Federal Reserve Board,
Jan. 7, 1922.

BANK DEBITS

Volume of business for the week ending January 4 shows an increase of $2,190,000,000, or of about 32 per cent, over the total reported for the preceding week, each of the weeks containing but five business days. The large aggregate for the week under review, $9,979,000,000, as against $6,789,000,000 the week before, reflects largely the settlement of end-of-year obligations. All the leading centers participated in the increase. The statement is based on total debits to individual accounts reported to the Federal Reserve Board for banks in 159 leading clearing house centers.

As compared with the week ending January 5, 1921, the statement of business for the report week was smaller by $1,978,000,000, or about 18 per cent. All the leading centers, except Los Angeles, report substantially smaller totals of debits than for the corresponding week last year, the largest decreases being reported for Cleveland (31 per cent) and for Pittsburgh (25 per cent).
