1 Unused commitments are the amounts still awailable for lending under official promises to lend that are expressly conveyed to the bank's customers orally or in writing, usually in the form of a formally executed agreement signed by one of the bank's officers.

2Commitments for term loans are those for loans with an original maturity of more than 1 year.
3 Revolving credits are commitment agreements whereby the borrower may draw and repay loans at will with no repayment penalty and under which the committment rebounds by an equal amount after a takedown has been repaid.

40 ther commitments are expressions of willingness to lend, other than for term loens and re-wolving credits, that are made known to the customer and are characterized by detailed formal agreements specifying the terms and conditions under which a boen is to be made.
${ }^{5}$ Confirmed lines of credit represent general expressions of willingness to lend, other than for verm loons or revolving credits, that are made known to the customer but are not characterized by detaised formal agreements specifying the terms and conditions under which a loan is to be made.

NOTE.-iricluded in this saries are 134 weekly reporting banks; these banks account for approximately 85 per cent of commercial and industrial loans, and 95 per cent of nonbank financial loens. Individual iterns may not add to totals due to rounding.
