Four State Directors named by National Youth Administration.

Appointment of directors of the National Youth Administration for four States was announced today by Aubrey W. Williams, Executive Director of the National Youth Administration. The States for which Directors have been named are: California, Ohio, Wisconsin and Wyoming. The appointments follow:

California--Mrs. Earl Treadwell of San Francisco. For two years Mrs. Treadwell was a member of the San Francisco Relief Committee and a member of the California Emergency Relief Commission. She is one of the younger leaders of women's organizations and was for two years president of the San Francisco Center (Women's City Club and Open Forum). Mrs. Treadwell has been especially interested in young people's activities and welfare.

Ohio--S. Burns Weston of Cleveland. Mr. Weston is a member of the law firm of Thompson, Hine, and Flory, doing trial work for almost six years. He is a graduate of Antioch and obtained his law degree at Yale. He is 31 years old, married and has interested himself in young people's problems since his college days.

Wisconsin--John Lasher of Milwaukee. Mr. Lasher is about 40 years of age. He is in charge of labor relations of the Milwaukee Vocational school, the largest school of its kind in the world. He is also connected with the State Vocational Education Department.

Wyoming--Ernest P. Marschall of Cheyenne. Mr. Marschall is about 39 years of age, is an educational consultant for the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and served as principal of the Cheyenne High School. He has interested himself in the problems of youth for many years.
