Governor McNutt appointed member of Advisory Board for Works Progress Administration.

Harry L. Hopkins, Works Progress Administrator, today announced the appointment of Governor Paul V. McNutt of Indiana as a member of the Works Progress Advisory Board.

Including Governor McNutt, the board now comprises four members. They are Edward A. O'Neal III of Alabama, President of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Ernest L. Klein of Chicago, Associate Publisher of National Weeklies and Publisher of the Staats-Herald; and George Creel of San Francisco, author. The board will consist of from five to seven members.

Governor McNutt is Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Governors' Conference, a national organization of State Governors and was National Commander of the American Legion in 1928 and 1929.

The Works Progress Advisory Board was established to provide WPA with the benefit of advice from qualified people representing important segments of American life. Members of the board will act as outside observers of the Works Progress Administration activities and have been asked to give the assistance of their unbiased, unobstructed perspective of its operation. Members of the board will receive no salary, except the customary $25 a day paid advisors when actually on government business.
