Retail Instalment Credit at Furniture and Household Appliance Stores

JUNE 1952

Instalment accounts outstanding at furniture stores increased about 3 per cent during June. Balances at the month-end were up 9 per cent from a year ago, but were at about the same level as June 1950. Instalment accounts outstanding at household appliance stores increased approximately 5 per cent from May 31 to the end of June, but were 4 per cent below a year ago.

Instalment collection ratios dropped 1 point in June for both furniture and household appliance stores. Collections on instalment accounts at furniture stores amounted to 10 per cent of balances outstanding at the beginning of the month; for household appliance stores, the collection ratio in June was 12 per cent.
