This series has been revised, as announced on January 7. The figures shown above for March 11, 1953 are on the new basis and are compared with revised figures for March 4, 1953 on the new basis; but year-ago figures have not been revised. March 4 figures on the new basis appear on the reverse side, together with the changes resulting from the revisions in the series. The revisions in New York result largely from the addition of a few banks, and in Chicago from the substitution of banks.
