On July 5, 1995, the face amount of marketable U.S. government securities held in custody by the Federal Reserve Banks for foreign official and international accounts was $458,901 million, a change of $12,175 million for the week. The total includes the face value of U.S. Treasury strips and other zero coupon bonds.

1. Net of $7,927 million, daily average, matched sale-purchase transactions outstanding during the latest statement week, of which $7,927 million was with foreign official and international accounts. Includes securities loaned–fully secured by U.S. government securities.

2. Net of $10,028 million matched sale-purchase transactions outstanding at the end of the latest statement week, of which a net of $10,028 million was with foreign official and international accounts. Includes $304 million securities loaned–fully secured U.S. government securities.

3. Consists of required clearing balances of $4,290 million and adjustments of $224 million to compensate for float.

4. Excludes required clearing balances and adjustments to compensate for float.
