BANK DEBITS

Settlement of end-of-quarter and end-of-month obligations during the week^{ending} October 4 accounts largely for the increase in the volume of business from $8,220,000,000 for the week ending September 27 to $9,697,000,000 for the week under review. Larger figures are reported for all the leading centers, except Detroit.

As compared with the week ending October 5, 1921, the volume of business for the week under review shows an increase of $1,105,000,000, or about 13 per cent. Larger figures as compared with last year are reported for all the leading centers, except Baltimore, Minneapolis and San Francisco. The increase in volume of business for New York was from $4,373,000,000 for the week ending October 5, 1921, to $5,133,000,000 for the most recent week, this increase amounting to 17 per cent.

The volume of business is measured by debits to individual accounts reported to the Federal Reserve Board for banks in leading centers. The total number of centers reporting this week is 246, of which 165 are included in the summary by Federal reserve districts.
