BANK DEBITS

Volume of business for the week ending August 9 was $7,811,000,000, marking a recession of over $1,000,000,000 from the total of $8,816,000,000 reported for the preceding week, which was swelled by end-of-month transactions. Smaller figures are reported for all the leading centers, except New Orleans, St. Louis and Kansas City.

As compared with the week ending August 10, 1921, the volume of business for the week under review shows an increase of $384,000,000, or 13 per cent, larger figures being reported for all the leading centers, except Boston, Baltimore, Milwaukee and Minneapolis. The increase over last year is most pronounced in Pittsburgh, for which a rise of 27 per cent is reported.

The volume of business is measured by debits to individual accounts reported to the Federal Reserve Board for banks in leading centers. The total number of centers reporting this week is 249, of which 166 are included in the summary by Federal reserve districts.
