BANK DEBITS

Aggregate debits to individual account, as reported for banks in 156 of the country's leading clearing house centers for the week ending February 23, were 6,479 millions as compared with 7,342 millions for the preceding week. Smaller totals of debits were reported from all the leading centers except Pittsburgh. The smaller totals for the most recent week are due to the fact that it includes Washington's birthday, a legal holiday throughout the country. On a basis of a daily average, debits for the week ending February 23 were somewhat larger than for the preceding week.

As compared with the corresponding week in 1920, which also was a five-day week, debits to individual account for the week under review are smaller by 1,283 millions, or about 17 per cent, nearly all the important centers, reporting reduced figures.
