R&S ric - 38Retail Instalment Credit
at Furniture, Household Appliance, and Jewelry Stores

September 1945

Instalment accounts outstanding at furniture stores increased slightly in September, and continued in about the same volume as a year earlier. Household appliance store accounts receivable, for the eighth consecutive month, were unchanged from the level of the preceding month. At jewelry stores accounts outstanding decreased further, but on September 30 were two per cent larger than on the corresponding date last year.

The September collection ratio on instalment accounts at furniture and household appliance stores remained at the August levels of 23 per cent and 48 per cent, respectively. Collections at jewelry stores during September were 29 per cent of instalment accounts outstanding on the first of the month.
