BANK DEBITS

Aggregate debits to individual account, as reported for banks in 155 of the country's leading clearing house centers for the week ending February 2, were 8,558 millions, or 400 millions more than for the preceding week. Increases are reported for all the larger centers, except Chicago and Los Angeles, the increase for New York City banks alone being 366 millions. Attention is called to the fact that this statement for the first time shows figures for East St. Louis, including National Stock Yards.

As compared with the corresponding week in 1920, debits for the week under review are smaller by 1646 millions, or 16 per cent, all the larger centers, except Pittsburgh, reporting reduced figures.
