Federal Reserve Board.
 June 28, 1919.

Below is given the Federal Reserve Board's regular weekly statement of total debits to deposit account, reported through the Federal Reserve banks by about 150 of the country's more important clearing houses. Transactions cover the weekly periods ending Wednesday June 18 and 25, 1919.

Debits to individual account for the week under review are about 16 per cent below the exceptionally high figure of the previous week, but compare favorably with the average for the earlier months of the year. Of the larger centers Boston alone reports a higher figure than the week before, while more than average decreases are shown for New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Detroit, St. Louis, Dallas, and San Francisco.

Debits to bank account also show a decline, but only of about 5 per cent, some of the larger centers, including Baltimore, Detroit, Minneapolis, and Kansas City, reporting increases under this head.

The statement closes with a recapitulation giving comparative figures by reserve districts of 152 centers reporting complete data for both weeks. Figures for reporting clearing houses by Federal Reserve districts are as follows:
