BANK DEBITS

Volume of business, as measured by debits to individual account, shows a reduction from $7,543,000,000 for the week ending March 23 to $6,464,000,000 for the week ending March 30. These debits are reported to the Federal Reserve Banks for banks in 157 of the country's leading clearing house centers. Smaller figures for the most recent week are shown for all the larger centers, except Boston, the decrease for New York City alone being $712,000,000, or about 70 per cent of the total decrease. The smaller volume, <sup>of debits</sup> for the week under review may be due in part to the observance of Good Friday as a holiday in some of the centers.

As compared with the corresponding week in 1920, debits for the week under review were smaller by $3,149,000,000, or about 33 per cent, substantial reductions being shown for all the leading centers, except Los Angeles. For New York City alone the figures for the week under review were smaller than those for the corresponding week in 1920 by $1,927,000,000, or about 38 per cent.
