r...revised.

1. Unused commitiments are the amounts still avalable for lending under offic:al promises to lend that are expressly conveved to the bank's customers orally or in writing, usually in the form of a formaily executed agreement signed by one of the bank's officers.
2. Commitments for term loans are those for loans with an original maturity of more than one year.
3. Revolving credits are commitment agreements whereby the borrower may draw and repay loans at will with no repayment penalty and under which the commitment rebounds by an equal amount after a takedown has been repaid.
4. Other commitments are expressions of willingness to lend, other than for term loans and revolving credits, that are made known to the customer and are characterized by detaled formal agreements spectiving the ferens and conditions under which a loan is to be made.
5. Confirmed lines of credit represent general expressions of wilhugness to lend, other than for term loans or revolving credits, that are made known io the customer but are not characterized by detailed formal agreements specifying the terms and conditions under which a loan is to be made.

NOTE: Included in this series are 122 weekly reporting banks accounting for approximately 85 percent of ail commercial and industriai loans, and 95 percent of all nonbank financial loans. As of February 1981. severat bank; accounting for less than $1 / 2$ percent of unused commitments were dropped from the reporting panel. Individual items may not add to totals due to rounding.

* Beginning in December, 1981, shifts of foreign loans from U.S. banking offices to international banking facilities have reduced the levels of outstanding loans. No information is available on how these shifts affect unused loan commitments.

5. Loans made under confirmed lines of credit are loans made unde general expressions of willingness to lend, other than for term ioans or re volving credits. that are made known to the customer but are not charac terized by detailed forinal agreements specifying the terms and conditons under which a loan is to be made

NOTE: Included in this series are 122 weekly reportine banks accounting for approximately 85 percent of all commercial and industrial loans, and 95 percent of all nonbank financial loans. As of February 1981, several banks accounting in total for about $1 / 2$ percent of loans made under commitments were dropped from the reporting panei. Individual items may not add to totals due to rounding

* Beginning in December, 1981 , shifts of foreign loans from U.S. banking offices to international banking facilities have reduced the levels of outstanding loans. At banks included in this survey, $l. 5 billion of commercial and industrial loans were shifted, all but a negligible amount during December. It is believed that the bulk of these loans were made under commitments
