Board of Governors
 of the Federal Reserve System
 January 11, 1936

BANK DEBITS

Debits to individual accounts, as reported by banks in leading cities for the week ended January 8, aggregated $10,097,000,000, or 12 percent above the total reported for the preceding week, which included only five business days, and 38 percent above the total for the corresponding week of last year.

Aggregate debits for the 141 cities for which a separate total has been maintained since January 1919 amounted to $9,361,000,000, compared with $8,411,000,000 the preceding week and $6,738,000,000 the week ended January 9 of last year.

#Figures for Oakland published prior to January 8, 1936, included debits to the accounts of other banks and certain other charges which should have been excluded. Revised figures, which are now available beginning with September 1934, average about 43 percent of those originally published.
