MESSAGE TRANSMITTING THE BUDGET

To the Congress of the United States:

I transmit herewith the Budget for the year ending June 30, 1935. It contains also estimates of receipts and expenditures for the current year ending June 30, 1934, and includes statements of the financial operations or status of all governmental agencies, including the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The estimates herein given and included in the Budget have to do with general and special funds—the Government's moneys. They do not relate to trust and contributed funds, which are not Government moneys, except where expressly referred to as such.

GENERAL FINANCIAL POSITION

In my annual message to the Congress I have already summarized the problems presented by the deflationary forces of the depression, the paralyzed condition which affected the banking system, business, agriculture, transportation, and, indeed, the whole orderly continuation of the Nation's social and economic system.

I have outlined the steps taken since last March for the resumption of normal activities and the restoration of the credit of the Government.

Of necessity these many measures have caused spending by the Government far in excess of the income of the Government.

The results of expenditures already made show themselves in concrete form in better prices for farm commodities, in renewed business activity, in increased employment, in reopening of and restored confidence in banks, and in well-organized relief.

THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR

(Ending June 30, 1934)

Exclusive of debt retirement of $488,171,500 for this year, Budget estimates of expenditures, including operating expenses of the regular Government establishments and also all expenditures which may be broadly classed as caused by the necessity for recovery from the depression will amount this year (ending June 30, 1934) to $9,403,006,967. (See Budget Statement No. 3, table A.)

This total falls in broad terms into the following classifications:

Expenditures for fiscal year ending June 30, 1934

General:

Departmental.....	$2, 899, 116, 200
Legislative.....	17, 718, 500
Independent establishments.....	616, 857, 067
	<hr/>
	3, 533, 691, 767
Less public debt retirements.....	488, 171, 500
	<hr/>
Total, general.....	3, 045, 520, 267

Emergency:

Public Works Administration.....	1, 677, 190, 800
Agricultural Adjustment Administration.....	103, 250, 000
Farm Credit Administration.....	40, 000, 000
Emergency Conservation Work.....	341, 705, 600
Reconstruction Finance Corporation.....	3, 969, 740, 300
Tennessee Valley Authority.....	19, 000, 000
Federal Land Banks.....	52, 350, 000
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.....	150, 000, 000
National Industrial Recovery Administration.....	4, 250, 000

Total, emergency.....	6, 357, 486, 700
-----------------------	------------------

Total, general and emergency, less public debt retirements.....	9, 403, 006, 967
---	------------------

As against these expenditures, which have either been appropriated for or for which appropriations are asked, the estimated receipts for this fiscal year (ending June 30, 1934) are $3,259,938,756. (See Budget Statement No. 2, table A.)

On this basis, including, however, certain additional expenditures for 1934 which are not included in the Budget estimates but which I believe to be necessary and amounting to $1,166,000,000 as shown in a subsequent table herein, the excess of expenditures over receipts will be $7,309,068,211. Interest charges on the borrowings in excess of Budget estimates will slightly increase this figure.

On the basis of these estimates, the public debt, in the strict sense of the term, at the expiration of this fiscal year will therefore amount to approximately $29,847,000,000, or an increase as shown above of $7,309,068,211.

However, as against this increase in the total debt figure, it is right to point out that the various governmental agencies have loans outstanding with a book value of $3,558,516,189 against which collateral or assets have been pledged.

In order to make clear to the Congress what our borrowing problem is for the next 6 months, permit me to remind you that we shall have to borrow approximately 6 billion dollars of new money and, in addition, 4 billion dollars to meet maturities of a like amount.

THE FISCAL YEAR 1935

(Ending June 30, 1935)

The Budget estimates of expenditures, exclusive of debt retirement of $525,763,800 and exclusive also of such sum as may be necessary for new and extraordinary recovery purposes, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935 amount to $3,960,798,700.

Again summarizing the main headings of these expenditures, they fall into the following items:

Expenditures for fiscal year ending June 30, 1935

General:

Departmental.....	$3, 202, 074, 900
Legislative.....	18, 734, 500
Independent establishments.....	542, 466, 600
	<hr/>
	3, 763, 276, 000
Less public-debt retirements.....	525, 763, 800
	<hr/>
Total, general.....	3, 237, 512, 200
	<hr/>

Emergency:

Public Works Administration.....	1, 089, 883, 100
Agricultural Adjustment Administration.....	5, 000, 000
Emergency conservation work.....	65, 190, 000
Reconstruction Finance Corporation.....	¹ 480, 436, 600
Tennessee Valley Authority.....	31, 000, 000
Federal land banks.....	12, 650, 000
	<hr/>
Total, emergency.....	723, 286, 500
	<hr/>

Total, general and emergency, less public-debt retirements.....	3, 960, 798, 700
---	------------------

It will be noted that many of these items such as public works fall under appropriations made in 1933, the actual expenditures not taking place until after June 30, 1934. (For details of above expenditures see Budget Statement No. 3, table A.)

The above figures do not include additional loans by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. If its loaning authority is extended beyond June 30, 1934, it is contemplated that any additional loans by it would thereafter be taken from the new and additional recovery fund hereinafter referred to.

The estimates of receipts for the next fiscal year (ending June 30, 1935) exclusive of foreign-debt payments, of increased liquor taxes and of increased revenue flowing from amendments to the existing revenue law, amount to $3,974,665,479. (See Budget Statement No. 2, table A.)

Therefore, exclusive of debt retirement, these Budget estimates for the next fiscal year show a small surplus of $13,866,779. But it must be borne in mind that this surplus does not include any additional expenditures for extraordinary recovery purposes.

It is clear that the necessity for relief and recovery will still be with us during the year 1934-35. Additional relief funds will be necessary. Further needs of the country prohibit the abrupt termination of the Recovery Program. No person can on this date definitely predict the total amount that will be needed, nor the itemizing of such an amount. It is my best judgment at this time that a total appropriation of not to exceed 2 billion dollars will, with the expenditures still to be made next year out of existing appropriations, be sufficient.

I shall therefore ask the Congress for appropriations approximating that amount.

This amount is not included in the Budget estimates. If appropriated and expended, therefore, it will change the small estimated surplus of 13 million dollars into a debt increase of nearly 2 billion dollars. It is only fair, of course, to say that such a debt increase would be partially offset by loans made against collateral and assets pledged.

Therefore, the total debt, if increased by the sum of 2 billion dollars during the fiscal year 1935, would amount to approximately $31,834,000,000 on June 30, 1935. It is my belief that so far as we can make estimates with our present knowledge, the Government should seek to hold the total debt within this amount. Furthermore, the Government during the balance of this calendar year should plan to bring its 1936 expenditures, including recovery and relief, within the revenues expected in the fiscal year 1936.

Let me put it another way: The excess of expenditures over receipts during this fiscal year amounts to over 7 billion dollars. My estimates for the coming fiscal year show an excess of expenditures over receipts of 2 billion dollars. We should plan to have a definitely balanced Budget for the third year of recovery and from that time on seek a continuing reduction of the national debt.

This excess of expenditures over revenues amounting to over 9 billion dollars during 2 fiscal years has been rendered necessary to bring the country to a sound condition after the unexampled crisis which we encountered last spring. It is a large amount, but the immeasurable benefits justify the cost.

The following table shows expenditures and receipts for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 as contained in the Budget, plus the additional expenditures which will be made out of additional authorizations and appropriations here recommended. It shows, also, the estimated increase in the public debt and the book value of assets held as security against loans:

	1934	1935	2-year period 1934-35
Receipts ¹	$3, 259, 938, 756	$3, 974, 665, 479	$7, 234, 604, 235

¹ These estimates of receipts are predicated on Federal Reserve Board average index of industrial production of 81 for fiscal year 1934 and of 98 for the fiscal year 1935:

	Calendar year average	Fiscal year average
1929	119	118
1930	96	110

1932	64	70
1933	^a 76	67
1934	^b 85	^b 81
1935		^b 98

² These include net expenditures after deducting Reconstruction Finance Corporation repayments in 1935 of $480,436,600.

³ This figure does not include contingent liabilities such as Reconstruction Finance Corporation debentures issued to banks and other institutions.

- Partially estimated.
- Estimated.

APPROPRIATIONS

The Budget estimates of appropriations for 1935, exclusive of Agricultural Adjustment Administration benefit payments and refunds of processing taxes, but inclusive of all other appropriations for regular departments and independent establishments including interest on the debt and debt retirement are $2,980,293,833.60. When compared with Budget estimates of appropriations transmitted in the Budget for 1934 they show a reduction of $684,913,167.

A tabular comparative summary of receipts, estimates, appropriations, and expenditures, classified according to general and emergency items and listed by departments and under other general heads, appears in Budget Statement No. 1, table B.

TAXES

The estimates of receipts take no account of the additional revenue which may be obtained from an increase in liquor taxes and from the proposed changes in the income-tax law. Since neither of these tax measures has come before Congress as yet, no accurate estimate can be made of their yield. However, if as proposed by the Committee of Ways and Means, the tax on distilled spirits is increased from $1.10 a gallon to $2 a gallon, and the rates of tax on wines are also increased, the estimated revenue would be increased by approximately $50,000,000, assuming that consumption is not affected by additional gallonage taxes imposed by the States. Considerable additional revenue can also be secured from administrative changes in the income-tax law, which may amount to as much as $150,000,000 for a full year.

The estimates for the Post Office Department are predicated upon a continuation of the 3-cent postal rate for nonlocal mail. It is highly important that this rate be continued. I recommend its continuance.

ECONOMY LEGISLATION

The estimates of appropriations submitted in the Budget are predicated on the continuation of certain economy legislative provisions which I ask to be enacted and which are appended hereto. The most important is that having to do with reduction of compensation of Federal employees. It is eminently fair that, the cost of living having fallen as compared with 1928, the employees of the Government sustain some reduction in compensation. This is not inconsistent with our policy of advocating an increase in wages in industry. For wages there had fallen far beyond any reduction contemplated for Federal employees and in most grades are even now substantially below compensation paid Federal employees under the maximum reduction of 15 percent.

Among the legislative provisions appended hereto is one prohibiting automatic increases in compensation except in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. The personnel of these three services are engaged in a life service to their country. Some, by reason of the pay freezes, have sustained reduction in compensation of more than 25 percent. They are, therefore, in a different category from those in other governmental agencies. They should, in 1935, be released from the restrictions on automatic increases in compensation.

CONTROL

Up to now there has been no coordinated control over emergency expenditures. Today, by Executive order, I have imposed that necessary control in the Bureau of the Budget.

Heretofore, emergency expenditures have not been subject to audit by the Comptroller General of the General Accounting Office. Today I am, by Executive order, reposing in him the authority to conduct such an audit and to continue to audit each such expenditure. Hereafter, therefore, just as in the departmental expenditures, there will be, in emergency expenditures, a pre-Budget and a post audit.

By reason of the fact that the Bureau of the Budget has had no control in the past over the various expenditures, obligations, and allotments made by the emergency organizations, the task of preparing the present Budget has been the most difficult one since the Budget and Accounting Act went into effect in 1921. These difficulties, in future years, will be substantially minimized by the control which I have established.

It is evident to me, as I am sure it is evident to you, that powerful forces for recovery exist. It is by laying a foundation of confidence in the present and faith in the future that the upturn which we have so far seen will become cumulative. The cornerstone of this foundation is the good credit of the Government.

It is, therefore, not strange nor is it academic that this credit has a profound effect upon the confidence so necessary to permit the new recovery to develop into maturity.

If we maintain the course I have outlined, we can confidently look forward to cumulative beneficial forces represented by increased volume of business, more general profit, greater employment, a diminution of relief expenditures, larger governmental receipts and repayments, and greater human happiness.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

JANUARY 3, 1934.

APPENDIX

TEXT OF LEGISLATION RECOMMENDED IN CONNECTION WITH THE BUDGET FOR 1935

TITLE —. ECONOMY PROVISIONS

COMPENSATION AND PENSION REDUCTIONS

SEC. —. (a) Title II of the act entitled “An act to maintain the credit of the United States Government”, approved March 20, 1933, is amended as follows:

(1) Section 2 is amended by inserting after “1934” the following: “and the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935”; and

(2) Section 3 (b) is amended by inserting before the period at the end thereof the following: “during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, and shall not exceed 10 per centum during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935.”

(b) Section 107 (except par. (5) of subsection (a) thereof and subsection (b) thereof) of part II of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933 (relating to certain special salary reductions); section 12 (relating to compensation reductions of officers and employees of insular possessions), section 13 (relating to the retired pay of certain judges), section 14 (relating to reduction in compensation benefits to certain civilian employees), and section 15 (relating to reductions in certain private pensions) of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1934; and section 18 (relating to pensions for military service prior to the Spanish-American War) of title I of such act of March 20, 1933, are hereby continued in full force and effect for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935, and for the purpose of continuing such sections with respect to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935, the figures “1933” shall be read as “1935” and the figures “1934” shall be read as “1935”; except that in the application of such sections 12, 13, and 18 with respect to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935 (but not with respect to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934), the percentage of reduction shall be the percentage applicable to officers and employees of the Federal Government generally.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of the antideficiency acts, deficiencies in their respective appropriations made during the second session of the Seventy-third Congress and available for obligation during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935, may be incurred during such fiscal year by any executive department or independent establishment and the municipal government of the District of Columbia, upon written order of the President specifying the amount of the deficiency which may be incurred, and by the legislative branch of the Government and the agencies customarily considered a part of such branch; but such deficiencies may be incurred only to the extent necessary to enable the payment to officers and employees of such activities of sums for which the available appropriation is inadequate by reason of a diminution in the percentage of reduction of compensation in pursuance of action of the President under the provisions of section 3 of title II of such act of March 20, 1933, as continued for the fiscal year 1935.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PERSONNEL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. —. Title II of the act entitled "An act to maintain the credit of the United States Government", approved March 20, 1933, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

"SEC. 10. (a) The following sections, as amended, of part II of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933, are hereby continued in full force and effect during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935: Sections 201 (suspending automatic increases in compensation), 203 (prohibiting filling of vacancies), 206 (except subsections (a) and (b) thereof) (reducing travel allowances), 214 (authorizing temporary assignments in the Postal Service), 315 (restricting transfer of noncivilian personnel), 317 (authorizing transfers of appropriations), and 323 (reducing jurors' and witnesses' fees).

"(b) The following sections of the Treasury-Post Office Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1934, are hereby continued in full force and effect during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935: Sections 7 (prohibiting administrative promotions) and 18 (suspending reenlistment allowances).

"(c) Section 9 (a) of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1934 (relating to rotative furlough), is hereby continued in full force and effect during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935.

"(d) For the purpose of continuing the sections enumerated in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section in the application of such sections with respect to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935: The figures '1933' shall be read as '1935'; the figures '1934' as '1935' (except in the case of the second proviso of such section 317); in the case of the first proviso of such section 317, the figures '1935' shall be read as '1937', the figures '1934' shall be read as '1936', and the figures '1933' shall be read as '1935'; and in the case of section 203, the figures '1932' shall be read as '1934'.

"(e) In the application of the sections enumerated in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section with respect to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935 (but not with respect to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934), the following amendment shall apply:

"(1) Section 201 (suspending automatic increases in compensation) of part II of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following: 'During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935, this section shall not apply to the commissioned and other personnel of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, and the amount to which the reduction of compensation under section 2 of title II of the act of March 20, 1933, shall be applied shall include increments of compensation which, under the provisions of law (without regard to economy laws), accrue during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935, and would have accrued during the period during which automatic increases in compensation were suspended. This amendatory provision shall not authorize the payment of back compensation, but the provisions of law suspending administrative promotions and prohibiting reallocation of positions shall not be held to prohibit the increases allowed hereunder.'

"(f) No part of the appropriations made during the second session of the Seventy-third Congress shall be used to pay any increase in the salary of any officer or employee of the United States Government by reason of the reallocation of the position of such officer or employee to a higher grade after June 30, 1932, by the Personnel Classification Board or the Civil Service Commission, and salaries paid accordingly shall be payment in full.

"(g) Each permanent specific annual appropriation available during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935, is hereby reduced for that fiscal year by such estimated amount as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may determine will be equivalent to the savings that will be effected in such appropriation by reason of the application of this title."

Annual appropriations:

UNITED STATES SENATE

There is a net decrease of $96,023.40 in the estimates of the United States Senate. The major decrease is in the item for expenses of inquiries and investigations, $94,455. Several small increases and decreases appear in the other individual estimates, which account for the further decrease of $1,568.40.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The net increase in the estimates for the House of Representatives amounts to $79,367. The principal increases are $43,750 for mileage of Members and Delegates and $91,500 in the contingent expense items. These are partially offset by reductions elsewhere in the estimates, the items for salaries of officers and employees showing a decrease of $19,968, and the item for clerk hire for Members and Delegates $36,665. Other small items of increase and decrease account for the total of the net increase.

ARCHITECT OF THE CAPITOL

There is a net decrease of $220,721 in the estimates for the Architect of the Capitol. They carry increases of $17,736 in the item for Capitol Buildings and repairs; $10,218 in the item for the maintenance of the House

Office Buildings and $27,807 for the Capitol power plant. For the Library of Congress Building they show an increase of $21,890 for maintenance, repairs, etc., and $28,965 in the item for the furniture and equipment of the Library. These increases total $106,616, to offset which there is a decrease of $325,000 in the nonrecurring item appropriated in 1934 for completing the addition to the Library of Congress Building. Taking into account other small items of increase and decrease, the estimates show the net reduction stated above.

BOTANIC GARDEN

The estimates for the Botanic Garden, which embrace its administration, maintenance, operation, repairs, and improvements, show an increase of $46,775. This is mainly in the estimate for the maintenance, operation, etc., which carries an increase of $46,275. The difference is accounted for by a small increase in the estimate for salaries.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The estimates under this heading, which are for the general administration of the Library of Congress and the incidental expenses thereof, show a net increase of $59,134. This is confined largely to the items for salaries, etc., which show an increase of $23,569 and to the item for "Increase of the Library", $30,000, which provides for the purchase of books, etc., and the miscellaneous expenses incident to their acquisition. Other small items of both increase and decrease go to make up the total of the net increase.

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

The estimate for the working capital for public printing and binding is $2,500,000 as compared with an appropriation of $1,750,000 for 1934, an increase of $750,000. Offsetting this are decreases of $20,388 and $10,800, respectively, in the estimates for salaries and general expenses, Office of the Superintendent of Documents. This shows a net increase in the 1935 estimates for the Government Printing Office of $718,812 over the appropriation for 1934. It should be noted, however, that the availability of funds under the 1935 estimates is $281,188 less than the availability under the appropriations for 1934. This arises from the fact that the 1934 direct appropriation of $1,750,000 for the working capital carried also an authority to use for that purpose $1,000,000 of the savings accruing under the provisions of the Economy Act.

A comparison of the amount estimated for expenses of the Executive Office and independent establishments, except the Veterans' Administration and the Farm Credit Administration, shows a net decrease of $3,304,551,863 below the total of authorized obligations for the fiscal year 1934, largely because of the appropriation of $3,300,000,000 in 1934 for the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, which is a nonrecurring item. This net decrease, however, involves an increase of $1,004,422 due to the restoration in the fiscal year 1935 of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation. The other principal increases and decreases are explained in the text as follows:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

The estimates for the Executive Office provide for the salaries of the President, the Vice President, and the President's office force, miscellaneous office expenses, printing and binding, traveling expenses, and supplies and materials.

The estimates for 1935 provide for increases of $700 for printing and binding and $5,000 for traveling expenses, and a decrease of $12,631 for miscellaneous expenses incident to maintenance of Executive Mansion and grounds.

BOARD OF MEDIATION

When a controversy coming within the provisions of the Railway Labor Act arises between a carrier and its employees one party or both may request the Board of Mediation to undertake an adjustment of the difficulty, or the Board may tender its services. Should the Board fail to bring about an adjustment through mediation, it becomes its duty to try to persuade carrier and employees to submit their differences to a board of arbitration. One member of such a board is selected by the interested employees, one by the carrier, and the third—a neutral member—by the two other members. In the event a board is not selected, the Board of Mediation may name two members, the third member to be selected in the same manner as a third member is selected for a board of arbitration. Should the dispute still remain unadjusted, and in the opinion of the Board of Mediation, threatens substantially to interrupt interstate commerce, it becomes the duty of the Board to notify the President of the situation, who may in his discretion create an "emergency board" to investigate and report to him the facts respecting the dispute. There is no material change in the estimate for this activity.

BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

The Board has jurisdiction to hear appeals of taxpayers from decisions by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in cases involving income, excess profits, and estate taxes. The Board is composed of 16 members, each member constituting a division of the Board for hearing cases assigned to him. The Board functions in the manner of a court. Its decisions are reviewable by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia on petitions for review. From these courts appeals may be taken to the United States Supreme Court on writs of certiorari. There is no material change in the estimate for this activity except for a small decrease in personnel.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

The Commission prepares for and holds competitive examinations, and rates and certifies eligibles for approximately 1,700 different kinds of positions in the classified civil service comprising more than 460,000 positions; maintains service records of permanent employees not only in the Federal classified service, but also of employees in other branches of the Government who are subject to the Retirement Act, and establishes and supervises Retirement Act accounting systems in the different establishments; administers the Retirement Act and the Classification Act. In connection with the latter act, it ascertains the duties and responsibilities of positions within the scope of the act, allocates positions to appropriate salary grades, and prepares class specifications and standards for the guidance of appointing officers.

The $1,476,000 approved for the Commission for 1935, provides $1,421,000 for salaries and expenses, and $55,000 for printing and binding. The estimates for 1935 show increases of $393,000 for salaries, of which $200,000 may be used in the fiscal year 1934, and $33,000 for printing and binding, of which $20,000 may also be used in 1934. These increases are provided to enable the Commission to continue an examination program required to meet the needs of the Federal service for qualified employees, and to perform additional work in connection with the industrial recovery program.

EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

The act of Congress creating the Employees' Compensation Commission assures compensation, including reasonable medical and hospital treatment, to all civil employees of the Federal Government, employees of the District of Columbia except firemen and policemen, and officers and enlisted men of the Naval Reserve on authorized training duty in time of peace, who sustain personal injuries in performance of their duties.

The Commission also administers the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, which is for the protection of all employees engaged in maritime employment on navigable waters of the United States who sustain injury in the line of duty and the benefit of their dependents in case of death. Under this act, the employer bears all compensation and death benefit costs, the Commission bearing only the administrative costs. The net increase of $168,410 for this activity is largely for compensation benefits.

FEDERAL EMERGENCY ADMINISTRATION OF PUBLIC WORKS

Under the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act, approved June 16, 1933, and the Fourth Deficiency Act, fiscal year 1933, approved June 16, 1933, making an appropriation of $3,300,000,000, allotments aggregating $2,943,249,328 have been made.

Among the special allotments are the following:

Farm Credit Administration.....	$100,000,000
Tennessee Valley Authority.....	50,000,000
Department of the Navy.....	238,000,000
Federal-aid highway system.....	400,000,000
Total.....	788,000,000

Other allotments totaling $2,155,249,328 have been made up to and including December 12, 1933. These executive allotments provide $322,587,315 to the Emergency Conservation Fund, $4,765,000 for the National Industrial Recovery Administration, $100,001,000 for the Public Works Emergency Housing Corporation, $400,005,000 for the Civil Works Administration, $714,808,851.50 for Federal projects, $8,931,000 for relief highway projects, $419,370,225.79 for public bodies, $176,808,000 for railroads, $1,160,731 for special allotments, and $6,812,205 for administrative expenses of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works. The sum of $50,000,000 is held as an administrative and special reserve, and the balance available for additional allotments is $306,750,672.

The allotment of $714,808,851.50 for Federal projects has been allocated to the executive departments and establishments as follows:

Agriculture.....	$56,114,747
Commerce.....	9,042,180
Justice.....	1,254,512
Labor.....	1,942,980

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board supervises and directs the operations of the Federal home loan banks, 12 in number, as provided in the Federal Home Loan

Bank Act, and causes studies to be made of home financing in the United States. The Federal home loan bank system provides a permanent reservoir of credit (comparable with the Federal Reserve System) for eligible institutions as set forth in the act, such as building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, co-operative banks, homestead associations, insurance companies, and savings banks, which institutions, however, must come within the requirements of the act.

Under authority of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, approved June 13, 1933, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board has created the Home Owners' Loan Corporation with the members of the Board serving as the board of directors of the corporation, and by section 5 (a) of the same act the Board has provided for the organization, incorporation, examination, operation, and regulation of Federal savings and loan associations.

The operating expenses of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board are paid from semiannual assessments on Federal home loan banks.

There is a net decrease of $118,580 in the estimates, due to a nonrecurring item of $150,000 for savings and loan promotion which is offset, in part, by an increase in the amount estimated to be necessary for the operation of the Board in 1935.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

The Commission has general administrative control over all power sites on navigable waters, public lands, and reservations of the United States, and over the location, design, construction, maintenance, and operation of power projects upon such sites. It also has administrative control of the maintenance of a system of accounting for determining net investment in licensed power projects, and exercises limited jurisdiction over rates, service, and securities of licensees. It levies annual charges for reimbursement to the United States for the cost of administration of the Federal Water Power Act and for the use of United States property, including lands, dams, etc., and it makes general investigation of power resources and their relation to interstate and foreign commerce, and publishes reports relating thereto.

As compared with the authorized obligations for salaries and general expenses for the fiscal year 1934, there is an increase of $67,803 in the estimates for 1935. Of this increase, the estimates propose that $20,000 be made available for immediate expenditure. The increase is for the purpose of employing additional accounting and legal assistants and to eliminate the necessity of administrative furloughs. It is proposed to establish 10 new positions—1 attorney, 2 attorney-examiners, 3 accountants and auditors, and 4 clerk-stenographers. The increase in personnel is to provide for a serious arrearage of the work involved in determining the net investment in power projects licensed under the Federal Water Power Act, and other accounting determinations relating to operating costs, depreciation, taxes, and net earnings, also required by the act.

There is also an increase in the Commission's permanent appropriation of $7,125 for payment to States under the Federal Water Power Act. Under the provisions of the act, the respective public-land States, wherein are situated licensed power projects, receive 37½ percent of the charges arising from licenses for the occupancy and use of national forests and public lands.

FEDERAL RADIO COMMISSION

The duties of the Federal Radio Commission are to regulate all wireless-communication activities, including broadcasting, ship, amateur, and point-to-point services within the jurisdiction of the United States; the issuance of licenses and the allocation of frequencies, etc., for the purpose of bringing about clearer and better transmission and reception. There is no material change in the estimate for this activity.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

The estimates for 1935 do not contain any amounts for the Federal Reserve Board as the expenses of the Board are defrayed from assessments on Federal Reserve banks and, under section 6 (b) of the Banking Act of 1933, approved June 16, 1933 (Public, No. 66, 73d Cong.), are no longer to be considered Government funds or appropriated moneys.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Under the law it is the duty of the Commission to prevent unfair methods of competition in interstate commerce and export trade of the United States. Upon request of the President, the Congress or the Attorney General, or upon its own initiative, the Commission investigates alleged violations of the antitrust laws. It submits to Congress when requested factual reports in respect to corporations engaged in interstate commerce. It administers the Securities Act of 1933, which requires a full disclosure of the character of securities sold in interstate and foreign commerce and through the mails. The primary function in connection with this act is to prevent fraud in the sale of securities. The Commission investigates trade conditions in foreign countries, and administers the Export Trade Act, which exempts associations of American corporations engaged solely in export trade from the provisions of the antitrust laws. It also administers the Clayton Act relating to unlawful price discriminations, to tying and exclusive leases and sales, and to corporate-stock acquisitions and interlocking directorates. There is no material change in the estimate for this activity.

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

The Comptroller General of the United States is charged by law, independently of the executive departments, with the settlement and adjustment of all claims and demands for or against the Government of the United States and all accounts in which the Government of the United States is concerned either as debtor or creditor. There is no material change in the estimate for this activity.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

The Interstate Commerce Commission has jurisdiction over all common carriers engaged in the interstate transportation of passengers or property, wholly by railroad, or partly by railroad and partly by water under certain conditions; pipe lines for certain commodities; telegraph, telephone, and cable companies (whether wire or wireless), operating between the various States, Territories, or Districts of the United States, or between the United States and any foreign country; express- and sleeping-car companies, and certain other facilities used in the interstate transportation of persons and property. It enforces the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, which requires all rates to be just and reasonable, and prohibits unjust discrimination and undue or unreasonable preference, or advantage in transportation rates or facilities. It enforces the safety appliance acts, requiring railroad cars and locomotives to be equipped with certain named appliances, to insure the safety of employees, and the safe operation of trains; the Locomotive Inspection Act requiring railroad companies to equip their locomotives with safe and suitable boilers and appurtenances thereto and applying with equal force to the tender and its appurtenances. It also enforces other acts intended to insure the safety of employees and the safe transportation of passengers and property by railroad.

There is no material change in the estimates for the maintenance of this activity. They do not, however, provide any funds for the general railroad contingent fund, for which $500,000 was set up in the fiscal year 1934. This fund was discontinued by the act of June 16, 1933.

NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

The Committee supervises, directs, and coordinates the scientific study of the problems of aviation, both civil and military, and prevents duplication of effort in this field. It operates at Langley Field, Va., an aeronautical research laboratory and conducts fundamental research work for the War, the Navy, and Commerce Departments to improve performance, efficiency, and safety of aircraft for all purposes. There is no material change in the estimates for this activity.

THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

The Smithsonian Institution was created by act of Congress in 1846 under the terms of the will of James Smithson, an Englishman, who in 1826 bequeathed his fortune to the United States to found, at Washington, under the name of the "Smithsonian Institution", an establishment for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge among men." There is no material change in the estimates for this activity.

TARIFF COMMISSION

The Commission is the advisory and investigational agency of Congress, of the President, and the executive departments and other governmental agencies, in matters pertaining to the tariff and related economic problems. It deals with unfair practices in the importation and sale of foreign merchandise; investigates and reports to the President, specifying such changes in the rates of existing duties as are found necessary to equalize cost of production at home and abroad; and observes and reports upon discriminations against the foreign trade of the United States. There is no material change in the estimates for this activity.

UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

The United States Geographic Board was created by Executive order September 4, 1890. Its function is to pass on all unsettled questions concerning geographic names which arise in the departments, determine, change, and fix place names within the United States and its insular possessions, and all names suggested by any officer or employee of the Government shall be referred to the Board for consideration and approval before publication. There is no material change in the estimates for this activity.

The total of the estimates for 1935 is a gross decrease below authorized obligations for 1934 of $12,394,927. However one third of the legislative reductions in salaries and wages, amounting to $3,261,898, is restored in the 1935 estimates, leaving a net reduction of $9,133,029. The principal items comprising this last-named amount are mentioned below.

Annual appropriations:

ADMINISTRATION, MEDICAL, HOSPITAL, AND DOMICILIARY SERVICES

This appropriation covers the expenses of administration, including salaries and operating expenses, of the central office in Washington, the field offices, hospitals, homes, and supply depots; the cost of travel and examination of beneficiaries; payment of burial expenses and reimbursement for such expenses; repairs and alterations to hospitals, homes, and other property in which the Veterans' Administration facilities are housed; payments to contract facilities wherein Veterans' Administration patients are hospitalized; reimbursements to States at the statutory rate for those veterans cared for in State soldiers' homes who are eligible for admission to Veterans' Administration homes for domiciliary care; and in general, all items of expense which are not direct money benefits to the veterans.

The basis for determining the amount of the estimate is the operation of hospitals and homes, involving the utilization of an average of 43,359 Veterans' Administration hospital beds and 23,633 domiciliary beds during the fiscal year 1935. In addition to the use of these beds provision is made for 5,000 beds to be utilized in State and Territorial homes, where veterans are eligible for admission to Veterans' Administration homes for domiciliary care. Provision is also made for the use of an average of 470 beds in hospitals of the Army, Public Health Service, and Interior Department. This makes a total average of 72,462 hospital and domiciliary beds for fiscal year 1935.

This estimate further provides for the operation of other activities of the Veterans' Administration involving the administration of benefits for pensions, insurance, employees' retirement, and other miscellaneous matters, including travel of patients to hospitals for treatment and return home. The expense of burials, also, comes under this appropriation. These various expenses cover veterans of all wars, and in some instances, such as domiciliary and pensions, persons who are members of the Military Establishment in times of peace.

The total decrease in the 1935 estimate, as compared to the authorized obligations for 1934, is $4,023,697. The restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in salaries and wages reduces this to a net decrease of $914,707. Notwithstanding these reductions there are 544 additional hospital beds provided for in 1935 over 1934.

PRINTING AND BINDING

The estimate of $130,000 for this purpose is a decrease of $15,000 compared with the authorized obligations for 1934.

PENSIONS

The estimate for 1935, totaling $291,944,184, is a consolidation of former appropriations entitled "Military and naval compensation" and "Army and Navy pensions." This appropriation covers the payment of all pensions and allowances, including emergency officers' retirement pay and various annuities, as authorized by law and the regulations issued by the President pursuant thereto.

This estimate is a net decrease of $3,476,799 when compared with the authorized obligations for 1934 for this purpose. It contains a one-third restoration of legislative reductions in the pay of retired emergency officers. The decrease is occasioned principally by the advancing age and constantly increasing death rate among the Civil War veterans and their dependents and reflects the estimated final determination by special review boards of the eligibility of presumptive service connected cases to continue the receipt of pensions.

MILITARY AND NAVAL INSURANCE

The amount estimated under this heading is $2,450,000 less than the authorized obligations for 1934. Payments are made under this appropriation covering permanent and total disability as a result of war service or during the period the contracts of war risk insurance were carried by the veterans, payments to beneficiaries of soldiers who died in service or during the period such insurance was carried, and payments to the Government life insurance fund to meet obligations sustained by that fund incident to the extra hazards of military or naval service of persons so engaged while protected by Government life policies.

ADJUSTED-SERVICE CERTIFICATE FUND

Prior to the passage of the act of February 27, 1931, amending the World War Adjusted Compensation Act, the Budget estimates and the appropriations for the adjusted-service certificate fund were based upon an actuarial determination of the amount necessary to amortize the face value of adjusted-service certificates in 20 years from the date of issue or on the prior death of the veteran. This amendatory act, however, authorized loans amounting to 50 percent of the face value of each certificate and the payment of such loans from the adjusted-service certificate fund. This practically exhausted the fund and destroyed the actuarial basis for an estimate. Therefore for the past 2 years estimates and appropriations have been based solely upon the amounts required for loans, for repayments to banks of loans made by them on adjusted-service certificates, and for payment of certificates maturing because of deaths. The estimate for 1935 is for this purpose and is in the same amount as appropriated and authorized for obligation in 1934.

ADJUSTED SERVICE AND DEPENDENT PAY

The estimate for 1935 is a decrease of $826,523 compared with the authorized obligations for 1934. This appropriation covers payments of the amounts due under the World War Adjusted Compensation Act in cases where such benefits are not to be covered by the issuance of an adjusted compensation certificate.

CIVIL-SERVICE RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY FUND

The estimate of $20,850,000 is for financing the Government's contribution to the fund in accordance with law, and is in the same amount as appropriated each year for this purpose, beginning with the fiscal year 1931.

In view of provisions of law which have since been enacted, it has been recognized that some increase in the Government's contribution should be made in order that the fund may be in a continuing solvent state. A recommendation for a greater appropriation is being withheld, however, awaiting a complete valuation of the fund under current law by the Board of Actuaries. This complete report is not as yet available. .

Permanent appropriation:

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT LIFE-INSURANCE TRUST FUND

This estimate of $68,040,000 for 1935 is $450,000 less than the authorized obligations for the fiscal year 1934.

This item is merely an estimate of the withdrawals from the Treasury to meet losses, loans, and investment of premium receipts from the Government life-insurance policyholders. The fund is thus far self-sustaining and requires no Federal appropriation.

¹ Includes amount transferred to Department of the Interior in accordance with the provisions of the Executive order of June 10, 1933.

² Exclusive of $611,933 for projects transferred in the 1935 estimates to the proposed Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

³ The estimates for 1935 propose to consolidate the Bureau of Entomology, the Bureau of Plant Quarantine, and some control projects from the Bureau of Plant Industry into one Bureau to be known as the "Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine."

⁴ Includes $2,213,968 appropriated for the Bureau of Entomology, $2,158,514 for the Bureau of Plant Quarantine, and $611,933 transferred from the Bureau of Plant Industry.

⁵ The amount appropriated for the fiscal year 1934 was available for expenditure in part in the fiscal year 1933. The authorized obligation for 1934 represents the unexpended balance available for that purpose.

⁶ Includes an unexpended balance for the construction of forest roads and trails brought forward from the fiscal year 1933 but available for obligation in the fiscal year 1934.

⁷ Exclusive of $1,676,545 contributed funds for cooperative work in the Forest Service, budgeted in 1935 as "Trust funds."

⁸ This amount has been advanced by the Secretary of the Treasury against processing tax receipts.

A comparison of the amount estimated for operating expenses for the fiscal year 1935 shows a net decrease of $37,575,786 below the total of authorized obligations for the fiscal year 1934. This net decrease involves an increase of $1,937,990 due to the restoration in the fiscal year 1935 of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation. The other principal increases and decreases are explained in the text as follows:

Annual appropriations:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

The organization comprises the administration of the scientific, extension, regulatory, personnel and business activities of the Department and serves in planning the organization of the work, the expenditure of funds, the contracting for the purchase of materials and equipment, the handling of mails and files, the operation of the telephone and telegraph offices, and the initiation and direction of all phases of legal work involved in the Department's activities.

The estimates for salaries, office of the Secretary, for 1935 provide $10,000 for an Under Secretary of Agriculture, a new position, $2,600 for an additional private secretary and $2,550 for two additional telephone operators. There is a reduction of $41,000 in the item for miscellaneous expenses, Department of Agriculture, due to nonrecurring items in 1935. The net decrease also involves some interdepartmental transfers with corresponding increases and decreases in each bureau concerned.

OFFICE OF INFORMATION

The work of this office consists of correlating and disseminating useful information and data developed by the economic, research, service, and regulatory programs of the Department. There is no substantial difference between the estimates for 1935 and authorized obligations for 1934.

LIBRARY, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

The library is one of the basic units in the research, extension, and regulatory work of the Department and the State agricultural agencies. It circulates books and periodicals to departmental workers as needed in their work and in this manner also assists the State agricultural colleges and experiment stations and other scientific institutions. There is no substantial difference between the estimates for 1935 and authorized obligations for 1934.

OFFICE OF EXPERIMENT STATIONS

This unit administers the Hatch, Adams, and Purcell Acts which provide Federal aid to the State agricultural experiment stations and also the acts which provide for the maintenance of agricultural experiment stations in Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

The estimates for 1935 show a decrease of $1,090,000 for grants to the States and Territories for agricultural experiment stations as contemplated by Executive Order No. 6166 dated June 10, 1933, which provided for a 25 percent reduction.

OFFICE OF EXTENSION SERVICE

This unit administers the Smith-Lever, Capper-Ketcham, and other acts which provide for cooperative agricultural extension work, arranges for exhibits by the Department of Agriculture at State, interstate, and international fairs held within the United States and cooperates with officials of the various States to assist owners of farms in establishing, improving, and renewing woodlots, shelter belts, windbreaks, and other useful timber crops.

The estimates for 1935 show a reduction of $1,018,000 in the items which provide for Federal aid to the States for cooperative agricultural extension work as contemplated by Executive Order No. 6166 dated June 10, 1933, which provided for a 25 percent reduction. There is also a reduction of $486,082 for farmers' cooperative demonstration work which is supplemented by the activities of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

WEATHER BUREAU

The work of the Weather Bureau consists of the collection and dissemination of meteorological data and of the issuance and distribution of weather forecasts, warnings, and advices. The forecasts include those for horticultural protection and also forecasts under the Air Commerce Act of 1926 of the upper air on all airways designated by the Secretary of Commerce as routes suitable for air commerce. The advisory and warning services include those in connection with the occurrence of storms, hurricanes, cold waves, frosts, fire-weather conditions, and floods. There is no substantial difference between the estimates for 1935 and authorized obligations for 1934.

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

The work of this Bureau consists chiefly of the eradication of scabies in sheep and cattle, tuberculosis in livestock, cattle ticks, which spread splenic fever infection among cattle, hog cholera, and dourine; control over the interstate shipment of livestock; enforcement of the 28-hour law to prevent cruelty to animals in transit; quarantine of animals at ports of entry; inspection of animals offered for import; supervision over the importation of animal by-products, forage, etc., to guard against the introduction of foot-and-mouth and other contagious animal diseases into the United States; inspection and testing of animals for export; investigations in animal husbandry, including poultry; investigations relating to animal diseases and parasites to discover their cause, mode of dissemination and methods of control, enforcement of the Packers and Stockyards Act, and inspection of meat and meat food products under the Meat Inspection Act.

The estimates for 1935 show a reduction of $91,148 in the project for eradication of scabies in cattle and sheep, $300,000 for indemnities to owners for cattle condemned for slaughter in the campaign to eradicate and control animal tuberculosis, $155,000 for eradication of cattle ticks, $15,625 for investigations relating to animal diseases, and $37,672 for eradication of hog cholera, all reductions being due to the progress which has been made in the work. The estimate for 1935 for the annual appropriation for meat inspection shows a decrease of $450,000; this decrease, however, is only apparent, since this amount has been transferred to the permanent annual appropriation as explained under the permanent annual item.

BUREAU OF DAIRY INDUSTRY

The work conducted under this appropriation involves scientific research and experimentation in practically every phase of the dairy industry. It contemplates the development of fundamental principles of dairy cattle breeding, feeding, and management; the development of new methods of manufacturing dairy products and the improvement of existing methods of manufacture; the effective utilization of dairy by-products through the development of new uses for such products, and the introduction of such new and/or improved processes of manufacture into commercial creameries and cheese factories. The research program also includes a study of the problems in sanitary and economical methods of producing, transporting, processing, and distributing market milk and cream for utilization in fluid form. There is no substantial difference between the estimates for 1935 and authorized obligations for 1934.

BUREAU OF PLANT INDUSTRY

The primary object of the work of this Bureau is the development and establishment of varieties of crops better adapted to different regions of the country and less subject to damage from epidemics of diseases through the breeding of disease-resistant varieties of vegetables, fruits, small grains, or other crops. This is accomplished partly by determining the causes of the epidemics and partly by controlling or eliminating the diseases. In these activities the Bureau effort is toward quality as well as acre yield of products, without increased cost of production. The work also includes efforts toward improving methods of handling, storing, and transporting perishable agricultural products. Other work of the Bureau includes investigations concerning rubber plants, forest trees, and enforcement of the Federal Seed Act.

The estimates for 1935 show a decrease of $58,210 for cereal crops and diseases, elimination of $208,914 for investigation and improvement of methods of crop production under subhumid, semiarid, or dry-land conditions, $35,580 for forest pathology investigations, $51,913 for sugar-plant investigations, and $78,156 for investigations in connection with western irrigation agriculture.

FOREST SERVICE

The function of the Forest Service is to maintain, improve, and protect the national forests belonging to the United States, including prevention and suppression of forest fires; classification of lands as they relate to the national forests; construct and maintain sanitary facilities on national forests; plant trees within national forests; estimate and appraise timber and other national forest resources; sell timber and grazing privileges; conduct investigations relating to forest management and to develop and improve ranges and methods of management; conduct experiments, investigations, and tests of forest products at the forest products laboratory; conduct a comprehensive survey of the forest lands of the United States, the timber thereon, rate of depletion, and probable future rate of growth; ascertain ways and means of halting forest devastation and speeding up sustained yield management and other measures on privately owned lands; cooperate with State agencies in forest-fire prevention and suppression; conduct studies of the effect of tax laws and studies relating to timber insurance; cooperates with the States in the procurement, production, and distribution of forest-tree seeds and plants in establishing windbreaks, shelter belts, and farm woodlots upon denuded or nonforested lands; acquire additional lands for the protection of the watersheds of navigable streams and construct roads in and adjacent to the national forests.

The estimates for 1935 show decreases of $441,184 for administration and protection of the national forests, $9,786 for general administration of the Forest Service, and $1,172 for classification of lands. In addition to these decreases, the estimates do not provide funds for aerial fire control, for sanitation and fire prevention, for planting on national forests, for reconnaissance national forests, for improvement of the national forests, and for a forest survey. The Federal Emergency Administration for Public Works has allotted funds for these activities, and for this reason the items enumerated have been eliminated from the 1935 estimates.

BUREAU OF CHEMISTRY AND SOILS

The Bureau of Chemistry and Soils conducts investigations and experiments relating to the application of chemistry to the various phases of agriculture; for the utilization, for coloring, and for medicinal and technical purposes, of raw materials grown or produced in the United States; for the development of insecticides and fungicides; for the development of methods of preventing various dust explosions, including fires in cotton gins, cotton-oil mills, and grain elevators; for the improvement of methods or processes of developing naval stores, the weighing, handling, transportation, and uses of such stores; for developing fertilizers and fertilizer ingredients; for ascertaining various properties of soils and their relation to soil formations; for ascertaining causes of infertility of soils, and related problems. The Bureau also conducts a soil survey of the United States and makes tests and inspection of commercial cultures of legume nodule bacteria to insure that the cultures sold to farmers are efficient.

The estimates for 1935 show decreases of $37,000 for investigations relating to the application of chemistry to agriculture, $10,700 for investigation and development of methods of manufacturing insecticides and fungicides, $30,000 for investigations relating to fertilizers, and $108,800 for investigations of soils and for making a soil survey.

BUREAU OF ENTOMOLOGY AND PLANT QUARANTINE

This unit conducts investigations in economic entomology, involving studies of the life history and habits of insects injurious and those beneficial to agriculture, horticulture, and arboriculture, with a view to developing methods of destroying those found to be injurious and promoting the increase and spread of those found to be beneficial. It also investigates the life history and method of controlling insects affecting man and animals and conducts studies of bee culture and bee-keeping practices. This unit also enforces the Plant Quarantine Act to prevent entry into the United States of dangerous plants pests, and also various other acts to control the spread of the pink bollworm of cotton, Thurberia weevil, date scale, gypsy and brown-tail moths, Japanese beetle, Mexican fruit fly, and the white pine blister rust.

The estimates for 1935 show decreases of $24,184 for general administration of the Bureau work, $17,560 for investigations concerning insects which affect various fruits, $11,321 for shade tree and hardy shrub insect investigations, $91,179 for investigations relating to the European corn borer, $77,890 for the control and prevention of the spread of the pink bollworm of cotton, $12,287 for investigations of insects affecting man and animals, $18,654 for insect-pest survey and identification and classification of insects, $68,940 for enforcement of the Plant Quarantine Act, $17,488 for investigations relating to truck-crop and garden insects, $55,400 for investigations of insects affecting cereal and forage crops, and $47,000 for control and prevention of spread of the Japanese beetle. The estimates for 1935 do not provide any funds for the gypsy and brown-tail moth work, blister rust control, Dutch elm disease, and barberry eradication. The Federal Emergency Administration for Public Works has allotted funds for these activities, and for this reason the items enumerated have been eliminated from the 1935 estimates.

BUREAU OF BIOLOGICAL SURVEY

The work of this Bureau consists of research work, conservation and control operations, and enforcement of laws that relate to vertebrate wild animals (except fishes), in the interests of agriculture, horticulture, stock raising, forestry, recreation, and the natural requirements of the wild life itself. These activities include field investigations and laboratory studies of the distribution, migration, classification, natural history, food habits, and food resources of birds and other animals and their diseases and parasites; studies of the propagation of game birds; development of effective methods for the control of predatory animals; and wild-life reservations are maintained for the conservation of game and other animals and birds. The Bureau also administers laws for the conservation of migratory birds, and for protection of wild animals, and assists in the enforcement of the Alaska game law.

The estimates for 1935 show decreases of $207,265 for the control of predatory and injurious rodents, $39,699 for the protection of migratory birds, $7,512 for the enforcement of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act, and $8,018 for acquisition of lands for the Upper Mississippi River wild-life refuge. The estimates for 1935 do not provide any funds for investigations relating to the food habits of birds and animals or for investigations, experiments, and demonstrations relating to the production of fur-bearing animals.

BUREAU OF PUBLIC ROADS

This unit administers appropriations made to the Department for Federal-aid to the States for State highway construction and for the construction of highways within the national forests. On June 30, 1933, the Federal highway system totaled approximately 206,000 miles of the principal highways of the country and connected all the principal cities, county seats, and other market centers in the United States. About 107,800 miles of this system has been improved with Federal aid, with about 10,000 miles under construction on June 30, 1933. The initiation of and immediate supervision of the construction of Federal-aid projects is under the State highway departments with engineers of the Bureau of Public Roads making frequent inspections and approving all work from the inception of a project until its completion.

The estimate for 1935 shows an increase of $4,003,695 for Federal-aid highway construction. This increase, however, does not increase the amount authorized for expenditure for the Federal-aid highway system, but is simply the amount needed to pay the accounts submitted by the States under the Government's plan of appropriating annually only the amount needed to meet current accounts. The amount in the 1935 estimates for $11,000,000 is therefore the amount, plus any unexpended balance remaining over from the fiscal year 1934, which will be required to meet obligations against previous years' authorizations.

BUREAU OF AGRICULTURAL ENGINEERING

This unit conducts investigations and experiments relating to farm drainage, farm machinery, farm buildings, cotton ginning, soil erosion, and land-clearing methods.

The estimates for 1935 show a decrease of $96,863 for agricultural engineering investigations, experiments, and studies.

BUREAU OF AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS

The functions of this organization are to conduct studies of the economics of production and marketing, farm organizations, farm labor, and the problems of rural life. It acquires and disseminates current information regarding the marketing and distribution of farm products; collects, compiles, summarizes, interprets, and makes public statistical data relating to agricultural production, including crop and livestock estimates; estimates of the grade and staple length of cotton crop and carry-over; studies marketing methods and conditions and the standardization, transportation, handling, financing, utilization, and storage of agricultural products; prepares and publishes reports on the outlook for farm products and issues quarterly reports on stocks of leaf tobacco. A market inspection service is maintained for the inspection of fruits and vegetables, hay, beans, broomcorn, and other products and a grading service is conducted on dairy and poultry products, canned fruits and vegetables, meat, tobacco, and rice. The Bureau also enforces the United States Cotton Futures Act, United States Cotton Standards Act, United States Grain Standards Act, United States Standard Container Act, United States Standard Hamper Act, Produce Agency Act, and Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, and administers the United States Warehouse Act.

The estimates for 1935 show decreases of $69,630 for agricultural finance studies and $23,150 for collecting and disseminating market information to those interested in such news.

BUREAU OF HOME ECONOMICS

This unit conducts experiments and investigations to develop basic or fundamental facts concerning the utilization of agricultural products for food, human nutrition, composition of foods, institutional cookery, standards for living, family budgets and purchasing, food-consumption trends, housekeeping efficiency, household equipment, and cotton and wool utilization.

The estimates for 1935 show a decrease of $25,255 for investigations, experiments, and demonstrations in home economics.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE GRAIN FUTURES ACT

The work of this unit is to supervise future trading in grain on 14 boards of trade and exchanges designated United States contract markets by the Secretary of Agriculture, and involves the observation of trading operations, compiling, and publishing daily reports on volume of trading and amounts of open interest, examination of books and records of clearing members for the purpose of discovering and preventing irregularities, examination of market news and gossip items to prevent the dissemination of false and misleading crop and market information, maintaining a daily check on accounts of large traders, investigation of complaints, and special studies and investigations relating to economic functions and general utility of the future markets for hedging and merchandising purposes. There is no substantial difference between the estimates for 1935 and authorized obligations for 1934.

FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

This unit enforces the Food and Drug Act, Insecticide Act, Tea Importation Act, Naval Stores Act, Milk Importation Act, and the Caustic Poison Act. The administration inspects and analyzes samples of the various products coming under its jurisdiction to the end that it may detect and cause to be removed from the channels of trade all those products which fail to comply with the terms of the regulatory acts which it administers. It institutes legal action against those who violate the laws. The primary object of these acts is to protect the public against misbranded or adulterated foods, drugs, naval stores, insecticides, and fungicides, and honest manufacturers against unfair competition with such goods.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

FOREST ROADS AND TRAILS

The work under the item "Forest Roads and Trails" consists of the survey, construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of roads and trails of primary importance for the protection, administration, and utilization of the national forests, or when necessary for the use and development of the resources upon which communities within or adjacent to the national forests are dependent. The amount appropriated is apportioned by the Secretary of Agriculture among the several States, Alaska, and Puerto Rico.

The estimates for 1935 for forest roads and trails show an increase of $4,471,716 over the amount available for obligation in 1934. This will not, however, increase the amount available for obligation, but is for the purpose of enabling the department to pay for accounts accruing under apportionments made from "authorizations" authorized by Congress in previous years.

SOIL EROSION

Soil erosion investigations are conducted for the purpose of determining the causes of erosion, to devise methods for prevention or control, for conservation of rainfall, for the renewal of eroded lands, and to develop a comprehensive program of soil-erosion control for the entire United States.

The estimates for 1935 do not provide funds for soil-erosion work by the Forest Service. The Federal Relief Administrator for Public Works has allotted funds for this work and for this reason the project has been eliminated from the 1935 estimates.

AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

The function of this organization is to relieve the existing national emergency by increasing agricultural purchasing power, through control of production, and to raise revenue for extraordinary expenses incurred by such emergency.

The act creating the administration appropriated $100,000,000. Of this sum $31,667,000 was approved for obligation during the fiscal year 1934, and as the item is nonrecurring in 1935 the amount represents a decrease in 1935. There is also an estimate for the administration under the heading "permanent appropriations." This item covers advances by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Secretary of Agriculture as provided in section 12 (b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of May 12, 1933.

The estimate for 1935 shows an increase of $551,412,428 over the authorized obligations for 1934. The amounts shown as appropriations for 1934 and the estimate for 1935 represent advances by the Secretary of the Treasury which it is expected will be repaid from processing tax receipts.

Permanent appropriations:

EXTENSION SERVICE

The 1935 estimate for the Extension Service is for the permanent annual appropriation for cooperative agricultural extension work and shows a decrease of $1,099,024 as contemplated by Executive Order No. 6166, dated June 10, 1933, which provides for a 25 percent reduction.

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

The 1935 estimate for the Bureau of Animal Industry relates to the permanent annual appropriation for meat inspection and shows an increase of $450,000. This increase, however, is only apparent as the total of the annual and permanent appropriations for meat inspection, with some small reductions in the 1935 estimate, equal the authorized obligations for 1934.

FOREST SERVICE

The 1935 estimates for permanent appropriations for the Forest Service show an increase of $2,125 for the National Forest Reservation Commission. This increase is due to increased work resulting from an allotment of $20,000,000 from the appropriation made for national industrial recovery for the purchase of additional forest lands, an increase of $42,000 for payments to States and Territories from the national forests fund and $3,500 for payments to school funds, Arizona and New Mexico, national forest funds, both increases being due to increased forest receipts. The estimates do not provide any funds for the construction of roads and trails for States from the national forest fund. This work has been carried on by the appropriation of 10 percent of all moneys received from the national forests during each fiscal year.

AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

(See note regarding Agricultural Adjustment Administration permanent appropriation in the text regarding the annual appropriation for the Administration.)

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

Total annual appropriations.....	42,900,000	43,269,939	2,389,666	¹ - 40,880,273

¹ Net.

The functions of the Farm Credit Administration are to supervise and regulate the activities of the Federal land banks, joint-stock land banks, and national farm-loan associations, organized under the Federal Farm Loan Act; the regional agricultural credit corporations organized under the Emergency Relief and Construction Act, and the banks for cooperatives, production credit corporations, and production credit associations organized under the Farm Credit Act. The administration is further charged with the responsibility for making and collecting loans to cooperative marketing and purchasing associations under the Agricultural Marketing Act; farmers' seed, feed, grain, and crop production loans, under all provisions of the law relating to advances to farmers; loans to joint-stock land banks, farm-mortgage loans, and payments to Federal land banks for reduction of interest and subscriptions to their paid-in surplus under the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act.

The Budget estimate for 1935, including restoration of one third of legislative reduction in compensation, is $40,880,273 below the authorized obligations for 1934. This decrease involves an increase of $140,571 for compensation restoration and a decrease of $1,020,844 for administrative expenses in connection with the establishment and supervision of production credit corporations and associations and $40,000,000 appropriated as part of the Farm Credit Administration revolving fund, both of these items being nonrecurring in the fiscal year 1935.

¹ Not including $33,020 annual salaries of Solicitor's Office transferred from the Department of Justice.

The total net increase for the Department of Commerce includes $1,324,397 for restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation. Aside from this increase, applicable to all branches of the Department, the principal items of increase and decrease in the estimates for 1935, compared with the authorized obligations for 1934, are as follows:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

This unit includes items of appropriation for salaries, office of the Secretary, contingent expenses of the Department, and printing and binding for the Department, except that the items, contingent expenses and printing and binding, do not provide for requirements of the Patent Office, Federal Employment Stabilization Board, and the census of agriculture.

Salaries, office of the Secretary: The estimate is an increase of $21,800. The item includes salaries of the Secretary, two Assistant Secretaries, and the personnel required in the supervision of activities of the various Bureaus of the Department; it also provides for the personnel of the Solicitor's office, the Department disbursing office, appointment division, publication and supplies division, and the library. This item for the first time includes the office of an Assistant Secretary, formerly included in appropriation for the Aeronautics Branch, and the office of the Solicitor transferred from the Department of Justice, these consolidations having been effected under the provisions of Executive Order No. 6166 of June 10, 1933.

Contingent expenses: Covers such miscellaneous purposes as stationery, furniture, maintenance and operation of motor vehicles, office supplies, and telephone and telegraph services for all departmental activities of the Department except as indicated above. The estimate is an increase of $28,175 to provide for offices of an Assistant Secretary and the Solicitor and the Shipping Board Bureau heretofore paid from other appropriations. It is in effect a decided reduction.

Printing and binding: Provides for the entire Department, except as indicated above. There is a reduction of $12,000 in this item.

FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT STABILIZATION BOARD

Created by the act of February 10, 1931, to advise the President from time to time of the trend of employment and business activity and of the existence or approach of periods of business depression and unemployment and to cooperate with the construction agencies in formulating methods of advance planning, the Board, consisting of the Secretaries of the Treasury, Commerce, Agriculture, and Labor, is authorized to appoint a director, experts, and other personnel, and to make such expenditure as may be necessary in administration of the act. The estimate of appropriation for these purposes is comparable with the appropriation for the current year.

AERONAUTICS BRANCH

The functions of this branch are to foster air commerce, establish civil airways, establish, operate, and maintain along such airways all necessary air navigation facilities, except airports; examine, register, and rate all aircraft and air navigation facilities; establish air traffic rules; publish air maps; periodically to examine, rate, and license airmen and aircraft, and to carry on research and development work, in cooperation with the Bureau of Standards, toward improvement of air navigation facilities.

Reorganization of the branch, effecting and contemplating further savings, is reflected in the estimates for this activity. Provision is made for airline, manufacturing, and general inspection and continuation of the maintenance and operation of emergency landing fields, lighting, radio, and weather reporting facilities for 18,100 miles of lighted airways and 1,400 miles of unlighted airways. Exclusive of salary restoration the estimate is a reduction of $83,800 for aircraft in commerce and $30,000 for air navigation facilities.

BUREAU OF FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC COMMERCE

The functions of this Bureau, under the act of August 23, 1912, are the collection and compilation of statistics of commerce of the United States with foreign countries comprehending kinds, quantities, and values of all goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, and exported from, the United States; to foster, promote, and develop the various manufacturing industries of the United States and markets for same at home and abroad by gathering, compiling, publishing, and supplying all available and useful information concerning such industries and markets, in cooperation with consular officers of the Department of State. The increase in the estimates for this Bureau is wholly for restoration of one third of legislative reduction in compensation except an increase of $12,500 for transportation of effects and families of officers.

This unit includes items of appropriation as follows:

Salaries of the Bureau: The departmental organization in Washington to supervise and administer the act. The estimate for this item is an increase of $120,128 to provide for departmental personnel heretofore paid from other appropriations of the bureau, these appropriations showing decreases accordingly.

Promoting commerce in Europe: The estimate is a reduction of $31,000 for transfer of departmental personnel to other appropriations of the Bureau, and decreasing foreign offices from 27 to 17.

Promoting commerce in Latin America: A reduction of $115,000 for the transfer of departmental personnel to other appropriations of the Bureau, and decreasing foreign offices from 13 to 8.

Promoting commerce in the Far East: A reduction of $84,750 for transfer of departmental personnel to other appropriations of the Bureau, and decreasing foreign offices from 9 to 6.

Promoting commerce in Africa: A reduction of $19,700 for the transfer of departmental personnel to other appropriations of the Bureau, and decreasing foreign offices from 3 to 2.

District and cooperative office service: A reduction of $22,500 for transfer of departmental personnel to other appropriations of the Bureau, decreasing the number of district offices from 34 to 24 with reduced personnel in the remaining offices. The number of cooperative offices, maintained by local funds, to which are assigned, in each instance, one or two Federal employees, is increased to 53.

Enforcement of the China Trade Act: The act of September 19, 1922, authorizes the formation of District of Columbia corporations, of which the majority of each must be citizens of the United States, for the purpose of engaging in business, with restrictions as to kinds, within China, for which the Secretary of Commerce issues certificates of incorporation. The affairs of any such corporation must be conducted in conformity with the provisions of the act. The registrar, appointed by the Secretary, and located in China, is charged with enforcement of the law. About 100 such corporations are now active.

Export industries: Activities under this item are devoted to domestic and foreign problems concerning production, distribution, and marketing relating to the important export industries of the United States. The estimate exceeds current year expenditures by $109,600 to provide for the transfer of departmental personnel from other appropriations of the Bureau. All personnel abroad under this item will be eliminated, $20,000.

Domestic commerce: Provides for the collection and compilation of information regarding the disposition and handling of raw materials and manufactures within the United States. The estimate exceeds current year expenditures by $45,000 to absorb personnel transferred from other appropriations of the Bureau.

Compiling foreign trade statistics: Provides for checking and tabulating the export declarations and import entries furnished by every collector of customs in the United States, from which are compiled and published statistical tables relative thereto. There is an increase of $40,000 in the estimate for this item to absorb personnel transferred from other appropriations of the Bureau.

Lists of foreign buyers: For the use of American exporters. There is a reduction of $5,000 in the estimate for this item.

Investigation of foreign trade restrictions: Covers the collection and compilation of information regarding restrictions and regulations of trade imposed by foreign countries. There is a slight reduction in the estimate for this item.

Transportation of families and effects of officers and employees: Upon transfer or return of foreign officers and transfer of personnel in the United States. The estimate for this item exceeds current year expenditures by $12,500 to provide for return of officers who have been abroad 3 or more years.

Allowances for quarters, foreign commerce service: Authorized by the act of April 12, 1930, to adjust costs of living variants in foreign countries. There is a reduction of $4,600 in the estimate for this item.

BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

The estimates for this Bureau consist of two items.

Salaries and expenses: Provides for current activities of the Bureau in the collection of census statistics directed by law, such as manufacturers, vital statistics, cotton statistics, and financial statistics of cities and States. The estimate is an increase of $13,500.

Census of Agriculture: This is a new item of $2,270,000, not included in present year appropriations, to provide appropriation to comply with the act of June 18, 1929, directing such a census every 10 years, beginning with the fiscal year 1935.

BUREAU OF NAVIGATION AND STEAMBOAT INSPECTION

This unit enforces the laws relative to navigation and inspection of vessels, including hulls, boilers, life-saving and loading equipment; prevention of overcrowding of excursion boats; load lines of vessels; establishes regulations for the admeasurement of vessels as the basis for tonnage tax collected on vessels entering our ports, and maintains shipping commissioners' offices at 13 ports for general superintendence of the commercial marine and merchant seamen of the United States. The estimate provides for continued operation as in the current year.

BUREAU OF STANDARDS

The functions of the Bureau consist in the custody of the standards of weights and measures; comparison of standards used in scientific investigations, engineering, manufacturing, commerce and educational institutions, with the standards adopted and recognized by the Government; the construction of standards, when necessary; testing and calibration of standard measuring apparatus; the solution of problems arising in connection with standards, the determination of physical constants and the properties of materials not to be obtained of sufficient accuracy elsewhere; testing structural and miscellaneous materials, radio research, and the standardization of equipment.

The estimate provides for continued operation as in the current year with slight increases for testing public utility standards and the standardization of equipment.

BUREAU OF LIGHTHOUSES

This Bureau establishes, maintains, and operates lighthouses, lightships, buoys, lights, markers, and other aids to navigation along the shores of the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, and on the navigable waters of the United States. Items of appropriation are as follows:

Salaries of the Bureau: Covers the departmental personnel necessary to supervise the activities of the Bureau. The estimate contemplates operation as in 1934.

General expenses: Covers all current operating and maintenance departmental and field activities of the Bureau except the salaries in the Bureau and salaries included in the following items. There is a slight decrease in this item.

Salaries, keepers of lighthouses: There is a slight decrease in this item made possible by the substitution of automatic aids.

Salaries of vessels, personnel of lightships and tenders: There is a decrease in this item made possible by substitution of automatic aids.

Salaries of superintendents and other personnel of 18 lighthouse field districts, and at depots: There is an increase of this item made necessary by the increased work at these stations incident to the public works program.

Retired pay: There is an increase in this item due to the increase in retired personnel.

COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY

This activity surveys the floor of the coastal waters of the United States, publishes for the use of mariners maps, charts, and information relative to shoals and depth of water based upon such surveys, establishes lines of exact levels and determines geographic positions by triangulation and traverse necessary for civil engineering surveys and engineering works, and makes magnetic and earthquake observations. There is a slight increase in the estimates for magnetic work and departmental office salaries.

BUREAU OF FISHERIES

The functions of this Bureau are the propagation of food fishes and their distribution for release in the waters of the United States, inquiry into the causes of the decrease of food fishes, collection and compilation of statistics of the fisheries, methods of preservation and utilization of fishery products, enforcement of the black-bass law, and protection of the seal and salmon fisheries of Alaska. The estimate contemplates continuing activities as in the current year. The item "administration expenses" is eliminated and transferred to contingent expenses of the Department and salaries, commissioners office. The items "sponge fisheries" and "upper Mississippi fish refuge" are omitted.

PATENT OFFICE

There is an increase of $58,000 in the estimate for salaries, for the purpose of making a reclassification of patents required by law, and a reduction of $50,000 in the item for printing and binding.

BUREAU OF MINES

The functions of the Bureau are, in cooperation with the industry, to conduct inquiries and scientific and technologic investigations concerning mining and utilization of mineral substances with view to improving health conditions and increasing safety, efficiency, and economic development. There is a slight decrease in the estimates for this Bureau, except the item "economics of mineral industries" which is increased by $11,820. Nothing is included in the estimates for continuing investigation of purification methods and resources of helium-bearing gas.

THE UNITED STATES SHIPPING BOARD

The functions of the Board including those over and in respect to the United States Shipping Board Merchant Fleet Corporation were transferred to the Department of Commerce by Executive Order No. 6166 of June 10, 1933. These functions are the regulatory supervision of marine shipping, including shipping and terminal rates, and the disposition or operation of the remaining vessels and property acquired for the United States under the provisions of the Shipping Act of September 7, 1916, as amended.

Provision for printing and miscellaneous expenses of this Bureau, except travel and contract stenographic work, is included in the estimates for printing and contingent expenses of the Department. There is a reduction in the estimate for personnel of the Bureau.

The total net reduction of $5,234,285 in the estimates for the Department of the Interior for the fiscal year 1935 as compared with the estimated obligations of appropriations for the fiscal year 1934 results from an increase of $1,061,450 on account of restoration in 1935 of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation during 1934, and from decreases and other increases, the principal details of which are as follows:

Annual appropriations:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Provision is made under this title for the salaries and expenses of the general administrative, legal, and inspectional officers and employees of the Department, and also, except for the Geological Survey, for the Department's printing requirements. The increase shown is due to the transfer to the offices of the Solicitor and the Director of Investigations of legal and inspectional employees whose salaries and expenses have been provided heretofore from appropriations for various bureaus of the Department. The estimates of those appropriations have been correspondingly reduced.

COMMISSION OF FINE ARTS

MOUNT RUSHMORE NATIONAL MEMORIAL COMMISSION

GEORGE ROGERS CLARK SESQUICENTENNIAL COMMISSION

Expenditures for these commissions are now administered by the Department of the Interior, in accordance with the Executive order of June 10, 1933. The decreases for the two latter commissions are due to the provisions for continuing available in 1935 unexpended balances of the 1934 appropriations for construction of these two memorials.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE

This office surveys, manages, and disposes of the public lands. The decrease is due to the transfer to the Division of Investigation under the Office of the Secretary, of the investigational work heretofore conducted through the appropriation, "Protecting the Public Lands."

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

This Bureau has charge of the Indians of the United States and Alaska, including their education, health, lands, moneys, and general welfare. Aside from various more or less offsetting increases and decreases, including decreases due to the transfer of legal work to the Office of the Secretary, the following are the major changes: Increases (which include the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation) of $390,650 for support of Indian day schools, on account of the return of boarding-school pupils to day schools, of $365,505 for maintenance of additional hospital facilities, and of $198,420 for general support and administration of Indian property, due to the exhaustion of tribal funds previously used for this purpose; and a decrease of $513,250, on account of the closing of a number of nonreservation boarding schools and of a reduced number of pupils attending the remaining boarding schools.

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION

Under the Reclamation Act of June 17, 1902, and amendments, this Bureau investigates, constructs, and manages irrigation projects in the public-land States. It also has charge of the construction of the Boulder Canyon Dam. Provision for continuation of the latter work through an allotment of funds under the National Industrial Recovery Act has rendered unnecessary any estimate of annual appropriation for this purpose from the general fund for the fiscal year 1935. The reduction in the special fund is also due to the availability of National Industrial Recovery Act funds for construction work on various reclamation projects.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

The Geological Survey conducts investigations of mineral resources, and of surface and underground waters; makes topographic and geologic surveys; classifies the public land; and is in charge of enforcement of the engineering phases of the Mineral Leasing Act of October 20, 1914. The decrease in its estimates is due to the availability of an allotment of $2,336,500 from National Industrial Recovery Act funds, for topographic surveys.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL PARKS, BUILDINGS, AND RESERVATIONS

This Office has the duty of administering the national parks and national monuments, and, under the Executive order of June 10, 1933, the national military parks, battlefields, cemeteries, and monuments, the public buildings and grounds in the District of Columbia, and the public buildings and reservations outside of the District of Columbia that are not chiefly employed as facilities in the work of particular agencies.

Aside from certain economies secured in the transfer of the above-mentioned activities under the Executive order of June 10, 1933, the decrease is due to the availability of National Industrial Recovery Act funds for the construction of roads in national parks, and monuments, and for work at the Arlington Memorial Bridge.

OFFICE OF EDUCATION

The Office of Education collects and publishes statistics and general information regarding the condition and progress of education in the United States and foreign countries; advises State, county, and local school officers on problems of administration and improvement of schools; administers the fund for support of colleges for the benefit of agriculture and mechanic arts; and, since the transfer to it of the Federal Board of Vocational Education, makes studies of, and administers the funds for, cooperative vocational education in the States and in Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

The decrease in the 1935 estimates is chiefly due to the expiration in 1934 of the provisions of the act of February 5, 1929, authorizing additional appropriations for cooperative vocational education.

GOVERNMENT IN THE TERRITORIES

Under this heading are included the salaries and expenses of the offices of the Governors of Alaska, Hawaii, and the Virgin Islands; the legislative expenses of the two first-named Territories; the expenditures for care of insane, supervision of the reindeer industry, operation of the Alaska Railroad, and construction and maintenance of wagon roads, bridges, and trails in Alaska, and expenditures in aid of the municipalities and industries in the Virgin Islands.

There is a decrease of $249,000 in the estimate of appropriation for operation of the Alaska Railroad, due to the continued availability of unexpended balances of previous appropriations for that purpose, and an increase of $84,820 for the biennial expenses of the territorial legislatures of Alaska and Hawaii.

ST. ELIZABETHS HOSPITAL

COLUMBIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF

HOWARD UNIVERSITY

FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL

The increases in the estimates of appropriations for care at St. Elizabeths Hospital of insane persons from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and for aid to Columbia Institution for the Deaf, and to Howard University and Freedmen's Hospital for the colored race, reflect mainly the restoration of one third of the legislative deduction in compensation.

Permanent appropriations:

The apparent increase of $345,500 for the Bureau of Indian Affairs is due for the most part to the inclusion in the Budget, for the first time, of the indefinite appropriation of collections from water users on Indian irrigation projects; and the decrease of $393,897 for the Office of Education results from the provisions of the Executive order of June 10, 1933, abolishing 25 percent of the functions of cooperative vocational education and rehabilitation.

Trust and contributed funds:

The decrease in the estimate of expenditures from these funds under the Bureau of Indian Affairs is on account of the diminution of Indian tribal funds; under Government in the Territories it is due to an expected smaller amount of contributions from private sources for the construction and maintenance of roads; and under St. Elizabeths Hospital it is accounted for by the reduction in amounts of pension moneys to the credit of inmates of the institution that occurs through the operation of section 17 of title I of the Act of March 20, 1933, relative to hospital treatment of war veterans.

The reduction of $3,059,995 in the Budget estimates for 1935 as compared to the authorized obligations for 1934 is made up of an increase of $964,075 for the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation and a net decrease in other items of $4,024,070, the details of which are as follows:

Annual appropriations:

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Included under this caption are the salaries and expenses for the operation of the Department of Justice at Washington and the various activities in the field coming under the supervision of the Attorney General, such as the prosecution of criminal and civil suits, protecting interests of the United States in customs matters, defending suits in claims against the United States, matters relating to the acquisition of land for the Government, enforcement of the antitrust laws, internal-revenue litigation, veterans' insurance litigation, investigations by the Division of Investigation, examination of judicial offices, and general superintendence and direction over the United States attorneys and marshals and the Federal penal and correctional institutions.

The principal increases are $67,019 for salaries, Department of Justice, $370,592 for the general investigations unit of the Division of Investigation, $147,082 for enforcement of antitrust laws, and $265,548 for the defense of suits under the World War Veterans' Act.

There is a decrease of $2,354,582 for the alcoholic-beverage unit of the Division of Investigation, due to the prospective reduction in work because of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the Constitution and the uncertainty as to what legislation will be enacted pursuant to the twenty-first amendment. As the new Government-owned building of the Department of Justice will be ready for occupancy near the close of the current fiscal year, nothing is included in the Budget for 1935 for the rental of space in Washington, which will result in a saving of $125,733. There is also a decrease of $25,000 for printing and binding for the Department of Justice and the courts of the United States.

THE JUDICIARY

There are included under this caption the salaries and expenses of the Supreme and inferior courts, United States attorneys, marshals, and clerks of courts, fees of commissioners, jurors, and witnesses, pay of bailiffs, miscellaneous expenses and supplies for the courts, and books for judicial officers.

The principal increases are $31,901 for the Supreme Court of the United States, $11,370 for the United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, $11,420 for the United States Customs Court, $12,446 for the Court of Claims, $286,325 for special assistant attorneys, $85,745 for clerks of courts, and $11,000 for pay of bailiffs.

The most important decreases are $65,010 for salaries, fees, and expenses of marshals, $31,920 for salaries and expenses of district attorneys, $62,500 for fees of commissioners, and $150,000 for fees of jurors and witnesses, all of which are made in anticipation of a curtailment of judicial activity on account of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. As more space will be available in the new public buildings next year, the item for rent of court rooms is reduced from $71,644 to $55,000.

PENAL AND CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Provision is made under this caption for the maintenance of Federal penal and correctional institutions, the subsistence and care of United States prisoners in non-Federal institutions, and the operation of the probation system of the United States courts.

The increases requested for the maintenance of the new institutions, namely, $64,378 for United States Northeastern Penitentiary, $30,593 for United States Industrial Reformatory, $35,248 for United States Southwestern Reformatory, and $27,085 for United States Hospital for Defective Delinquents, are due to the fact that they will be completed and operating on a capacity basis next year. The Department of Justice has acquired from the War Department under a revocable permit covering a period of 5 years the disciplinary barracks at Alcatraz Island, Calif., which it is proposed to use as a Federal prison for the incarceration of hardened offenders, and it is estimated that $231,475 will be required for the maintenance of this institution during the ensuing fiscal year. The increase of $25,200 for medical and hospital service at the penal and correctional institutions is to meet the additional demands which will be made on the Public Health Service at the foregoing places. Probation system, United States courts, is increased $63,025 to provide probation officers for those judicial districts which do not now have this service.

Of the total decrease of $1,543,070 shown for the penal and correctional institutions, $788,191 is for building projects, as construction at the new institutions and major repairs and alterations at the old institutions will be completed during the current fiscal year with the exception of the water system at United States penitentiary, McNeil Island, Wash., for the completion of which $49,000 is requested for 1935. On account of the anticipated decrease in prison population because of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, it is possible to make reductions in operating expenses of $108,354 for United States penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kans., $56,109 for United States penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., $11,206 for the Federal jails at New York City, New Orleans, Milan, Mich., and La Tuna, Tex., $15,286 for Federal Correctional Camp, Eustis, Va., and $22,802 for Federal Reformatory Camp, Petersburg, Va. For the same reason, the item for the support of United States prisoners in non-Federal institutions is reduced from $2,884,764 to $1,876,730.

Trust funds:

The trust funds of the Department of Justice consist of personal funds of prisoners and commissary and welfare funds at the several penal and correctional institutions, which are deposited in the Treasury and advanced on approved requisitions to the disbursing agents of these institutions for payment.

The estimated expenditure for 1935 is $785,000, consisting of $500,000 for prisoners' funds and $285,000 for commissary and welfare funds, a decrease of $15,000 from 1934.

The following consolidations and transfers were made in pursuance of Executive Order No. 6166:

The Bureau of Investigation and the Bureau of Prohibition of the Department of Justice were consolidated in a Division of Investigation of that Department. For the prosecution of claims by and defense of claims against the Government in the courts of the United States, there were transferred to the Department of Justice the functions of the Bureau of Internal Revenue with respect to internal revenue litigation and the functions of the Veterans' Administration with respect to veterans' insurance litigation. The United States Court for China, District Court for the Panama Canal Zone, and District Court of the Virgin Islands were transferred to the Department of Justice.

There were transferred from the Department of Justice to their respective departments the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Solicitor for the Department of Commerce, and the Solicitor for the Department of Labor.

¹ Not including $25,189 for the Solicitor's Office transferred from the Department of Justice.

The total net increase of $2,460,648 for the Department of Labor includes an increase of $796,680 for restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation. Aside from this increase, applicable to all branches of the Department, the principal items of increase and decrease in the estimates for 1935, compared with the authorized obligations for 1934, are as follows:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

This unit includes items of appropriation for salaries, Office of the Secretary; salaries and expenses, commissioners of conciliation; salaries and expenses, bureau of labor standards and service; contingent expenses of the Department, and printing and binding for the Department.

Salaries, Office of the Secretary, include the Secretary, two Assistant Secretaries and the personnel required in the supervision of activities of the various bureaus of the Department, it also provides for the personnel of the Solicitor's Office, the disbursing office, appointment division, publication and supplies division, and the library. The estimate is an increase of $37,300 for personnel of the Solicitor's Office for the entire year, transferred from the Department of Justice on August 10, 1933, and two additional employees.

Salaries and expenses, commissioners of conciliation, provides for a small departmental organization and 36 commissioners of conciliation to act for the Secretary in the mediation of labor disputes in the interest of industrial peace. The estimate is an increase of $8,920 for two additional commissioners and their traveling expenses.

Salaries and expenses, bureau of labor standards and service, is a new item for the promotion of the welfare of the wage earner and amicable industrial relations for labor and industry. The amount of the estimate is $73,685.

Contingent expenses cover, for all departmental activities of the Department except the employment service, such miscellaneous purposes as stationery, furniture, operation of motor vehicles, office supplies, and telephone and telegraph services.

Printing and binding provides for all such needs of the entire Department, excluding the employment service. There is a reduction of $11,000 in the amount of the estimate for this item.

BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS

It is the duty of this Bureau to collect, compile, and publish statistical information on subjects connected with labor. The amount of the estimate is an increase of $134,420 to provide for expansion in the number of commodities and cities covered in the collection of retail and wholesale prices, the coverage of a wider field in the collection of employment and pay-roll data, and an increase of $136,080 for a Nation-wide investigation of the cost of living.

IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE

The functions of this service consist of enforcement of the immigration and naturalization laws, Chinese exclusion laws, and contract-labor laws, including inspection of aliens seeking legally to enter the United States and its Territories, the apprehension and deportation of aliens illegally in this country, the necessary measures to prevent illegal entry of aliens, and the naturalization of aliens. The estimate contemplates the deportation of 13,500 aliens and the return of 1,000 indigent aliens to their native lands. Exclusive of supervisory personnel, provision is made for 89 naturalization examiners, 1,149 immigrant inspectors, and 816 immigrant patrol inspectors in the field. The estimate is a net reduction of $410,000.

CHILDREN'S BUREAU

The activities of this Bureau are concerned with matters relating to the welfare of children and child life including questions of infant mortality and juvenile delinquency. The estimate contemplates continuation of these activities on a scale comparable with the current year.

WOMEN'S BUREAU

This Bureau formulates standards and policies to promote the welfare of wage-earning women, improve their working conditions, increase their efficiency, and advance their opportunities for profitable employment.

UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

The act of June 6, 1933, created this service in place of the old employment service of the Department, and charged it with the duty of promoting and developing a national system of employment offices. It directly operates a service in the various States to obtain employment for veterans, a farm placement service, and a public employment service for the District of Columbia. Under the provisions of the act the service is to supervise the establishment and maintenance of a system of public employment offices in the several States, operated by the States with equal sums appropriated by State and Federal Governments. During the fiscal years 1934, 1935, and 1936 the director of the service may, if a State has not complied with the provisions of the act, expend in that State to operate Federal employment offices an amount not to exceed that State's share of the Federal appropriation, according to population.

The act authorizes appropriation of $4,000,000 for the fiscal year 1935. The estimate conforms to this authorization less an amount comparable to two thirds of the legislative reduction in compensation. One million five hundred thousand dollars was appropriated for the current year as authorized in the act.

UNITED STATES HOUSING CORPORATION

This corporation, organized under the provisions of section 5 of the act of May 16, 1918, as amended, is now engaged in disposing of the real property acquired by the Government under that act during the World War. The slight increase of $901 is for additional travel, the Philadelphia office having been discontinued, foreclosure proceedings and reacquiring possession of properties.

GENERAL STATEMENT

The Budget estimates of appropriations for the Navy Department for the fiscal year 1935 total $288,030,725. In addition to this sum the estimates contain provisions for the transfer of surplus balances from revolving funds (naval supply account fund and the clothing and small stores fund), amounting to $7,000,000, to the credit of regular appropriations for expenditure during 1935. From the unexpended balances of the continuing appropriations for public works, namely, the regular naval appropriations, Bureau of Yards and Docks, and the emergency construction appropriation, act of July 21, 1932, it is proposed that $2,000,000 be transferred to the appropriation for construction of naval vessels, leaving an unobligated balance of such public works appropriations, approximating $2,300,000, to be carried forward to the fiscal year 1935. There is also included a provision for reappropriation of the unexpended balance, estimated at $85,796, of the appropriation for the evacuation of high explosives. It is also estimated that the unexpended balances of the continuing appropriations for the modernization and construction of naval vessels to be carried forward from 1934 to 1935 will approximate $16,275,000. All of these additional items amount to $27,660,796, which, added to the facial estimates of $288,030,725, provide a total of $315,691,521 available for expenditure during the fiscal year 1935. With this amount available, it is estimated that the expenditures (actual cash withdrawals from the Treasury) during the fiscal year will approximate $310,180,300.

For the fiscal year 1934, $309,667,160 was appropriated, which, with reappropriations and unexpended balances of continuing appropriations brought forward from the fiscal year 1933, made available for expenditure during 1934, a sum in excess of $348,000,000. Under the various economy provisions approximately $21,000,000 of this sum will be impounded. Due to delays in the progress of ship construction and regular public works programs and due to drastic reductions and deferments in obligations by Executive and administrative action, a further saving of approximately $45,000,000 was made, so that the amount now authorized to be expended during the fiscal year 1934 is limited not to exceed $281,310,000. The total actual expenditures under this limitation is estimated at $281,115,200. The total authorized obligations is now set at $294,027,543. The difference between the limit as to authorized obligations and the limit as to expenditures is due to the fact that obligations under contracts for construction of vessels and public works projects are usually in excess of the appropriations available and extend beyond the fiscal year in which the contracts are made, while estimates are made on the basis of the amount of cash required during the fiscal year to meet obligations due and payable within the year. Similar conditions will prevail for the fiscal year 1935.

PAY INCREASE

The estimates include $10,500,000 additional for the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation in effect for the current year. It is also contemplated that the present economy provisions prohibiting automatic increases in compensation of military personnel will be allowed to lapse on June 30, 1934, and under this assumption the sum of $3,000,000 is included to provide for the payment to Naval and Marine Corps personnel at 90 percent of the rates to which they are entitled by rank and longevity under permanent pay laws.

ADDITIONAL ENLISTED MEN

Provision is made for a gradual increase in the enlisted force of the Navy from 79,700 men to 82,500 men by the end of the fiscal year 1935. This involves an additional sum of $2,000,000. Also it is proposed to increase the enlisted force of the Marine Corps from 15,000 to 16,000 men, which will cost approximately $700,000 more. These increases in enlisted personnel are required to provide the necessary minimum crews for vessels of the fleet, due to the addition of new ships placed in commission, and to provide more adequate and well-trained marine forces for emergencies.

OFFICERS WITH CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS

During the current year naval medical officers attached to the Civilian Conservation Corps receive pay and allowances from the funds available to that corps, but it is anticipated that their compensation must be met from naval funds for 1935, and $700,000 is included for this purpose.

ORGANIZED RESERVES

It is proposed that the Naval and Marine Corps Reserves be given pay for 36 drills during 1935, and also that such reserves be given additional aviation training. For 1934 the Naval Reserve is allotted funds for 24 drills, while the Marine Corps Reserve so far has not been allowed drill pay. This involves an increase of approximately $600,000.

RETIRED OFFICERS AND MEN AND FLEET RESERVISTS

Each year more officers and men pass to the retired lists, and more enlisted men are transferred to inactive status in the Fleet Naval and Marine Corps Reserves, commonly known as 16- and 20-year reservists. For 1935 the increase in the amount required for additional numbers passing to the retired and reserve lists is estimated at $2,500,000.

FUEL FOR THE FLEET

The operating force plan now contemplated for the employment of the fleet during the fiscal year 1935 calls for a large increase in fuel over normal requirements. The estimates include approximately $1,000,000 for the procurement of 1,570,000 additional barrels of fuel oil for this purpose.

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS TO VESSELS AND ARMAMENT

No material changes appear under the Bureaus of Engineering and Construction and Repair. The appropriations under these Bureaus provide for the maintenance, repair, alterations, and improvements to the hulls and machinery of naval vessels, and for experiments, tests, inspection of material, maintenance, and operation of radio equipment and other equipment coming under the cognizance of such Bureaus. An increase of approximately $1,700,000 is included under the Bureau of Ordnance for necessary work and material in connection with replacements, overhaul or repair of guns, torpedoes, ammunition, powder, and other ordnance details. Under the head of "State Marine Schools", there is included $89,000 for the repair of naval vessels, and their equipment, loaned to States for use in connection with State marine schools. Funds appropriated for this purpose for 1934 were placed in reserve.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT

Under the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery there is included $245,000 additional for stocks of medical supplies, the replacement of which during the current fiscal year has been deferred under the economy program.

YARDS AND DOCKS

Under the Bureau of Yards and Docks, the estimates include an increase of approximately $600,000 for dredging, considered necessary to meet annual requirements and to care for work which has been deferred on account of restrictions on expenditures. No funds are requested for public works, the Navy Department having received during the current fiscal year large allotments of funds for such purposes from the National Industrial Recovery appropriation.

AVIATION

The estimates under the Bureau of Aeronautics, after excluding the amount included for pay increase, represent a reduction of $950,000 below the allocation for 1934. It is estimated that, with a recent allotment for aviation purposes of $7,700,000 from National Industrial Recovery funds and with the funds estimated for in the Budget, the 1,000-plane program can be maintained for 1935.

ALTERATIONS TO NAVAL VESSELS

To complete the modernization of the battleship Idaho, a balance of only $500,000 is authorized to be appropriated under the limitation fixed by the act authorizing such work, and for this purpose $470,400 is included in the Budget.

CONSTRUCTION OF NAVAL VESSELS

For construction of naval vessels heretofore authorized by law, excluding those to be constructed with money allotted from the National Industry Recovery appropriation, it is estimated that $53,800,000 will be required to carry forward the program at a normal rate of progress during the fiscal year 1935. The Budget includes $39,400,000 to be appropriated or reappropriated, and the remainder required will accrue from the unexpended balance to be carried forward from the fiscal year 1934.

ECONOMY PROVISIONS

The Budget estimates are predicated on certain existing economy provisions being continued through the fiscal year 1935, failing which an additional amount of over $23,500,000 will be required.

¹ Estimates predicated on assumption that the 3-cent rate on nonlocal first-class mail will be continued.

GENERAL STATEMENT

The estimates of appropriations for the Post Office Department for the fiscal year 1935 total $677,014,240, and the postal revenues, predicated on a continuation of the 3-cent postage rate for nonlocal first-class mail, are estimated at $585,000,000, indicating a deficiency of $92,014,240 for 1935, payable from the general fund of the Treasury.

The total estimated obligations for the fiscal year 1934 amount to $639,595,029. The revenues are now estimated at $570,000,000 resulting in an estimated deficiency of $69,595,025 for 1934, payable from the general fund of the Treasury.

The spread between the total expenditures and total revenues has been increased for the fiscal year 1934 by $9,886,000, and for the fiscal year 1935 by $16,405,000, due to the fact that practically all of the public buildings outside of the District of Columbia were transferred in October 1933 from the Treasury Department to the Post Office Department, which must hereafter bear the expense of operating and maintaining them.

Since approximately $86,290,000 of the appropriations for the fiscal year 1934 will be saved by impoundment under the economy acts or by limitations on expenditures by Executive or administrative action, the estimates for the fiscal year 1935 are more properly comparable with the estimated obligations (equivalent in most cases to the estimated expenditures) for the fiscal year 1934. On this basis, the total estimates for 1935 exceed the total estimated obligations for 1934 by $37,419,000.

SALARIES AND WAGES

The expenditures for salaries for 1934 are estimated on the basis of 85 percent of the full salary rates otherwise authorized by law, while the estimates for 1935 are based on providing for salaries at 90 percent of the full salary rates. This contemplated restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation, in effect for the current fiscal year, will require $26,000,000 additional for the fiscal year 1935. Excluding the personnel connected with the operation and maintenance of public buildings, the administration of which was transferred from the Treasury Department to the Post Office Department in October 1933 (which subject is treated in a separate paragraph below), the total included in the estimates for 1935 for salaries and wages amounts to $456,160,000, as against a total estimated expenditure for 1934 of $424,731,000, a facial increase of $31,429,000. If, for purposes of a better comparison, the savings of $8,400,000 by administrative furlough be added to the estimated expenditures of $424,731,000, making a total of $433,131,000, and to this amount be added the sum of $25,499,000 that would be required to provide for salaries at 90 percent of full rates, the total for 1934 would amount to $458,630,000. This total compared with the total for 1935 of $456,160,000, indicates a reduction in personnel and savings in salaries for 1935 of $2,470,000.

TRANSPORTATION EXPENSES

Transportation expenses, exclusive of personnel, for 1935 is estimated at $129,000,000, compared with $129,- 258,000 for 1934, a reduction of $258,000. This is exclusive of so-called "steamship and aircraft subsidies", and includes costs for transportation of the mails and supplies by railroad, mail messenger service, star route, steamship, aircraft, motor vehicle, foreign transit, and other methods.

STEAMSHIP AND AIRCRAFT SUBSIDIES

The so-called "subsidies" for transportation of mails by steamships of American registry and by aircraft are estimated at a total of $42,250,000 for 1935 and $41,750,000 for 1934, an increase of $500,000. These totals are made up of $28,000,000 for steamship subsidy for 1935, the same as for 1934, and $14,250,000 for aircraft subsidy for 1935 compared with $13,750,000 for 1934. The subsidy for steamships of American registry carrying foreign mails is computed as the difference between the amount paid under contracts with the Post Office Department and the estimated amount it would have cost to carry such mail at poundage rates by ships of foreign registry. The subsidy for American aircraft for carrying both domestic and foreign mails is computed as the difference between the amounts paid under contract with the Department and the estimated postal revenues derived from such air mail.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE OF POST-OFFICE BUILDINGS

Under Executive order of June 10, 1933, the Post Office Department on October 1, 1933, assumed the administration of the operation and maintenance of practically all public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, occupied by post offices. The proportionate share of the Treasury Department appropriations for this purpose, amounting to $9,886,000 for the last 9 months of the fiscal year 1934, has been, or will be, transferred to the Post Office Department. The estimates for 1935 carry $16,405,000 for this purpose for the full fiscal year. Excluding other departments concerned, this change, as it affects the Post Office Department alone, involves an increase over expenditures for 1934 of $6,519,000, which also provides for additional requirements for new buildings to be placed in commission prior to June 30, 1935.

MISCELLANEOUS

For miscellaneous purposes, it is estimated that $33,196,000 will be required for 1935, compared with $33,968,000 for 1934, a reduction of $772,000. This includes provision for rent, light, fuel, equipment, supplies, materials, travel expenses, repairs and alterations, losses and indemnities, telegraph, telephone, and all other miscellaneous items.

ECONOMY PROVISIONS

The estimates for 1935 are predicated on the continuation during that fiscal year of certain provisions of the existing economy acts. Failure to continue such provisions would require appropriations for the Post Office Department of approximately $63,000,000 in excess of the Budget estimates.

The reduction of $83,178 in the Budget estimates for 1935 as compared to the authorized obligations for 1934 is made up of an increase of $444,060 for the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation and a net decrease in other items of $527,238, the details of which are as follows:

Annual appropriations:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Included under this caption are the salaries and expenses for the operation of the Department of State at Washington and the several passport agencies in the United States, and the expenses of collecting and editing official papers of the Territories of the United States now in the national archives.

There are increases of $84,900 for salaries, Department of State, covering the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation, and $11,000 for the contingent expenses of the Department. For collecting and editing territorial papers an increase of $4,805 is requested, which is mainly for printing, as the organic act authorizing this project requires these papers to be issued as a Government publication. A reduction has been made in passport agencies of $7,364, mainly in personnel, while there is a small decrease of $3,272 for printing and binding.

FOREIGN INTERCOURSE

The items provided for under this title are the operating expenses of the Foreign Service of the United States and international commissions and tribunals of which this Government is an adherent member, annual contributions, quotas and expenses in discharge of our obligations in connection with international agencies, and money to supplement the contributions of officers for maintenance of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund.

The principal increases are $47,600 for salaries of ambassadors and ministers, $151,737 for salaries of Foreign Service officers, $103,400 for salaries of clerks in the Foreign Service, and $27,258 for office and living quarters, Foreign Service, which amounts are very largely for the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation and allowances for living quarters; $34,119 for contingent expenses, Foreign Service, $13,000 for emergencies arising in the Diplomatic and Consular Service, $5,790 for the Mexican Boundary Commission, $4,466 for the Canadian Boundary Commission, and $5,000 for the International Fisheries Commission.

The largest decrease amounts to $367,523, and comprises a number of items for which appropriations are not requested in 1935, such as the Seventh International Conference of American States, International Monetary and Economic Conference, General Disarmament Conference, etc. It is necessary to reduce the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund from $292,700 to $159,100 on account of the restriction in the act of February 23, 1931, which provides that in no event shall the aggregate total of appropriations exceed the aggregate total of the contributions of the Foreign Service officers theretofore made, and accumulated interest thereon. There is a net reduction of $37,113 in the item for contributions to international agencies made up of a number of increases and decreases, the most important change being the omission of $48,500 for the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, Italy, which sum was appropriated for 1934 but is not included in the Budget for 1935 because the legislation authorizing this amount has not yet been passed by Congress; there is provided for this activity, however, $5,400 to pay the quota of the United States under the treaty of June 7, 1905. Other decreases are $11,266 for Waterways Treaty, United States and Great Britain, no provision being made for continuing the studies of damage to property in the United States by fumes from the smelter at Trail, British Columbia, and $16,250 for salaries of Foreign Service officers while receiving instructions and in transit.

Permanent appropriations:

The estimated expenditure of $11,000 includes $10,000 for allowances to consular officers who are paid in whole or in part by fees for services necessarily rendered to American vessels and seamen, and $1,000 for refunding moneys erroneously exacted or received.

Trust funds:

The amount estimated for expenditure of $20,000 is for moneys received by the Secretary of State from foreign governments and other sources, in trust, for citizens of the United States and others and covered into the Treasury, to be paid the ascertained beneficiaries thereof.

The only change made under Executive Order No. 6166 was the transfer of the United States Court for China to the Department of Justice.

A comparison of the estimates for the Treasury Department with the authorized obligations for the fiscal year 1934 shows a total net reduction of $74,449,370. after increasing the various salary items in the sum of $4,428,100, due to restoration, in the fiscal year 1935, of one third of the legislative reduction. The principal items of increase and decrease, other than the increases due to partial restoration of legislative reductions in salaries, are as follows:

Annual appropriations:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

The Secretary of the Treasury is charged by law with the management of the national finances; controls the coinage and printing of money, and the administration of the Coast Guard, the Public Health, Industrial Alcohol, Narcotics, and Secret Services.

An increase of $85,670 is provided principally for additional personnel and travel expenses.

OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR

The principal duty of the office is the rendition of formal and informal opinions to the Secretary and other officials of the Treasury Department. In addition, the office examines contracts, various types of bonds, leases, stipulation and consent agreements, etc., as to form, execution, and legal sufficiency; considers offers in compromise; appoints agents to bid in property on behalf of the United States, and is in charge of rental and sale of such property.

The office was transferred to the Treasury Department from the Department of Justice by Executive order of June 10, 1933.

This item is new in the Treasury Department estimates this year.

DIVISION OF SUPPLY

(To be merged later with new Division of Procurement)

The division of supply is the central purchasing agency of the Department, and as such it does purchasing for local and field activities, with the exception of those from appropriations for the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Coast Guard, and to some extent the Bureau of the Mint.

An increase of $25,000 for printing and binding is provided.

GENERAL SUPPLY COMMITTEE

(Consolidated with the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, and known as Branch of Supply)

It is the duty of the committee to prepare annually a schedule of miscellaneous supplies in common use by two or more executive departments or Government establishments in Washington; to standardize such supplies, and to solicit bids therefor and recommend awards; make definite quantity purchases of certain materials used by the Government activities in Washington, and for the field service of any department or establishment when requested to do so by the head thereof; has charge of the transfer and sale of surplus property in the District of Columbia.

An increase of $10,343 is provided principally for additional personnel and supplies.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF ACCOUNTS AND DEPOSITS

The office of the commissioner of accounts and deposits has administrative supervision over the division of bookkeeping and warrants and its relations to the office of the Treasurer of the United States, and over the division of deposits. The commissioner likewise has control of the investment accounts of the Government and is responsible for the proper custody of investments and securities held by the Treasurer of the United States and the Federal Reserve banks for which the Secretary is responsible, other than those related to public-debt operations.

An increase of $17,260 is provided principally for additional personnel.

DIVISION OF BOOKKEEPING AND WARRANTS

The division of bookkeeping and warrants is by law the official bookkeeping organization of the Government in regard to the receipt, appropriation, and expenditure of public moneys.

The principal increases are $65,000 for recoinage of minor coins, and $33,000 for contingent expenses in connection with the handling of public moneys.

BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

The principal functions of this service are the collection of import duties and the prevention of smuggling.

Aside from the increase on account of restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation, there is a decrease under this head of $200,000 due to reduction in personnel and related expenses.

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES

The Treasurer of the United States is charged with the receipt and disbursement of public moneys. He is also fiscal agent for the issue and redemption of United States paper currency, for payment of principal and interest on the public debt and for the redemption of national-bank notes, Federal Reserve notes, and Federal Reserve bank notes.

An increase of $93,000 is provided, principally for additional personnel.

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has general supervision of the assessment and collection of all internal-revenue taxes; the enforcement of internal revenue laws; and the preparation and distribution of instructions, regulations, forms, blanks, stamps, etc.

There is a decrease under this head of $7,033,900, due principally to reduction in personnel and related expenses and in the estimated amount required for refunds or taxes illegally or erroneously collected.

BUREAU OF INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL

The Commissioner of Industrial Alcohol has supervision, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, of the issuance of permits for the manufacture of spirituous and malt liquors and the ascertainment of the amount of tax which is due thereon.

An increase of $1,380,460 is provided for additional personnel and related expenses due to the anticipated increase in the number of alcoholic beverage plants and bonded warehouses which will be in operation by reason of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

BUREAU OF NARCOTICS

The Commissioner of Narcotics, under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury, has general supervision of the enforcement of the Harrison narcotic law and related statutes, including the permissive features of the narcotic drugs import and export act, and cooperates with other activities in the suppression of the abuse of narcotic drugs.

An increase of $142,935 is provided for additional agents and related expenses.

COAST GUARD

The principal duties of the Coast Guard consist of rendering assistance to vessels in distress and saving life and property; destruction or removal of wrecks, derelicts, and other floating dangers to navigation; conduct of international ice patrol in North Atlantic Ocean; protection of the customs revenues; prevention of smuggling; suppression of mutinies on merchant vessels; enforcement of laws and regulations governing merchant vessels, motor boats, anchorage of vessels in navigable waters, immigration quarantine, neutrality, regattas, and marine parades.

There is a decrease under this head of $2,077,550 due largely to curtailed activities as a result of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The principal items of decrease are $395,400 for pay and allowances, $240,400 for fuel and water, $351,943 for outfits, $129,470 for rebuilding and repairing stations, $10,426 for communication lines, $17,205 for contingent expenses, and $355,438 for repairs to vessels.

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

The Public Health Service makes studies, conducts scientific investigations, and performs research work looking to the improvement of public health. Other specific duties of the service are the operation of the foreign and domestic quarantine services, the provision of medical and hospital relief for American seamen, Coast Guard personnel, etc., and the administration of the narcotic farm at Lexington, Ky.

An increase of $613,660 is provided, the principal items of which are $50,000 for pay of acting assistant surgeons, $68,000 for pay of other employees, $35,000 for pay of personnel and maintenance of hospitals, $12,750 for preventing the spread of epidemic diseases, and $462,495 for the division of mental hygiene, chiefly to cover the cost of original equipment for the narcotic farm at Lexington, Ky., and operating expenses for part of the year.

MINT SERVICE

The Director of the Mint has general supervision of the mints and assay offices of the United States, and directs the coinage to be executed.

An increase of $51,269 is provided for salaries and expenses in mints and assay offices.

SUPERVISING ARCHITECT

(Consolidated with new Procurement Division, Treasury Department and known as "Public Works Branch")

Subject to the direction and approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, the duties performed by the Supervising Architect embrace the following: Procurement of sites; preparation of drawings, estimates, specifications, etc., for, and the superintendence of the work of constructing, rebuilding, extending, or repairing public buildings, the maintenance of those public buildings outside the District of Columbia which are under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, including the employment and supervision of the custodial forces, and the supply of furniture, carpets, lighting fixtures, mechanical equipment, safes, and miscellaneous supplies for the use of custodians' and engineers' forces in the care of such buildings.

There is a decrease under this head of $83,979,667, the largest item of which is $71,370,000 for construction of public buildings under the act of May 25, 1926, and the Emergency Construction Act. The amount provided is only sufficient for the completion of projects which were started prior to the creation of the Public Works Administration. The other decreases are $3,264,000 for miscellaneous public building projects, $500,000 for rent of temporary quarters, $1,650,000 for general expenses, $1,900,000 for outside professional services, and $245,000 for salaries, Office of the Supervising Architect. By reason of the transfer of certain Federal buildings to the jurisdiction of the Post Office and Interior Departments, there is a further decrease of $3,321,000 in the operation and maintenance items, which amount represents the cost of operation and maintenance during the first quarter of the fiscal year 1934.

The only increase under this head is $150,000 for repair and preservation of public buildings.

Permanent appropriations:

DIVISION OF BOOKKEEPING AND WARRANTS

A decrease of $700,000 for recoinage of silver coins.

PUBLIC-DEBT SERVICE

An increase of $35,522 for expenses of loans.

BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

A decrease of $849,300 for reimbursable items.

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES

A decrease of $10,000 for expenses incident to redemption and issue of national currency.

BUREAU OF INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL

An increase of $105,000 for reimbursable items.

Of the total net increase of $14,622,717 in the Budget estimates for 1935 over the authorized obligations for 1934, $10,492,580 represents a restoration of one third of the legislative reductions of 15 percent in compensation. The principal items of increase and decrease involved in the balance of the net increase, namely, $4,130,137, are mentioned below.

DEPARTMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Annual appropriations:

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

Included under this head are all departmental salaries, contingent expenses, stationery, and printing and binding. The increases provide for a new automobile for the Secretary of War and additional funds for printing and binding and purchase of office equipment.

MILITARY ACTIVITIES

Annual appropriations:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR

The only item under this head is a small fund for contingencies.

GENERAL STAFF CORPS

Includes contingencies of the Military Intelligence Division, General Staff, and salaries and expenses of the Army War College. Excluding restoration of pay, these activities are provided for on approximately the same basis as 1934.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT

The appropriation items concerned are "Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kans.," "Welfare of enlisted men", and "Field exercises." Practically the entire increase is for field exercises of the Army, a new item but not a new activity, the funds for such exercises having been carried heretofore under various other appropriation heads.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

Under this head provision is made for the pay and allowances of active and retired officers, warrant officers, nurses, and enlisted men of the Regular Army and the Philippine Scouts; mileage of the Army; expenses of courtsmartial; apprehension of deserters; hire of civilian employees of the Finance Department in the field; and claims for the loss and damage of personal property of Army personnel. The net increase, excluding restoration of one third of legislative reductions of 15 percent in compensation, consists principally of $4,234,835 for automatic increases provided by law for officers and enlisted men for length of service and for the promotion of officers to higher grades. Such automatic increases were suspended by economy legislation during the fiscal years 1933 and 1934. Mileage of the Army is decreased by $71,250. The Budget estimate for 1935 provides for average active strengths of 12,000 commissioned officers, 831 warrant officers, and 118,750 enlisted men of the Regular Army and 6,415 enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts.

QUARTERMASTER CORPS

This includes appropriation items for the subsistence, clothing, and transportation of the Army; furnishing of nontechnical supplies; the maintenance, repair, and operation of barracks, quarters, and other buildings and utilities; procurement of horses, draft and pack animals; incidental expenses; sewerage system at Fort Monroe, Va.; and construction and repair of hospitals. Excluding part restoration of pay reductions, the principal item of increase are as follows:

Subsistence of Army, $2,091,828, due entirely to increase in the cost of the Army ration; regular supplies, $560,697, due to increased cost of forage for animals and the depletion of stocks; clothing and equipage, $918,667, due almost entirely to the depletion of clothing stocks; Army transportation, $858,135, due mainly to the necessity of providing for deferred repairs to floating and other plant and the operation of the full fleet of transports in 1935 due to the effect of economy legislation respecting the relief and replacement of overseas garrisons; and $150,000 for the purchase of horses and mules to partly replace losses.

SIGNAL CORPS

Signal Service of the Army is the only appropriation item concerned. The net increase in 1935 is approximately $300,000, exclusive of pay restoration, and is mainly for deferred repairs and the purchase of Signal Corps equipment for Army combat organizations.

AIR CORPS

The net increase over the authorized obligations for 1934, exclusive of pay restoration, is $9,600,707. As will be seen from the statement at the head of this synopsis, only $11,599,673 was authorized for obligation in 1934. This was due to an abnormally large amount of unliquidated obligations brought over from the fiscal year 1933, due to delay in delivery of new airplanes, making it necessary to restrict the incurring of new obligations in 1934 in order to keep within the limit of expenditures set for that year. Therefore, since the Air Corps can contract for the procurement of only about 94 new airplanes in 1934, it becomes necessary to provide for a greater number in 1935 to replace losses. Provision is also made for a contract authorization of $3,000,000 for the procurement of new airplanes and airplane equipment, spare parts and accessories, in addition to the amount estimated for appropriation in 1935. With the amount estimated for appropriation for 1935, plus the contract authorizations, provision is made for the procurement of 348 new airplanes, of which 333 are chargeable to the appropriation for Army Air Corps and 15 to that for the Organized Reserves. It should also be noted here that there has recently been allotted to the Army by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works the sum of $7,500,000 for the procurement of 100 combat airplanes.

The 1935 estimate provides for an average of 200 flying hours per qualified airplane pilot and in addition makes provision for the maintenance and operation of Air Corps depots and stations, service tests of new airplanes, spare parts, equipment and accessories, and for research and development work.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT

Provides for the medical and hospital department of the Army, including hospital care of Panama Canal Zone garrisons, and the maintenance and operation (except cost of personnel) of the Army Medical Museum and library. The net increase in 1935 is due mainly to the loss of revenue by the withdrawal of Veterans' Administration beneficiaries from Army hospitals and to the depletion of medical and hospital stocks of supplies.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS

Embraces items for engineer depots, school, equipment of troops, operations in the field, and military surveys and maps. The net increase, exclusive of pay restoration, results from various small increases and decreases in the items covered by this appropriation.

ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT

Comprises appropriation items for ordnance service and supplies, the maintenance and operation of Rock Island Arsenal bridges, the repair of arsenals, and the development and procurement of gages, dies, and jigs for manufacture. The net increase, exclusive of pay restoration, is $835,795, and is principally for the procurement of new ammunition and the preservation and rehabilitation of reserve ammunition.

CHEMICAL WARFARE SERVICE

Excluding restoration of pay, the 1935 estimate provides a small increase for the manufacture of gas masks and chemical mortars.

CHIEFS OF INFANTRY, CAVALRY, FIELD ARTILLERY, AND COAST ARTILLERY

Includes the service schools of these four branches of the Army. The increase is all for restoration of pay.

SEACOAST DEFENSES

This embraces, for the United States, insular possessions, and Panama Canal, the construction, maintenance, and repair of fixed fortifications; the procurement, installation, and maintenance of fire-control systems, searchlights, and submarine mine defenses; installation of fixed antiaircraft defenses; and the procurement and maintenance of ordnance and ordnance material. Various phases of the work are handled by the Corps of Engineers, the Signal Corps, the Coast Artillery Corps, and the Ordnance Department. The Budget estimate for 1935, excluding restoration of pay, is practically the same as the amount obligated for 1934.

UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY

Under this head fall the pay and allowances of cadets and civilian employees, and the maintenance, operation, and repair of the Academy. The Budget estimate for 1935, excluding restoration of pay, is practically the same as the amount obligated for 1934. An average of 1,236 cadets is provided for.

NATIONAL GUARD BUREAU

Under this head provision is made for the entire cost to the Federal Government for the equipment, maintenance, and training of the National Guard, except the pay and allowances of commissioned officers of the Regular Army and the pay of enlisted men of the Regular Army detailed as instructors. The Budget estimate for 1935 shows a net increase over 1934 obligations of $356,685. Provision is made in this estimate for holding annual encampments and 36 armory drills at full attendance strength. The average strength of the guard for 1935 is estimated at 185,000.

ORGANIZED RESERVES

The net increase for 1935 over the authorized obligations for 1934 is $802,791. The Budget estimate makes provision for 14 days' active-duty training of 12,000 Reserve officers; for detail of 6 months each on the General Staff of 10 such officers; for the detail on active duty for 1 year with tactical units of the Air Corps of the Regular Army of 200 Reserve pilots; and for attendance of from 6 to 12 weeks of 200 Reserve officers at Regular Army service schools. The estimate also provides for the maintenance and operation of 250 Organized Reserve headquarters in 192 cities, for inactive duty flying of Air Corps Reserve officers, for extension courses for Reserve officers and the furnishing of such officers with training manuals.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

The Budget estimate makes provision for the enrollment and instruction of approximately 127,500 students in Reserve Officers' Training Corps units at schools and colleges and the training of 7,200 of this number in 42-day camps. The increase in the 1935 estimate is due principally to an increase in commutation of rations to students, for clothing due to depleted stocks, and for higher cost of rations furnished in kind to students at training camps.

CITIZENS' MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS

The estimate for 1935 provides for approximately 14,000 trainees.

NATIONAL BOARD FOR THE PROMOTION OF RIFLE PRACTICE

Provision is made under this head for quartermaster supplies and services for rifle ranges for civilian instruction; for the procurement of trophies and medals; and for ordnance equipment and ammunition for civilian rifle clubs. The Budget estimate for 1935 is practically the same as the obligations for 1934.

Permanent appropriations:

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

One permanent indefinite appropriation of $900 for the payment of claims of officers and men of the Army for destruction of private property is involved.

ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT

Under this department there is one permanent appropriation which authorizes the use of not more than $75,000 in any one fiscal year from the proceeds of sales of useless ordnance material. The estimate for 1935 provides for $70,000 for this purpose.

NONMILITARY ACTIVITIES

Annual appropriations:

QUARTERMASTER CORPS

Under this head are included the appropriation items for cemetery expenses, and the care of monuments and tablets in Cuba and China. Excluding restoration of pay, the Budget estimate for 1935 is practically the same as the amount obligated for 1934.

SIGNAL CORPS

This covers the maintenance and operation of the Washington (State)-Alaska Military Cable and Telegraph System, now used almost exclusively for commercial and Government civil purposes. Excluding restoration of pay, the Budget estimate for 1935 is practically the same as the obligations for 1934. This system is now operated principally by radio, the old cable and telegraph installation being retained as a reserve system.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS

Included in the annual appropriations under this head is the maintenance and improvement of existing river and harbor works; flood control on the Mississippi and Sacramento Rivers; and emergency fund for flood control on tributaries of the Mississippi River.

The total amounts provided in the 1935 Budget for these purposes are: Maintenance and improvement of existing river and harbor works, $29,985,359; flood control, Mississippi River, $9,746,880; flood control, Sacramento River, $95,000; and emergency fund for flood control on tributaries of the Mississippi River, $341,373; a total of $40,168,612. Of this total, $15,782,294 is available from unexpended balances of prior appropriations, so that the amount submitted in the Budget for appropriation is the difference, namely, $24,386,318. This is a net reduction of $12,401,886 compared with the total authorized for obligation in 1934. With the exception of one case involving continuing contracts for work on Great Lakes connecting channels, only maintenance work is provided for in connection with rivers and harbors and flood control, adequate funds for new construction work during 1935 having been provided by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works.

Permanent appropriations:

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

Three permanent-indefinite appropriations are concerned, namely, claims for extra pay to Regular Army, War with Spain, claims of volunteers for extra pay, War with Spain, and the payment to enlisted men of the Army, upon discharge, of savings deposited by them with the Finance Department during the terms of their enlistment. The estimated amounts required in 1935 are the same as for 1934.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS

Falling under this head are the following permanent appropriations: Removing obstructions in Mississippi, Atchafalaya, and Old Rivers; operating snag and dredge boats on upper Mississippi, Illinois, and Minnesota Rivers; maintenance of channel, South Pass, Mississippi River; examinations and surveys at South Pass, Mississippi River; gaging waters of the Mississippi and its tributaries; operating snag boats on the Ohio River, permanent international commission of congresses of navigation; operating and care of canals and other works of navigation; and funds contributed and advanced for river and harbor improvements and flood control. The Budget estimate of the amount necessary to provide for these fixed charges in 1935 is $10,053,250.

UNITED STATES SOLDIERS' HOME (DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA)

This home is supported by trust funds and the interest derived therefrom, plus certain miscellaneous receipts. The estimate of withdrawals for 1935 shows an increase of $146,750.

PANAMA CANAL

Annual appropriations:

The appropriation items involved are maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government.

The amount submitted in the Budget for appropriation for the fiscal year 1935 is a net decrease of $4,142,648 below authorized obligations for 1934. The actual availability of funds for 1935, however, will be only $1,334,774 less than the 1934 obligations because of there being available $2,807,874 of unexpended balances from previous appropriations. The net decrease is principally due to a deferment of betterments which can be postponed without impairing the efficient operation of the Canal and related activities.

¹ Includes Federal contribution of $5,700,000.

The total increase of $2,747,679 in the estimates for the District of Columbia for the fiscal year 1935 as compared with the appropriations for the fiscal year 1934, includes $1,167,687 due to restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation for the fiscal year 1934, and $1,579,992 for other purposes, the latter amount resulting from various increases and decreases, the chief details of which are as follows:

Annual appropriations:

GENERAL EXPENSES

Provision is made under this heading for the salaries, and in some instances the expenses, of certain administrative and other municipal offices, including the superintendent of weights and measures, the Public Utilities Commission, the department of vehicles and traffic, the free public library, the recorder of deeds, and the register of wills. The principal increases are $5,000 for the workmen's compulsory liability fund, $5,000 for traffic lights, and $7,500 for repairs to library buildings.

CONTINGENT AND MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

Under this head are included automobile, printing, postage, and office expenses, together with the item for the Public Employment Service. The items for printing and postage each show a decrease of $15,000, while there are increases of $8,000 for multigraph equipment and $10,000 for maintenance and exchange of automobiles.

STREET AND ROAD IMPROVEMENT AND REPAIR

In addition to the items for the improvement and repair of streets and roads, there are included under this head the items for construction and repair of bridges and wharves and for the maintenance and care of trees and parking. The 1934 appropriation of $1,801,900 was supplemented by an additional amount of $1,500,000 for street and road improvement and repair to aid in the relief of unemployment, subject to allotment for that purpose in such amounts as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget might approve. Under this authority allotments have been made in the amount of $1,158,640. There has also been made available under the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act an amount of $1,918,416 for the reconstruction and improvement of streets in the District of Columbia, including the construction of the P Street Bridge across Rock Creek. The Budget estimate for 1935 includes $675,000 for the completion of the Calvert Street Bridge.

SEWERS

The sewer department constructs, maintains, and operates the sewerage and sewage disposal system. The apparent decrease for the sewer department is due to a provision for continuing available in 1935 an unexpended balance of approximately $100,000 from the 1934 appropriation for assessment and permit work. A National Industrial Recovery allotment of $1,759,500 has been made to the sewer department.

REFUSE

The estimates for the refuse department, which exercises the function of cleaning streets and of collecting and disposing of trash and garbage, remain, except for the restoration of one third of the legislative reduction in compensation for 1934, in the same amounts as the appropriations for that fiscal year.

PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS

An increase of $5,000 has been provided for the repair and improvement of playground equipment.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

For operation and maintenance of the public schools, a nonrecurring 1934 item of $63,840 for furniture for new school buildings is offset by increases of $15,000 for reequipping the Shaw Junior High School and $50,000 for repairs to school buildings. The amount of $568,000 for new building construction includes $400,000 to meet the 1935 construction expenditures for the Woodrow Wilson Senior High School and $168,000 for an addition to the Browne Junior High School.

POLICE

The estimates for the police department provide increases of $76,000 for payment of 41 street railway crossing policemen, as required by the Street Railway Merger Act of January 14, 1933, $5,000 for purchase, exchange, and maintenance of automobiles, and $5,000 for uniforms and equipment.

FIRE

The principal increase in the estimates for the fire department is an item of $30,000 for 3 new hose wagons and 1 pumping engine.

COURTS AND PRISONS

Provision is made under this head for the operation of the juvenile court, municipal court, police court, supreme court, and Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, and for the maintenance of District prisoners confined in Federal penitentiaries. The estimates provide full salary amounts for the justices of the District Supreme Court and the court of appeals, in accordance with a recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, and also include $6,000 for repairs to the roof of the District Supreme Court building.

PUBLIC WELFARE

The Board of Public Welfare has general supervision of all public penal, charitable, and correctional institutions, and of the care and maintenance of dependent and delinquent children. An increased number of inmates at most of the public-welfare institutions has required a corresponding increase in the 1935 estimates for the operation of these institutions. Increases have also been provided for the care of guardianship children, and for the full-year operation of the new Children's Tuberculosis Sanatorium. New construction items are as follows: Completion and equipment of the contagious disease ward building at Gallinger Municipal Hospital, $290,000; new water-supply system at the workhouse and reformatory, $75,000; addition to the colored women's ward at the Home for the Aged and Infirm, $11,000.

NATIONAL CAPITAL PARK AND PLANNING COMMISSION

From funds advanced by the United States under the act of May 29, 1930, the National Capital Park and Planning Commission has expended $3,531,211.94 for the purchase of park and playground lands within the District of Columbia. Of this amount $3,000,000 has been reimbursed to the United States by the municipal government in accordance with the provisions of the above-mentioned act, and the balance of $531,211.94 for reimbursement to the United States is included in the 1935 estimates.

WATER SERVICE

Under this head are the items for the operation of the Washington aqueduct and reservoirs under the jurisdiction of the Engineer Corps of the War Department, and the maintenance and extension of the distribution system under the water department of the District of Columbia. The 1934 appropriation of $1,027,000 was supplemented by an additional amount of $635,000 for extension, improvement, and repair of the distribution system to aid in the relief of unemployment, subject to allotment for those purposes in such amounts as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget might approve. Under this authority allotments have been made in the amount of $501,275.

The Budget estimates for 1935 provide for the laying of new water mains as follows: For 8,200 feet of 20-inch main in Nichols Avenue SE., from First Street to Blue Plains, $59,000; 3,000 feet of 30-inch main from a 30-inch main in Pennsylvania Avenue SE., to Eighteenth Street and Minnesota Avenue SE., $42,000; 7,500 feet of 16-inch water main in Rock Creek Church Road NW., from Upshur Street to Harewood Road and south in Harewood Road to Michigan Avenue, $46,000; and 3,100 feet of 20-inch main from Thirty-third Place and Woodley Road NW., to Connecticut Avenue in vicinity of Macomb Street NW., $25,000.

The 1935 Budget authorizes the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to allow a reduction of not to exceed 25 percent in the water charges fixed by existing law, and increases to 10,000 cubic feet the present metered allowance of 7,500 cubic feet.

Permanent appropriations:

The net decrease of $267,500 in the total of the estimates of permanent appropriations for the fiscal year 1935 represents the following increases and decreases in the estimates of expenditures from such funds: Increases: Refunding taxes, $15,000; extension of streets and avenues, $25,000; policemen's and firemen's relief fund, $20,000. Decreases: Industrial Home School fund, $500; escheated estates relief fund, $2,000; teachers' retirement fund deductions, $10,000; miscellaneous trust-fund deposits, $125,000; Washington redemption fund, $175,000; permit fund, $15,000.

CLASSIFICATION OF ESTIMATES AND EXPENDITURES BY GOVERNMENTAL FUNCTIONS

The following is a brief general outline of the character of expenditures and estimates of expenditures comprehended within each general function:

Legislative.—Those for the activities of Congress as a legislative body.

Judicial.—Those having to do with the judicial branch of the Government. They include all United States courts other than the District of Columbia courts which are included under "District of Columbia, Territorial, and other local governments."

Executive.—Those of the Executive Office, including the salary and expenses of the President and the salary of the Vice President.

General administration.—Those for administrative agencies which are of a general character and those departmental activities which cannot now be allocated to specific functions.

Construction of general Government buildings, including sites.—Those for the construction of buildings for general administrative purposes in the District of Columbia and for buildings used for administrative purposes in common by various branches of the Government outside the District of Columbia.

National defense.—Those for military activities of the War Department and the naval and military activities of the Navy Department. Retired pay of officers and enlisted men is included.

Military pensions, annuities, compensation, homes and hospitals for war veterans, and life insurance claims.—Those for military pensions and other forms of compensation for past military services, construction and maintenance of hospitals and soldiers' homes, and other activities of the Veterans' Administration for the care of veterans.

Foreign relations and protection of American interests abroad.—Those for the activities of the State Department in the conduct of relations of foreign governments, local representation abroad, cooperation for settlement of international controversies, and the promotion of friendly intercourse with foreign peoples.

General law enforcement.—Those for activities having to do with the enforcement of the general laws and the administration and enforcement of special acts like the National Prohibition Act and the Narcotic Act.

Provisions for control of currency and banking.—Those connected with the regulation of currency and of banking through the office of the Comptroller of the Currency and Public Debt Service, the Federal Reserve Board, the Bureau of the Mint, and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Administration of Indian affairs.—Those for the care and education of the Indian wards of the Nation.

Administration of the public domain.—Those having to do with the care and utilization of public lands, the national forests, and national parks.

Promotion and regulation of commerce and industry.—Those for activities having to do with the promotion and regulation of commerce and industry.

Promotion and regulation of aerial transportation.—Those for the promotion and regulation of commercial aerial transportation as distinguished from aerial activities in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, which is included under national defense.

Promotion, regulation, and operation of marine transportation.—Those for activities having to do with the preparation of charts and sailing directions, the supplying of public facilities for navigation, the provision for a merchant marine, the rescue and relief of seamen and passengers, and the activities of the United States Shipping Board and Merchant Fleet Corporation.

Promotion and regulation of land transportation.—Those activities having to do with the promotion and regulation of land transportation, including the Federal control of transportation systems exercised during the World War and the payments and advances made since the termination of Federal control in the form of guaranties, as provided by the transportation act of 1920.

Postal Service.—Those for the deficiencies in postal revenues paid from the Treasury.

Promotion and regulation of agriculture.—Those for activities of the Farm Credit Administration (excepting those included under the function of "Relief expenditures") and the Department of Agriculture in the promotion of agriculture and game preservation.

Promotion and regulation of fisheries.—Those for activities connected with the propagation and distribution of food fishes, the protection of Alaska seal and salmon fisheries, and other like activities.

Promotion of labor interests.—Those for activities having to do with the compilation of labor laws and statistics, the investigation of labor questions, the improvement in housing conditions, the establishment of employment agencies, the payments made by the Employees' Compensation Commission to Government employees from the compensation fund, and other like activities.

Immigration and naturalization.—Those involved in regulating immigration, preventing importation of contract labor, the enforcement of laws against alien anarchists, deportation of aliens, care of interned aliens, and the regulation of naturalization.

Promotion of public health.—Those for activities having to do with the promotion and protection of public health, exclusive of medical activities in the Army and Navy and of the care of sick and disabled veterans under the Veterans' Administration.

Promotion of public education.—Those for activities having to do with the promotion of public education and all activities of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

Science and research, general.—Those for activities having to do with the investigation and publication of knowledge gained and verified by exact observation; the reporting of results of investigations that have been worked out and systematized concerning some subject or group of subjects of ascertained facts. Research incident to the study of subjects, or development of matériel, necessary for the accomplishment of objects under other functional headings are not included; for example, insect research for eradication of particular pests under promotion of agriculture, development of a particular arm or weapon under national defense, etc.

Public improvements.—Those involving capital expenditures in constructing public improvements within and without the District of Columbia, other than those outlays for plant facilities and additions which, being essential to the proper performance of specific activities, are included under their respective functions. For a compilation of all outlays for public works, see Budget Statement No. 9, page A88.

District of Columbia, Territorial and other local governments.—Those for the District of Columbia and Alaska, Hawaii, and other insular possessions and such aid as is given to State governments by the Federal Government in the form of subventions, exclusive of specific grants for education, public health, construction of rural post roads, etc.

Relief expenditures.—Those for economic relief of unemployment, agriculture, home owners, financial institutions, etc., and for relief to American citizens abroad, contributions toward the maintenance of foreign hospitals which admit citizens of the United States, and other like welfare operations, both foreign and domestic.

Refunds, losses, and miscellaneous.—Those for repayment or refund of the whole or part of an amount or amounts previously received in payment of indebtedness to the United States, and losses, such as charges on bullion sold, recoinage of gold, silver, and minor coins, and other bullion and coinage losses; it also includes the trust funds comprising the savings system for the enlisted men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps.

Fixed debt charges.—Those expenditures required to be made from ordinary receipts in the redemption and purchase of outstanding bonded indebtedness. They also include the amount of interest paid on the public debt, all of which is payable from ordinary receipts. Refunding operations and additional redemptions paid from surplus and balances are not included.

NOTE 1.—Additional expenditures on these accounts for the fiscal year 1934 are included under "Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works."

NOTE 2.—The classification of general expenditures for public-building construction and sites, Treasury Department, and for War Department (nonmilitary) prior to the fiscal year 1934 is not available, and such expenditures are therefore included in general expenditures under Treasury Department and National Defense—Army, respectively.

NOTE 3.—On and after May 27, 1933, repayments of loans made from Agricultural Marketing Fund—Federal Farm Board, and interest thereon, are reflected as credits in the expenditures of the Farm Credit Administration.

NOTE 4.—Emergency expenditures prior to the fiscal year 1934 (except Reconstruction Finance Corporation) are included in general expenditures, the classification of which emergency expenditures is not available for comparison with emergency expenditures for the fiscal year 1934. Therefore, neither the totals of general expenditures nor the totals of emergency expenditures for the fiscal year 1934 are comparable with the totals for prior fiscal years.

NOTE 5.—Total expenditures and excess of expenditures for the fiscal year 1933 include expenditures made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, whereas the expenditure statement for that year did not show Reconstruction Finance Corporation expenditures.

BUDGET STATEMENT NO. 13

Statement of balances of appropriations of June 30, 1933, and of appropriations for the fiscal year 1934 (including permanent and indefinite appropriations), as of Nov. 1, 1933, reported by the Secretary of the Treasury

This statement is included in the Budget only because of the requirements of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921 (U.S.C., title 31, sec. 11 (e)). As budgetary information, the statement has little if any value, as it simply shows the balances of appropriations on the books of the Treasury June 30, 1933, classified as between 1934 appropriations and those of prior years according to whether the funds were appropriated as "immediately available"

NOTE.—1933 appropriation supplemented by $450,000 made available from 1934 appropriation and expended in 1933; total available for year, $2,700,000.

1934 appropriation decreased by $450,000 made available and expended in 1933, net amount, $1,300,000; authorized by law to be increased by $1,000,000 from compensation deductions in 1934; total to be actually available for year, if compensation deductions amount to $1,000,000, $2,300,000.

Printing and binding for Congress chargeable to the foregoing appropriation, when recommended to be done by the Committee on Printing of either House, shall be so recommended in a report containing an approximate estimate of the cost thereof, together with a statement from the Public Printer of estimated approximate cost of work previously ordered by Congress within the fiscal year for which this appropriation is made.

During the fiscal year [1934] 1935 any executive department or independent establishment of the Government ordering printing and binding from the Government Printing Office shall pay promptly by check to the Public Printer upon his written request, either in advance or upon completion of the work, all or part of the estimated or actual cost thereof, as the case may be, and bills rendered by the Public Printer in accordance herewith shall not be subject to audit or certification in advance of payment: Provided, That proper adjustments on the basis of the actual cost of delivered work paid for in advance shall be made monthly or quarterly and as may be agreed upon by the Public Printer and the department or establishment concerned. All sums paid to the Public Printer for work that he is authorized by law to do shall be deposited to the credit on the books of the Treasury Department, of the appropriation made for the working capital of the Government Printing Office, for the year in which the work is done, and be subject to requisition by the Public Printer.

All amounts in the Budget for the fiscal year [1935] 1936 for printing and binding for any department or establishment, so far as the Bureau of the Budget may deem practicable, shall be incorporated in a single item for printing and binding for such department or establishment and be eliminated as a part of any estimate for any other purpose. And if any amounts for printing and binding are included as a part of any estimates for any other purposes, such amounts shall be set forth in detail in a note immediately following the general estimate for printing and binding: Provided, That the foregoing requirements shall not apply to work to be executed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

No part of any money appropriated in this Act shall be paid to any person employed in the Government Printing Office while detailed for or performing service in any other executive branch of the public service of the United States unless such detail be authorized by law (act Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat., p. 1366).

Salaries and Expenses, Veterans' Administration—

Administration, medical, hospital, and domiciliary services: For all salaries and expenses of the Veterans' Administration, including the expenses of maintenance and operation of medical, hospital, and domiciliary services of the Veterans' Administration, in carrying out the duties, powers, and functions devolving upon it pursuant to the authority contained in the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the President to consolidate and coordinate governmental activities affecting war veterans", approved July 3, 1930 (U.S.C., Supp. VI, title 38, secs. 11-11f), and any and all laws for which the Veterans' Administration is now or may hereafter be charged with administering, $85,773,000: Provided, That when found to be to the best interest of the United States, not to exceed $500,000 of this amount may be used for payments to State institutions caring for and maintaining veterans, suffering from neuropsychiatric ailments, who are in such institutions on the date of the enactment of this Act: Provided, That not to exceed $8,000,000 of this amount shall be available for all expenses and maintenance of all regional offices of the Veterans' Administration $76,649,907: Provided, That not to exceed $3,500 of this amount shall be available for expenses, except membership fees, of employees detailed by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs to attend meetings of associations for the promotion of medical science and annual national conventions of organized war veterans: Provided further, That this appropriation shall be available also for personal services and rentals in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, including traveling expenses; examination of estimates of appropriations in the field, including actual expenses of subsistence or per diem allowance in lieu thereof; for expenses incurred in packing, crating, drayage, and transportation of household effects and other property, not exceeding in any one case five thousand pounds, of employees when transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty and when specifically authorized by the administrator; furnishing and laundering of such wearing apparel as may be prescribed for employees in the performance of their official duties; purchase and exchange of law books, books of reference, periodicals, and newspapers; for passenger-carrying and other motor vehicles, including purchase, maintenance, repair, and operation of same, including not more than two passenger automobiles for general administrative use of the [bureau] Central Office in the District of Columbia [and three for the Washington, District of Columbia, regional office]; and notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, the Administrator is authorized to utilize Government-owned automotive equipment in transporting children of Veterans' Administration employees located at isolated stations to and from school under such limitations as he may by regulation prescribe; and notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, the Administrator is authorized to expend during the fiscal year [1934 not to exceed $2,000 for actuarial services] 1935 not to exceed $4,000 for actuarial services pertaining to the Government life insurance fund and the civil-service retirement fund, to be obtained by contract, without obtaining competition, at such rates of compensation as he may determine to be reasonable; [for operating expenses of the Arlington Building and annex, and the Wilkins Building, including repairs and mechanical equipment, fuel, electric current, ice, ash removal, and miscellaneous items;] for allotment and transfer to the Public Health Service, the War, Navy, and Interior Departments, for disbursement by them under the various headings of their applicable appropriations, of such amounts as are necessary for the care and treatment of beneficiaries of the Veterans' Administration, including minor repairs and improvements of existing facilities under their jurisdiction necessary to such care and treatment; for expenses incidental to the maintenance and operation of farms; for recreational articles and facilities at institutions maintained by the Veterans' Administration; for administrative expenses incidental to securing employment for war veterans; for funeral, burial, and other expenses incidental thereto for beneficiaries of the Veterans' Administration accruing during the fiscal year [1934] 1935 or prior fiscal years: Provided further, That the appropriations herein made for the care and maintenance of veterans in hospitals or homes under the jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration shall be available for the purchase of tobacco to be furnished, subject to such regulations as the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs shall prescribe, to veterans receiving hospital treatment or domiciliary care in Veterans' Administration hospitals or homes: [Provided further, That the appropriations herein made for medical and hospital services under the jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration shall be available, not to exceed $5,000, for experimental purposes to determine the value of certain types of treatment: ] Provided further, That [the appropriations herein made for domiciliary care] this appropriation shall be available for continuing aid to State or Territorial homes for the support of disabled volunteer soldiers and sailors, in conformity with the Act approved August 27, 1888 (U.S.C., title 24, sec. 134), as amended, [including all classes of veterans admissible to the Veterans' Administration homes] for those veterans eligible for admission to Veterans' Administration facilities for domiciliary care. [Provided further, That the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs may, with the concurrence of the Attorney General, transfer to the Department of Justice such personnel and/or funds as may be deemed necessary in connection with the defense of suits against the United States under section 19 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended: Provided further, That Section 6, Title I, of the Act entitled "An Act to maintain the credit of the United States Government," approved March 20, 1933, is hereby amended to read as follows: "Sec. 6. In addition to the pensions provided in this title the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is hereby authorized under such limitations as may be prescribed by the President, and within the limits of existing Veterans' Administration facilities, to furnish to men discharged from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard for disabilities incurred in line of duty and to veterans of any war, including the Boxer rebellion and the Philippine insurrection, domiciliary care where they are suffering with permanent disabilities, tuberculosis, or neuropsychiatric ailments and medical and hospital treatment for diseases or injuries." **]

No part of this appropriation shall be expended for the purchase of any site for or toward the construction of any new hospital or home, or for the purchase of any hospital or home; and not more than $4,000,000 $3,269,500 of this appropriation may be used to repair, alter, improve, or provide facilities in the several hospitals and homes under the jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration either by contract or by the hire of temporary employees and the purchase of materials (U.S.C., title 5, secs. 691-738; title 24, secs. 71-154; title 38, secs. 1-683; U.S.C., Supp. VI, title 5, secs. 691-738; title 24, secs. 77a-137, 195; title 38, secs. 9-682; acts Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat., p. 1429; Mar. 2, 1931, 46 Stat., p. 1471; Mar. 20, 1933, 48 Stat., pp. 8-16; June 16, 1933, 48 Stat., pp. 300-302).

Permanent specific appropriation:

Cooperative Agricultural Extension Work—

For the purpose of paying the expenses of cooperative agricultural extension work and the necessary printing and distributing of information in connection with same, there is permanently appropriated $480,000 for each year, $10,000 of which is paid annually to each State which has by action of its legislature assented to the provisions of the act. There was also appropriated an additional sum of $600,000 for the fiscal year following that in which the foregoing appropriation first became available, and for each year thereafter for seven years a sum exceeding by $500,000 the sum appropriated for each preceding year, and for each year thereafter there is permanently appropriated the sum of $4,100,000 in addition to the sum of $480,000. The additional sums are allotted annually to each State by the Secretary of Agriculture and paid in the proportion which the rural population of each State bears to the rural population of all the States as determined by the next preceding Federal census, but no payment out of the additional appropriations can be made in any year to any State until an equal sum has been appropriated for that year by the legislature of such State, or provided by State, county, college, local authority, or individual contributions from within the State, for the maintenance of cooperative agricultural extension work. On May 16, 1928 (U.S.C., Supp. VI, title 7, secs. 386-386b), this appropriation was amended to include a permanent allotment to the Territory of Hawaii of $10,000 plus an additional sum of $12,935.43, subject to the same terms and conditions as the original act. The permanent annual appropriation was thereby increased to $4,602,935.43. Under the 1930 census the amount of money available to Hawaii increased by $3,160, thereby automatically raising the total amount available under the original Smith-Lever Act by this amount. The Act of March 4, 1931, provides that the Smith-Lever Act and Acts supplementary thereto be increased without diminishing the amount now received by any State or other Territory, to carry out the provisions of this Act in the Territory of Puerto Rico, and specifies that the appropriation for 1933 and subsequent years shall be $50,000, this amount to be increased by $10,000 annually, or such part thereof as may be necessary, until the total to which Puerto Rico is entitled under the provisions of this Act is reached. The permanent annual appropriation is thereby increased to [$4,666,096] $4,676,096, but pursuant to Executive Order No. 6166 of June 10, 1933, section 18 of which requires that payments for agricultural extension work be reduced 25 percent, this appropriation is reduced to $3,507,072. (U.S.C., title 7, secs. 342, 343; U.S.C. Supp. VI, title 7, secs. 386-386b).

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

Salaries and Expenses, Bureau of Animal Industry—

For carrying out the provisions of the Act approved May 29, 1884 (U.S.C., title 7, sec. 391; title 21, secs. 112-119, 130), establishing a Bureau of Animal Industry, and the provisions of the Act approved March 3, 1891 (U.S.C., title 45, secs. 75, 76), providing for the safe transport and humane treatment of export cattle from the United States to foreign countries, and for other purposes; the Act approved August 30, 1890 (U.S.C., title 21, secs. 101-105), providing for the importation of animals into the United States, and for other purposes; and the provisions of the Act approved February 2, 1903 (U.S.C., title 21, secs. 111-113, 120-122), to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to more effectually suppress and prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases of livestock, and for other purposes; and also the provisions of the Act approved March 3, 1905 (U.S.C., title 21, secs. 123-128) to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to establish and maintain quarantine districts, to permit and regulate the movement of cattle and other livestock therefrom, and for other purposes; and for carrying out the provisions of the Act of June 29, 1906 (U.S.C., title 45, secs. 71-74), entitled "An Act to prevent cruelty to animals while in transit by railroad or other means of transportation"; and for carrying out the provisions of the Act approved March 4, 1913 (U.S.C., title 21, secs. 151-158), regulating the preparation, sale, barter, exchange, or shipment of any virus, serum, toxin, or analogous products manufactured in the United States and the importation of such products intended for use in the treatment of domestic animals; and for carrying out the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, approved August 15, 1921 (U.S.C., title 7, secs. 181-229); and to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to collect and disseminate information concerning livestock and animal products; to prepare and disseminate reports on animal industry; to employ and pay from the appropriation herein made as many persons in the city of Washington or elsewhere as he may deem necessary; to purchase in the open market samples of all tuberculin, serums, antitoxins, or analogous products, of foreign or domestic manufacture, which are sold in the United States, for the detection, prevention, treatment, or cure of diseases of domestic animals, to test the same, and to disseminate the results of said tests in such manner as he may deem best; to purchase and destroy diseased or exposed animals, including poultry, or quarantine the same whenever in his judgment essential to prevent the spread of pleuropneumonia, tuberculosis, contagious poultry diseases, or other diseases of animals from one State to another, as follows (U.S.C., title 5, secs. 511, 512; title 7, secs. 181-229, 391; title 21, secs. 101-105, 111-127, 130, 151-158; title 45, secs. 71-76; U.S.C., Supp. VI, title 7, secs. 205, 231; act Mar. 3, 1933, 47 Stat., p. 1439):

General administrative expenses: For necessary expenses for general administrative purposes, including the salary of chief of bureau and other personal services in the District of Columbia, [$170,915] $162,185 (U.S.C., title 5, secs. 511, 512; title 7, secs. 181-229, 391; title 21, secs. 101-105, 111-128, 130, 151-158; title 45, secs. 71-76; U.S.C., Supp. VI, title 7, secs. 205, 231; act Mar. 3, 1933, 47 Stat., p. 1439).

Eradication of Foot-and-Mouth and Other Contagious Diseases of Animals—

In case of an emergency arising out of the existence of foot-and-mouth disease, rinderpest, contagious pleuropneumonia, or other contagious or infectious disease of animals, which, in the opinion of the Secretary of Agriculture, threatens the livestock industry of the country, he may expend, in the city of Washington or elsewhere, any unexpended balances of appropriations heretofore made for this purpose in the arrest and eradication of any such disease, including the payment of claims growing out of past and future purchases and destruction, in cooperation with the States, of animals affected by or exposed to, or of materials contaminated by or exposed to, any such disease, wherever found and irrespective of ownership, under like or substantially similar circumstances, when such owner has complied with all lawful quarantine regulations: Provided, That the payment for animals hereafter purchased may be made on appraisement based on the meat, dairy, or breeding value, but in case of appraisement based on breeding value no appraisement of any animal shall exceed three times its meat or dairy value, and, except in case of an extraordinary emergency, to be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, the payment by the United States Government for any animals shall not exceed one-half of any such appraisements: Provided further, That the sum of $5,000 of the unexpended balance of the appropriation of $3,500,000, contained in the Second Deficiency Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1924, approved December 5, 1924, for the eradication of the foot-and-mouth disease and other contagious or infectious diseases of animals, is hereby made available during the fiscal year [1934] 1935 to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to control and eradicate the European fowl pest and similar diseases in poultry (U.S.C., title 21, secs. 112-115, 117-119, 129, 130; act Mar. 3, 1933, 47 Stat., p. 1442).

Permanent indefinite appropriation:

Refund to Depositors Excess of Deposits, National Forests Fund—

All money received, by or on account of the Forest Service for timber, or from any other source of forest-reservation revenue, is covered into the Treasury of the United States as a miscellaneous receipt; and there is appropriated so much as may be necessary to make refunds to depositors of money deposited by them in excess of amounts found actually due from them to the United States, and so much as may be necessary to refund to the rightful claimants such sums as may be found to have been erroneously collected for the use of lands, or for timber or other resources sold from lands located within, but not a part of, the national forests, or for alleged illegal acts done upon such lands, which acts are subsequently found to have been proper and legal (U.S.C., title 16, sec. 499).

Estimate 1935, $60,000

Appropriated 1934, $75,000

⁵³ Refunds, awards, and indemnities: Obligations—1935, $60,000; 1934, $60,000 (estimated savings and unobligated balance, $15,000); 1933, $69,340.

Permanent specific appropriation:

National Forest Reservation Commission—

A sum sufficient to pay the necessary expenses of the commission and its members, not to exceed an annual expenditure of $25,000, has been appropriated, to be paid out on the audit and order of the president of the commission, which audit and order is conclusive and binding upon all departments as to the correctness of the accounts of the commission (U.S.C., title 16, secs. 513, 514).

Special funds:

Payments to States and Territories from the National Forests Fund—

Twenty five per cent of all money received from each forest reserve during any fiscal year is paid at the end thereof by the Secretary of the Treasury to the State or Territory in which the reserve is situated, to be expended as the State or Territorial legislature may prescribe for the benefit of the public schools and public roads of the county or counties in which the forest reserve is situated. When any forest reserve is in more than one State or Territory or county, the distributive share to each from the proceeds of the reserve is proportional to its area therein (U.S.C., title 16, sec. 500).

BUREAU OF PUBLIC ROADS

Cooperative Construction of Rural Post Roads—

For necessary expenses of the Bureau of Public Roads, including salaries and the employment of labor in the city of Washington and elsewhere, supplies, office and laboratory fixtures and apparatus, traveling and other necessary expenses; for conducting research and investigational studies, either independently or in cooperation with State highway departments, or other agencies including studies of highway administration, legislation, finance, economics, transport, construction, operation, maintenance, utilization, and safety, and of street and highway traffic control; investigations and experiments in the best methods of road making, especially by the use of local materials; studies of types of mechanical plants and appliances used for road building and maintenance and of methods of road repair and maintenance suited to the needs of different localities; and maintenance and repairs of experimental highways, including the purchase of materials and equipment; for furnishing expert advice on these subjects; for collating, reporting, and illustrating the results of same; and for preparing, publishing, and distributing bulletins and reports; to be paid from any moneys available from the administrative funds provided under the Act of July 11, 1916 [(U.S.C., title 23, sec. 21)], (39 Stat., pp. 355-359), as amended, or as otherwise provided (U.S.C., title 5, secs. 511, 512; title 23, sec. 21; U.S.C., Supp. VI, title 23, sec. 54; act Mar. 3, 1933, 47 Stat., pp. 1455-1456).

Federal-aid highway system: For carrying out the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in the construction of rural post roads, and for other purposes," approved July 11, 1916 (39 Stat., pp. 355-359), and all Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, to be expended in accordance with the provisions of said Act, as amended, including not to exceed $672,009 $176,400 for departmental personal services in the District of Columbia, $35,000,000, $11,000,000, to be immediately available and to remain available until expended, which sum is a part of the sum of $125,000,000 authorized to be appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933 by section 1 of the Act approved April 4, 1930 (46 Stat., p. 141) [after deducting $15,840,743.86 in making the apportionment of said authorization to the States, in accordance with the Act of December 20, 1930 (46 Stat., p. 1031)]: Provided, That none of the money herein appropriated shall be paid to any State on account of any project on which convict labor shall be employed, except this provision shall not apply to convict labor performed by convicts on parole or probation: Provided further, That not to exceed $45,000 of the funds provided for carrying out the provisions of the Federal Highway Act of November 9, 1921 (U.S.C., title 23, secs. 21 and 23), shall be available for the purchase of motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles necessary for carrying out the provisions of said Act, including the replacement of not to exceed one such vehicle for use in the administrative work of the Bureau of Public Roads in the District of Columbia: Provided further, That whenever performing authorized engineering or other services in connection with the survey, construction and maintenance, or improvement of roads for other Government agencies the charge for such services may include depreciation on engineering and road building equipment used, and the amounts received on account of such charges shall be credited to the appropriation concerned: Provided, That hereafter in the administration of the Federal Highway Act and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, the first paragraph of section 9 of the Act of November 9, 1921, shall not apply to publicly owned toll bridges or approaches thereto, constructed and operated by the highway department of any State, subject, however, to the condition that all tolls received from the operation of any such bridge, less the actual cost of operation and maintenance, shall be applied to the repayment of the cost of its construction, and when the cost of its construction shall have been repaid in full, such bridge thereafter shall be maintained and operated as a free bridge.] (U.S.C., title 23, secs. 1-52; acts July 11, 1916, 39 Stat., pp. 355-359; Mar. 3, 1933, 47 Stat., pp. 1456-1457).
