

STATEMENT FOR THE PRESS

Released for publication
Sunday morning, July 16;
not earlier.

St.2905.
Federal Reserve Board,
July 15, 1922.

BANK DEBITS.

Volume of business for the week ending July 12 totaled $8,824,000,000, compared with $8,634,000,000 for the preceding week which contained only five business days. Among the leading centers a number reported larger figures, while others reported declines. Among the principal advances are those shown for New York, where the volume of stock exchange transactions was nearly twice as large as the week before, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The largest decreases are shown for Boston, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

As compared with the week ending July 13, 1921, the volume of business for the week under review shows an increase of $1,301,000,000, or about 17 per cent, larger figures being reported for all the centers, except Baltimore, Detroit and Kansas City.

The volume of business is measured by debits to individual accounts reported to the Federal Reserve Board for banks in clearing house centers. The total number of centers reporting this week is 246, of which 161 are included in the summary by Federal reserve districts.
