Industrial Production--1957-59 Base

As announced in the October 1962 issue of the Federal Reserve Bulletin, the industrial production index has been shifted to a 1957-59 base for the period back to 1919. Also, for the period since 1957, all seasonal adjustment factors have been reviewed and a few of the underlying production series have been revised.

A description of the revision and the detailed results will be available in a separate pamphlet entitled, Industrial Production--1957-59 Base. This pamphlet, which will be available in early December, will contain tables for the revised indexes on the new base from January 1947 through December 1961 and will include the following:

1. Source and description for all series with the 1957-59 proportions for the market and industry structures of the index.
2. Seasonally adjusted and unadjusted indexes for the market and industry groupings.
3. Unadjusted indexes for subtotals and individual series.
4. Seasonal adjustment factors, directly calculated or implied, for all published seasonally adjusted series.
5. The total index and indexes for the five major industry divisions on the new base back to January 1919.

Figures for the period since December 1961 for market and industry groupings, as well as for subtotals and individual series, are published in the enclosed November issue of the "Business Indexes" release. Beginning with the November issue, the Bulletin will show figures on the new base for the total index and for market and industry groupings, seasonally adjusted and unadjusted. Indexes on the 1947-49 and 1957 bases are being discontinued.

Copies of Industrial Production--1957-59 Base may be obtained for $1.00 per copy or $.85 apiece for 10 or more for single shipment. The price of the pamphlet Industrial Production--1959 Revision has been reduced to 50 cents per copy. Copies of the Industrial Production Chartbook (1959 revision) are available for free distribution. Orders should be addressed to the Division of Administrative Services, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington 25, D. C.
