Hopkins announces regional director for Women's Division of WPA.

Harry L. Hopkins, Works Progress Administrator, today announced the appointment of Mrs. Lula Martin McIver Scott of Greensboro, North Carolina, as regional director of women's activities in the New England States. Mrs. Scott is attached to the Women's Division of which Mrs. Ellen S. Woodward, Assistant Administrator, is the head, and is one of five women regional directors who will serve under Mrs. Woodward throughout the country. She is assigned to the staff of R. C. Branion, field representative of the Works Progress Administration in Region #1, which includes Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New York, District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

Mrs. Scott has been a field representative in the Women's Division of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration since September 1933. She served as a member of the Board of Directors of the University of North Carolina and in 1927 was the organizer and manager of the work relief program for women in Greensboro.
