RESERVES OF DEPOSITORY INSTITUTIONS

1959-81.

The attached tables contain aggregate reserves and monetary base series that reflect the latest changes due to benchmarking and revised seasonal adjustment factors.

Because regulatory changes in reserve requirements cause discontinuities in aggregate reserves and monetary base series, historical data are presented in two forms, one unadjusted for such breaks and the other break-adjusted. Table 1 (monthly) and Table 3 (weekly) present data on reserves measures and the monetary base adjusted to remove breaks caused by regulatory changes in reserve requirements. Table 2 (monthly) and Table 4 (weekly) contain observed data (not break-adjusted) on reserves measures and the monetary base. Break-adjusted series are shown on both a seasonally adjusted and not seasonally adjusted basis; not break-adjusted series are shown not seasonally adjusted.

Regulatory variations in reserve requirements have occurred in association with changes in Regulations D, J, K, and M and with the transitional phase-in of required reserves under the Monetary Control Act of 1980. For example, before the implementation of reserve requirements on nonmember institutions under the Monetary Control Act of 1980 on November 13, 1980, reserves data in Tables 2 and 4 are for member commercial banks only; thereafter, reserves are shown for all depository institutions. Thus, in Tables 2 and 4, changes in reserve series computed across periods that include such discontinuities do not provide meaningful measures. Figures in Tables 1 and 3 are constructed to remove such discontinuities, and thus can be used for calculating meaningful growth rates and for performing most other analysis.

Several statistical methods are available for removing breaks in these series. A multiplicative method is used to adjust historical data by estimating what required reserves would have been in past periods had current reserve requirements been in effect. This method produces new adjusted historical series when there is a change in the reserve requirement structure, thus maintaining consistency between historical and current levels. The adjusted series exclude marginal required reserves and reserves held against Eurodollar liabilities, certain obligations of domestic affiliates, and ineligible acceptances (finance bills).

Current data, monthly and weekly, actual and adjusted basis, are published on the Board's H.3 release, "Aggregate Reserves and Member Bank Deposits". Weekly seasonally adjusted data are shown on the H.9 release, "Weekly Summary of Banking and Credit Measures". Monthly seasonally adjusted data are also published in the Federal Reserve Bulletin.

Description of Break Adjustment Procedures

Historical aggregate reserves and monetary base series adjusted for changes in Regulations D, J, K, and M, including changes associated with the transitional phase-in of reserve requirements under the Monetary Control Act of 1980, are constructed in the following manner:

1. For the week in which reserve requirements against deposits change due to a change in Regulation D, required reserves are calculated on both the old and the new reserve requirement basis for the type of deposits affected.
2. The ratio of "new" required reserves to "old" required reserves for the particular deposit type is calculated and this ratio is applied to actual required reserves for that deposit type for all weeks prior to the change in Regulation D.
3. As the ratio is applied back through time, it is adjusted for earlier breaks in series due to changes in Regulation D by multiplying the current ratio by the ratio calculated at the time of the previous change in Regulation D. (This procedure is carried back, weekly, to January 1959; monthly averages are derived from prorations of the weekly data).
4. Adjustments for breaks in series due to changes in reserve requirements on other reservable liabilities (i.e., certain obligations of domestic affiliates, ineligible acceptances (finance bills), and Eurodollar liabilities) and marginal reserve requirements are made by subtracting the sum of such required reserves from the actual series.

II.

- 10/ Effective March 2, 1967, reserve requirement of all member banks against savings deposits and the first $5 million of time deposits was reduced from 4 percent to 3-1/2 percent. This action reduced required reserves approximately $425 million.

- 16/ Effective October 1, 1970, reserve requirement of all member banks against time deposits (other than savings deposits) in excess of $5 million was reduced from 6 percent to 5 percent. At the same time, a 5 percent reserve requirement was imposed against funds obtained by member banks through the issuance of commercial paper by their affiliates. This action reduced required reserves approximately $500 million (net).
- 17/ Effective January 7, 1971, the reserve percentage required to be maintained against certain foreign borrowings, primarily Eurodollars, by member banks, and the sale of assets to their foreign branches was raised from 10 percent to 20 percent. This action had little effect on required reserves.

III.

- 18/ Effective November 9, 1972, Regulations D and J were revised to (1) adopt a system of reserve requirements against demand deposits of all member banks based on the amount of such deposits held by a member bank, and (2) to require banks--member and nonmember--to pay cash items presented by a Federal Reserve Bank on the day of presentation in funds available to the Reserve Bank on that day. These changes reduced required reserves approximately $2.5 billion, effective November 9; $1.0 billion, effective November 16; and increased required reserves $300 million, effective November 23.
- 19/ Effective June 21, 1973, the Board amended its Regulation D to establish a marginal reserve requirement of 8 percent against certain time deposits and to subject to the 8 percent reserve requirement certain deposits exempt from the rate limitations of the Board's Regulation Q. In addition, reserves against certain foreign branch deposits were reduced from 10 percent to 8 percent. These changes had little effect on required reserves.
- 20/ Effective July 12, 1973, reserve requirements were imposed against finance bills. This action increased required reserves approximately $90 million.
- 21/ Effective July 19, 1973, reserve requirement against all net demand deposits, except the first $2 million was increased 1/2 percentage point. This action increased required reserves approximately $760 million.

- 25/ Effective December 12, 1974, reserve requirement against all time deposits with an original maturity of six months or longer was reduced from 5 percent to 3 percent; reserve requirement against all time deposits with an original maturity of less than six months was increased from 5 to 6 percent; and reserve requirement against net demand deposits over $400 million was reduced from 18 percent to 17-1/2 percent. In addition, the 3 percent marginal reserve requirement on large certificates of deposit with an initial maturity of less than four months was removed. This action reduced required reserves approximately $710 million.

- 26/ Effective February 13, 1975, reserve requirement against all categories of net demand deposits up to $400 million was reduced by one-half of 1 percentage point, and reserve requirement against net demand deposits of more than $400 million was reduced 1 percentage point. This action reduced required reserves approximately $1,065 million.
- 27/ Effective May 22, 1975, reserve requirement against foreign borrowings of member banks, primarily Eurodollars, was reduced from 8 percent to 4 percent. This action reduced required reserves approximately $80 million.

- 30/ Effective December 30, 1976, reserve requirement against net demand deposits up to $10 million was reduced by 1/2 percentage point, and reserve requirement against net demand deposits over $10 million was reduced by 1/4 percentage point. This action reduced required reserves by approximately $550 million.
- 31/ Effective November 2, 1978, a supplementary reserve requirement of 2 percentage points was imposed on time deposits of $100,000 or more. This action increased required reserves approximately $3.0 billion.
- 32/ Effective October 11, 1979, a marginal reserve requirement of 8 percent was imposed on "managed liabilities" of member banks, Edge corporations, and U.S. agencies and branches of foreign banks above a base average for the two weeks ending September 26, 1979. Managed liabilities include large time deposits ($100,000 and over with maturities of less than one year), repurchase agreements against U.S. government and federal agency securities, Eurodollar borrowings, and federal funds borrowings from a nonmember institution. On October 25, required reserves and reserves held by Edge Corporations were included in member bank reserves. (Previously reserves held by these institutions were recorded as "other deposits" by Federal Reserve Banks.) These actions raised required reserves approximately $355 and $320 million, respectively.

- 33/ Effective March 12, 1980, the 8 percentage point marginal reserve requirement was raised to 10 percent. In addition, the base upon which the marginal reserve requirement is calculated was reduced. This action increased required reserves about $1.7 billion.

- 35/ Effective July 24, 1980, the 5 percent marginal reserve requirement on managed liabilities and the 2 percent supplementary reserve requirement against large time deposits were removed. These actions reduced required reserves about $3.2 billion.
- 36/ Effective November 13, 1980, required reserves of member banks and Edge Act corporations were reduced about $4.3 billion and required reserves of other depository institutions were increased about $1.4 billion due to the implementation of the Monetary Control Act of 1980.
- 37/ Effective February 12, 1981, in conjunction with the transitional phase-in program under the Monetary Control Act, required reserves of certain nonmember banks and foreign-related institutions increased by approximately $245 million effective February 18, 1981.
- 38/ Effective March 12, 1981, in conjunction with the transitional phase-in program under the Monetary Control Act, required reserves of small nonmember "quarterly reporters" increased $75 million.
- 39/ Effective May 14, 1981, in conjunction with the transitional phase-in program under the Monetary Control Act, required reserves of certain nonmember banks and foreign-related institutions increased by approximately $245 million.
- 40/ Effective August 13, 1981, in conjunction with the transitional phase-in program under the Monetary Control Act, required reserves of certain nonmember banks and foreign-related institutions increased $245 million.

VI.

- 44/ Effective February 11, 1982, in conjunction with the transitional phase-in program under the Monetary Control Act, required reserves of certain nonmember banks and foreign-related institutions increased $220 million.
