping projects, in so far as the furnishing of such photographs will be economical to the Federal Government and does not conflict with military or naval operations or the other parts of the regular training program of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps flying services, and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to reimburse the War or Navy Department for the cost of making the photographs, such cost to be confined to the actual cost of gasoline, oil, film, paper, chemicals, and the labor performed in developing the photographic negatives and the printing of copies of photographs, and the per diem expenses of the personnel authorized by law, together with such incidental expenses as care and minor repairs to plane and transportation of personnel to and from projects, and the War Department or the Navy Department, on the request of the Department of the Interior, is authorized to furnish copies to any State, county, or municipal agency cooperating with the Federal Government in the mapping project for which the photographs were taken. In the event that the Director of the Geological Survey deems it advantageous to the Government, the Geological Survey is authorized to contract with civilian aerial photographic concerns for the furnishing of such photographs;

Appropriations herein made shall be available for payment of the costs of packing, crating, and transportation (including drayage) of personal effects of employees upon permanent change of station, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior;

Total under United States Geological Survey, annual appropriations, general fund:

Estimate 1932, $3,113,320 Appropriated 1931, $2,814,800

Salaries and Expenses, Bureau of Prohibition—

For expenses to enforce and administer the applicable provisions of the National Prohibition Act, as amended, and supplemented (U. S. C., title 27), and internal revenue laws, pursuant to the act of March 3, 1927 (U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, secs. 281–281e), and the act of May 27, 1930 (46 Stat., p. 427), including the employment of executive officers, attorneys, agents, inspectors, investigators, supervisors, clerks, messengers, and other personnel, in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, to be appointed as authorized by law; the securing of evidence of violations of the acts; the cost of chemical analysis made by other than employees of the United States and expenses incident to the giving of testimony in relation thereto; the purchase of stationery, supplies, equipment, mechanical devices, books, and such other expenditures as may be necessary in the District of Columbia and the several field offices; costs incurred in the seizure, storage, and disposition of liquor and property seized under the National Prohibition Act, including seizures made under the internal revenue laws if a violation of the national prohibition act is involved and disposition is made under section 3460, Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 26, sec. 1193); costs incurred in the seizure, storage, and disposition of any vehicle and team or automobile, boat, air or water craft, or any other conveyance, seized pursuant to section 26, Title II, of the national prohibition act, when the proceeds of sale are insufficient therefor or where there is no sale; purchase of passenger-carrying motor vehicles at a total cost of not to exceed $50,000 and not to exceed $1,000 each, including the value of any vehicle exchanged, and the hire, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled or horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles; and for rental of quarters; in all, $11,530,680, of which amount not to exceed $343,520 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia: Provided, That not exceeding $50,000 may be expended for the collection and dissemination of information and appeal for law observance and law enforcement, including cost of printing, purchase of newspapers, and other expenses in connection therewith: Provided further, That when liquor or property is seized pursuant to the national prohibition act and stored in an adjacent judicial district the jurisdiction of the court over such property in the district wherein it was seized shall not be affected thereby (U. S. C., title 26, sec. 1193; U. S. C., title 27, sec. 43; U. S. C., Supp. III, title 5, secs. 281–281e; acts May 15, 1930, vol. 46, p. 342; May 27, 1930, vol. 46, p. 427).
