BANK DEBITS

Below is given the Federal Reserve Board's weekly statement of debits to individual account reported through the Federal Reserve Banks by over 150 of the country's more important clearing houses. Transactions cover the weekly periods ending Wednesday, July 28 and July 21 of the present year and July 30, 1919. The statement closes with a recapitulation giving comparative figures by Reserve Districts for cities reporting complete data for the three weeks under review.

Total debits to individual account reported by 154 Clearing Houses, 8,252 millions, were 1,021 millions less than the week before, the New York City total alone showing a decline of 484.5 millions for the week. Considerable reductions are reported for the larger centers of the country, except Pittsburgh and Kansas City. As compared with the corresponding week in 1919 the most recent week shows a decrease of 290 millions. This decrease is confined largely to New York City, the other 153 centers showing a combined increase of 487 millions over the corresponding 1919 total.
