CONDITION OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS

The daily average volume of Federal Reserve bank credit outstanding during the week ended January 10, as reported by the Federal Reserve banks, was $2,665,000,000, a decrease of $21,000,000 compared with the preceding week and an increase of $519,000,000 compared with the corresponding week in 1933.

On January 10 total Reserve bank credit amounted to $2,655,000,000, a decrease of $33,000,000 for the week. This decrease corresponds with decreases of $107,000,000 in money in circulation and $35,000,000 in unexpended capital funds, nonmember deposits, etc., offset in part by an increase of $67,000,000 in member bank reserve balances and a decrease of $43,000,000 in Treasury currency, adjusted.

The System's holdings of bills discounted declined $2,000,000 and of bills bought in open market $5,000,000, holdings of the various classes of Government securities were practically unchanged.

Under the provisions of Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation on January 3 called upon the Federal Reserve banks to subscribe forthwith to Class B stock in that corporation in an amount equal to one-half of their surplus on January 1, 1933, and to pay one-half thereof, and on January 5 the corporation called the remainder of such subscription for payment on April 15. The amounts paid the corporation and the amounts payable on April 15 are shown, for ten Federal Reserve banks, immediately preceding "All other liabilities" in this week's statement and the amount of stock acquired immediately preceding "All other assets". The request of the corporation will be acted upon by the two other Federal Reserve banks at the next meetings of their boards of directors.

Changes in the amount of Reserve bank credit outstanding and in related items during the week and the year ended January 10, 1934, were as follows:
