R&S ric - 20Retail Instalment Credit
at Furniture, Household Appliance, and Jewelry Stores
March 1944

Instalment accounts outstanding at jewelry and furniture stores declined by about the usual seasonal amount in March. For the first time in more than two years instalment accounts receivable of household appliance stores showed no decrease from the level of the preceding month. In comparison with the corresponding date last year jewelry store accounts receivable on March 31 were down only 2 per cent, whereas those of furniture and household appliance stores declined 28 per cent and 78 per cent, respectively.

Collections on instalment accounts during March increased substantially at household appliance, jewelry and furniture stores. At household appliance stores the collection ratio reached a new high of 26 per cent, while at jewelry and furniture stores the collection ratios rose to 35 per cent and 23 per cent, respectively.
