BANK DEBITS

Below is given the Federal Reserve Board's weekly statement of debits to individual account reported through the Federal Reserve Banks by over 150 of the country's more important clearing houses. Transactions cover the weekly periods ending Wednesday, June 9 and June 2 of the present year and June 11, 1919. The statement closes with a recapitulation giving comparative figures by reserve districts for cities reporting complete data for the three weeks under review.

As compared with the total for the preceding 5-day week, the total of debits to individual account reported by 152 important Clearing Houses shows an increase of 526 millions, or 6.2 per cent. For New York City an increase of 305 millions, or of over 7 per cent is noted, while totals for Boston and St. Louis indicate a smaller volume of transactions than the week before. As the result chiefly of the limited volume of stock exchange dealings, the New York City total of 4,487 millions is 618 millions below the corresponding 1919 total. For the other 151 cities an increase over last year's total by 577 millions, or nearly 15 per cent is shown. For the 23 weeks the cumulative total for New York City, 111,035 millions, was 16.8 per cent larger than last year, while the corresponding total for 147 other centers, 105,886 millions, shows an increase of about 27 per cent over the 1919 total.
